THE LAMP

1983

We the students, faculty and staff of the Eastern Maine Medical Center School of Nursing are fortunate to have been a part of the proud heritage of the Diploma Program. For over ninety years the program has held the tradition of high standards in nursing education.

Seniors take with you the ideals of the program. Continue to work toward the highest standards of conduct and nursing care during your professional endeavors. Congrations!

Helen Genco
Director School of Nursing

JAN FULLER

Our teacher/nurse/counselor/friend, who has been a lot of things to a lot of people. Her most cherished feature, however, being the way she makes people, we student nurses in particular, feel about ourselves --- confident and self-assured.

Thanks for your patience, warmth, understanding and whatever that extra something is you have that has helped us grow through these past three years.

Thank-you,

GRADUATION 1983

In the wake of the beginning of this joyful, teary end
We have fear and anticipation
in what we now begin.

And although eveything's changing
we are changing with the cast
Our lamps pressed to the future
with the imprint of the past.

WE ARE ONE!
WE HAVE COME ALIVE!
WE HAVE SURVIVED!

The wide-eyed innocence has been exchanged
by us who dared
For a loving realistic look
of what it means to care.

So this class of 1983
is ready for the task
Our lamps pressed to the future
with the imprint of the past.

Fred, thanks for your support

KAREN MCKENZIE BAILEY

Erika, whose talent is exceeded only by her potential

In appreciation for the many qualities that make you so special in my heart.

For being a push when I falter, a word when I'm lonely, a guide when I'm searching, a smile when I'm sad, a song when I'm happy

For knowing me at I am, for accepting who I've become.

With much love, I take joy in presenting this expression of my thanks, for all you mean to me.

CLIMB 'TILL YOUR DREAM COMES TRUE

Often your tasks will be many, And more than you can do . . Often the road will be rugged And the hills insurmountable, too . . . But always remember, the hills ahead Are never as steep as they seem, And with faith in your heart start upward And climb 'til you reach your dream, For nothing in life that is worthy is ever to hard to achieve, If you have the courage to try it and you have the faith to believe . . . . For faith is a force that is greater than knowledge or power or skill. And many defeats turn to triumph if you trust in God's wisdom and will . . . . . For faith is a mover of mountains, There's nothing that God cannot do, So start out today with faith in your heart and climb 'till your dream comes true!

Mom, your constant encouragement and support has given me the strength to continue on in a career that will be satisfying to me. I love you very much and hope to make you very proud. This is for us!

JOYCE MARIE CLARK

Nana and Grampy: Just knowing that you both love me and are there for me gave me strength when I was tired. Thank-you. Much love to you both.

VALERIE EDITH WOODSUM DAWSON

"I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again." Stephen Grellet, etal

It has taken a long time, but I've finally reaching my goal. I never would have made it this far without the love and support of my family and friends - I've learned so much from all of you. Most importantly, I've learned how precious life is; that belief helped me to choose nursing as a career. I want to thank all of you, especially the person who was there every step of the way: my husband. Dick, I hope you realize how grateful I am for all the help you've given me. Looking back, I remember the nights when you typed my papers because they were due the next day and I hadn't even finished writing them; the nights you slept with the light on while I crammed for my exams; the times you did the housework because I was busy studying; the times you offered a shoulder to cry on because the stress was unbearable; the times you let me practice on you when I had a new skill to learn; and most of all, the pride I saw in your eyes when I first tried on my graduation uniform. That pride made me realize that it's all been worth it. Thank you for caring.

He is more than kind, handsome, and talented, he was always there to listen and offer an encouraging word when it was needed most.

PATRICIA L. DURAN

Spreading a lot of T.L.C. can really make you feel A.D.K. about Y.O.U.

The Quiet Ones!

Mom and Dad, you have truly been my best friends these past three years. I never could have achieved this goal without you. I love you. I have one of the greatest families ever. Thank you for your love and support. Special thanks to Gloria and Weldon, who are two very thoughtful and terrific people.

