ABOUT HUSSON COLLEGE

Husson is located in Bangor, Maine, a city of approximately 30,000 people, a short drive from the Maine coasts, forests, and mountains. Approximately 250 miles north of Boston and 250 miles east of Quebec City, Bangor has one of the lowest urban crime rates in the United States.

We enroll approximately 2,000 students, with about 400 enrolled in graduate programs. This years incoming students include 551 students. Our students come from all over Maine, the country and the world. Next Open House is November 11th and March 24th

The average class size is 20 students. In fact, there are no large lecture halls on the Husson campus.

With roughly 70 faculty members (all of whom teach) and a number of adjunct faculty (who also work in the profession that they teach), the student-to-teacher ratio is approximately 19/1.

The average annual tuition fee for an undergraduate student taking fifteen credit hours per semester is $11,520.00 for the 2006-2007 academic year. The Occupational Therapy and Physical Therapy programs have slightly different tuition fees. Room and board fees total $6,240.00, the comprehensive fee is $250.00, the health fee is $50.00, and estimated indirect charges (books and supplies) total $800.00

Nearly 90% of our students qualify to receive federal, state, community and/or campus-based financial aid.

We offer undergraduate and graduates degrees in the following academic disciplines:

- Accounting
- Biology
- Business (Graduate degree)
- Business Administration (Financial Management, General, Hospitality Management, International Business, Management, Marketing, Small/Family Business Management, and Sports Management)
- Business and Technology
- Computer Information Systems
- Criminal Justice (Graduate & Undergraduate Degrees)
- Education (Graduate and Undergraduate Degrees)
- English
- Nursing (Graduate & Undergraduate Degrees)
- Paralegal Studies
- Physical Therapy/Kinesiology (Graduate & Undergraduate Degrees)
- Occupational Therapy (Graduate & Undergraduate Degrees)
- Psychology (Graduate and Undergraduate Degrees)
- Science & Humanities

