The President's Message to the Graduates

Dear 2004 Graduates:

Congratulations on your graduation and best wishes for the years ahead.

As you embark on new and exciting opportunities and challenges, we want you to know that we are extremely proud of your achievements here at Husson College. As you leave Husson with your degree, we wish you continued success in your future endeavors.

You are now a part of the Husson College alumni family. We need your thoughts, ideas, and support if we are to continue to serve you and future Husson alumni. Your role as one of our 15,000 alumni is an important one, and we hope that you will strive to pursue your dreams in an ever-changing and exciting world.

On behalf of the Husson Community we wish you well and Godspeed.

Sincerely,

William H Beardsley
President

"IN LOVING MEMORY"

One of the hallmarks of collegiate life is the diverse make-up of its student body. Husson is unique in that in addition to the college we have as an integral part of the wider community the New England School of Communications (NESCOM) and the International Center for Language Studies (ICLS). Each student brings uniqueness to the community and is valued as an individual. Husson is a place where you are known by your name.

During the academic year 2003-2004 the Husson community dealt with the tragic loss of two members of the student body. Because each person is valued we wish to express our loss and recognize them for the contribution that they made to the collegiate community.

ROHAN J. COWIE
February 7, 1985 – December 1, 2003

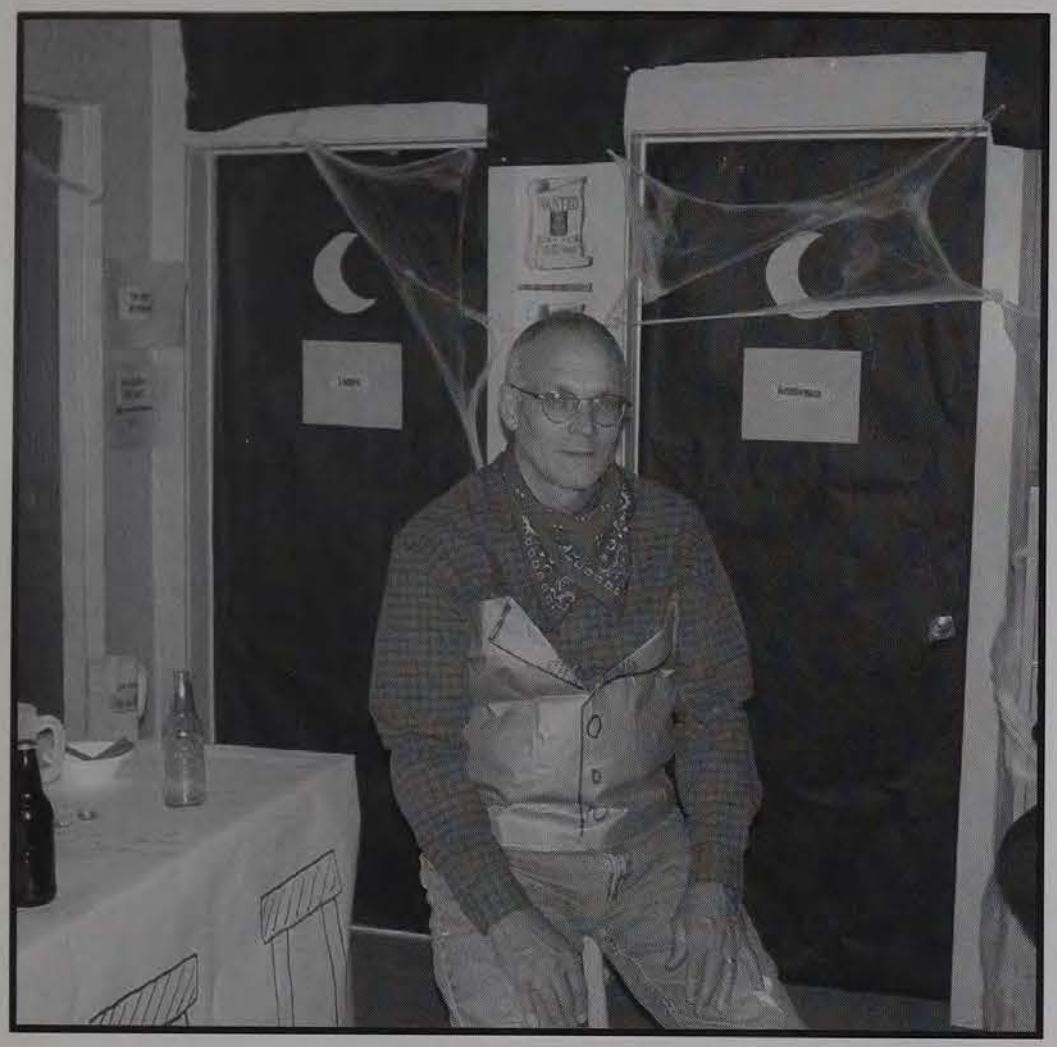

Rohan was a freshman student at NESCOM with a keen sense of humor and a passion for music. He was quiet and unassuming yet for his circle of "friends" he was quite gregarious. He was a son and brother that was deeply loved. The administration, faculty and staff of NESCOM and HUSSON spoke fondly of his presence.

LEE MATTHEW ST. HILAIRE
March 14, 1983 – February 17, 2004

Lee was a freshman at Husson who made his mark early on as a member of the newly constituted "football team" for the college. Lee was an outstanding athlete. He was Husson's quarterback with an arm that was capable of 50 yard passes. He was loved by parents, family, students and respected by team members and others as well.