Peg, thanks for being such a good friend!

Thankyou, Mom and Dad. I LOVE YOU

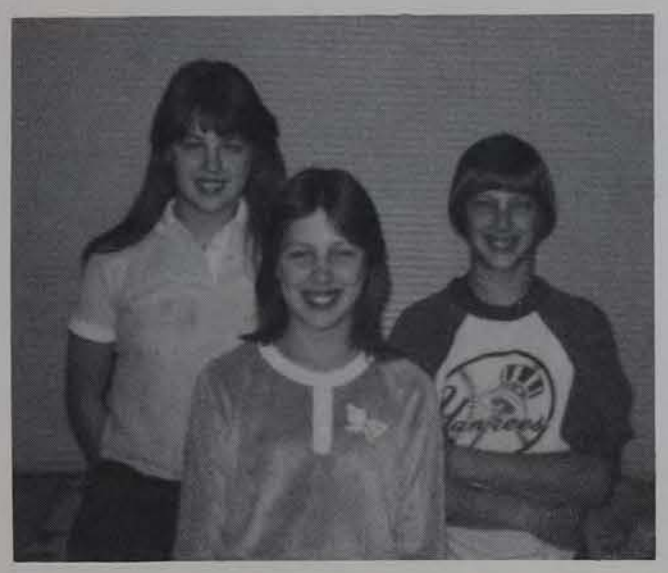

Happiness cannot come from without. It must come from within. It is not what we see and touch or that which others do for us which makes us happy; it is that which we think and feel and do, first for the other fellow and then for ourselves.

Ken, I would never have made it without your faith in me. Those times when I was ready to give up you were there to keep me going. Thanks for the love, support, and encouragement. You'll always have a special place in my heart.

MICHELLE RENAE HARRIS

Mom and Dad, How could I ever thank you for the love and support through these years. You've made it all possible and I will never forget it. I love you both. I hope I've made you proud.

The Family

"The Inseperable" Joyce, my best freind. I would never have made it without you. Let's always stay in touch. Best of luck always!

Me-In my younger days

Thanks Gram and Gramp, where would I have lived during those working summers and school vacations without you. You are my home away from home. I hope you have many more years together.

NADINE F. HOTHAM

Dad, Mom, family, friends, and Dave. Words can not express how I feel. Thank you for all the love and support these last three years. I love you for it.

FOOTPRINTS

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of this life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest points in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I noticed that during the most trouble-some times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precius, precious child. I love yu and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

LITTLE THINGS

Oh, its just the little Homely Things, the Unobtrusive Friendly Things, the "won't you let me help you' things that make our pathway Light.

And it's just the Jolly Joking Things. The "never mind the trouble" things, the "laugh with me it's funny" things that make the World seem Brighter.

So here's to all the Little Things, the "Done and forgotten" things, those "Oh it's simple Nothing" things that make Life Worth the Fight. Grace Haynes

Linda, What will I do without you.

Linda-What will I do without you. You are what the word friendship is all about. May we always stay close at heart though our careers may move us apart.

A Nurse's Prayer

Give to my eyes
light to see those in need.
Give to my heart
compassion and understanding.
Give to my mind
Knowledge and wisdom.
Give to my hands
skill and tenderness
Give to my ears
the ability to listen.
Give to my lips
words of comfort.
Give to my spirit
the desire to share.
Give to me LORD . . .
strength for this selfless service and enable me to bring joy to the lives of those I serve.

MOM AND DAD

To my Family, Thanks for all of the support, love, and encouragement you have given me over the past years. Especially thanks to Mom and Dad for everything. I couldn't have done it without your help, the words of support and advice, the use of the car for clinical, for getting me to work when it was snowy, the food, all of the trips home. The list could go on and on. I love you both. Thanks to all of my new and old friends, your support was needed on many occasions.