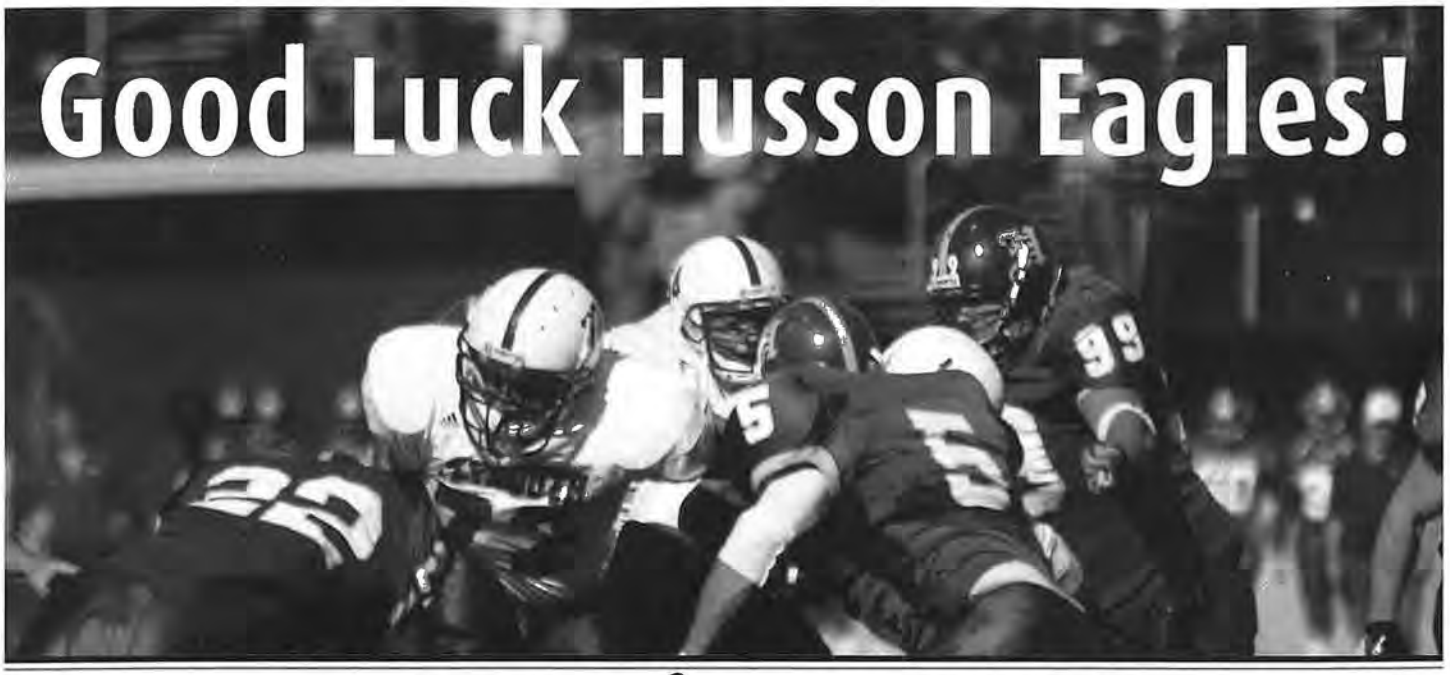

A member of the NCAA Division III, Husson offers 11 varsity sports and intramurals using state-of-the-art facilities, including the Swan Fitness Center, The Webber Pool, and the Winkin Sports Complex with field turf. More than 250 athletes participate in intercollegiate athletics along with more than 300 students taking part in our intramural program.

Applicants for admission to Husson may receive guidance and assistance by contacting the Admissions Office. Admissions Officers provide materials and newsletters to help applicants learn more about Husson College, and also invite applicants for personal interviews and campus tours.

Husson College is a private institution of post-secondary education offering undergraduate and graduate degrees in business, health, education and professional studies. Husson seeks to serve motivated, career-oriented students through a curriculum that integrates liberal arts and sciences, professional and technical studies, and experiential learning outside the classroom. Husson dedicates itself to excellence in teaching, to a personalized collegiate experience, to the development of individual self-worth, to a curriculum which promotes clear thinking and communication skills, and to an environment which values the search for ethical truths in a changing world.

HUSSON COLLEGE COACHES

Gabby Price

Head Football Coach

Coach Gabby Price was born and raised in Bangor, Maine. He enjoys being part of the community where he grew up, went to school, works and raised his family with his wife of 34 years, Mary. Mary and Gabby have one daughter Susan who is a graduate of Bowdoin College. Susan recently married Andy Stephenson and they reside in Hebron, Maine. Coach Price is a Bangor native spending his entire life serving the Bangor area as an educator and business man. Coach Price spent 12 years teaching in the Bangor school system before retiring in 1985. After retiring from teaching he bought a local business called Fairmount Market, which he operated from, 1984-1996. In 1995 he opened a convenience store, "The Corner Store" down the street from the Fairmount Market. He still owns and operates The Corner Store and Seamus's today.

Coach Price was a standout athlete in high school and college. He was named Athlete of the Year at Bangor High School in 1967 after being a three sport star in Football, Basketball, and Baseball. Coach Price would spend a year as a Post Graduate at Bridgton Academy in Maine playing football before he began his college career at Rutgers University, NJ. He was inducted into the Bridgton Academy Hall of Fame in the spring of 2006. He played freshman football at Rutgers before transferring to University of Maine at Orono. Coach Price lettered two years at University of Maine as a fullback. He graduated with a Bachelors of Science in Education in 1973.

His storied coaching career began in 1973. Upon graduating from the University of Maine he became an assistant coach at Bangor High School. During his three year stint as an assistant coach, Bangor High School won two state Championships (1973, 1975). Coach Price was then named head coach in 1976. He would continue to be head coach at Bangor High School on two different occasions from 1976-1984 and again from 1992-2000. Coach Price would amass a career record of 129-52 during his 18 years at Bangor High. His teams made the playoffs 15 out of 18 years. In all, Coach Price as head coach would lead Bangor High School to the state championship game 6 times in his 18 years, winning the state championship in 1979 and 1981.

Coach Price arrived on the Husson College campus in 2002 and set out to develop a football program and he has done so in fine fashion. In 2005 the third season of competition he helped lead the Eagles to 4 wins against 4 losses. The past two seasons the football team has had over 100 student-athletes on the roster.

Along with being the Head Football Coach, Coach Price is also the Athletic Director at Husson College. He is responsible for all 11 teams on campus and the athletic department. He also serves as the North Atlantic Conference Chairman of Baseball.
