President's Column

Perhaps spring this year is more meaningful in my own little sphere that it has been for some time. The pressure of building an Annex at the present high cost of labor and materials has weighed heavily. The larger student body with its problems, a home with its three sons no longer noisily breaking the silence, a cold, cold January burning the black gold in our furnaces, and other pressures on my time in outside activities related directly or indirectly to the college all seem to recede as the spring sun warms the air outside these walls.

Visions of Green Lake, a boat on the water, a book on the screened porch, the birds building nests in add places in the camp roof, the wood to be sawed and split, and the fishing tackle to be sorted and arranged, these are less weighty thoughts, and so pleasant a contrast to the other. Spring brightens up a world, gives it a new dash of color.

It also brings a fever to many students. A rebellion against the long winter grind rises in many breasts, and a longing for a change sets in. Sometimes things seem to lose their value and the goal becomes less the effort. One gets tired.

The brave may falter but they never break. They keep digging away knowing that June is just ahead and is beckoning them to the summer beyond. Then there will be a chance for a rest, or at least a cessation of the present tasks to accept others in their place. A change is often as good as a rest.

My message is to encourage you to keep up the pace that you have established and to persevere to June with good grades. Don't fall off the Dean's List under the enchantment of Mother Nature's charming enticements to play in her yard. Work is the law of life and its best friend, the philosopher tells us. Stay with it. Don't let your parents down, your college, or yourself. Keep rowing or you'll float downstream.

Girls' Varsity

Husson girls have completed a most successful season, winning ten of twelve games played. The most disappointing factor of the season was the cancelling of two games with Westbrook Junior College of Portland. These games were cancelled because of illness on the part of Miss Martha Pratt, Westbrook Junior College Coach.

Competition was keen for the most part. Lee Academy provided the strongest opposition, Husson losing to Lee at Lee by one point in an over-time and winning from Lee at Bangor by points. Husson split their games with Ellsworth. The best played game was the college game at Nasson.

Highlights of the trips were banana splits, steak at Vallee's in Portland, and the fine lunch served in the Home Economics Room at Mattawamcook Academy in Lincoln.

High scorers for the Husson girls were Dottie Abbott, Bar Harbor, with 181 points, Barbara Moore of Clifton with 178, and Marion Adams of Cherryfield with 131. High single scoring spree was Abbott's 32 points. Most thrilling were Moore's hook shots and Adam's long, tiptoe shots.

A girl who deserves a great deal of thanks and praise for displaying the right attitude, courage to do a job well and a spirit of fight is Ellen Severance of Corinna. Ellen played guard four years and this year has played center forward all season long. Her scoring was not high (37 points) but her playmaking, backboard recoveries, passing and hard work helped the Husson team to victory.

This year Coach Swan produced an extra strong defense in the back court. The opposition had real rough sledding and lost the ball many times to these guards. Edgerly, at center guard, Govone at left guard, and Johnson at right guard did superior work. Johnson's best game was at Nasson (Bill was there). Edgerly

My compliments to the basketball teams and their coaches and cheerleaders are sincere and many. Their splendid records are a tribute to their effort and talent. I'm proud that they belong to our Husson "family" and have brought it such renown in basketball circles. Thank you, one and all.

The Annex is serving us well. The rooms are bright and cheerful. The colors are pleasing and different. A blue blackboard, a green one. Can't say blackboards if they aren't black. I don't adjust easily to calling one a blueboard. Yet it is just that. I'm grateful for each student's care and thoughtfulness in keeping it new and unmarred. We'll furnish the Lounge when we can afford it.

Applications for next year are coming daily. More and more people want a college degree, and that makes sense in today's world.

Our graduating class is meeting prospective employers. Superintendents have been in looking for new teachers. Recruiters from the U. S. General Account-Office have been in both semesters to offer employment to our Accounting majors. Letters and phone calls indicate another year of scarce help, not enough to meet the increasing demands of commerce, industry, and education.

By the way, are you an Elvis Presley fan? My answer to the members of the older generation who find fault with the lad is a simple one. If they want their children to appreciate good music then teach them good music. At home. The schools can't do everything. And they can't be blamed for the rock n' roll antics of teenagers. Not in my book, anyway. I danced the Charleston when in high school and college and loved it. My generation forgets. There's every chance to have good music in each home today, where the child can become familiar with it from the beginning. And attached to it, too. I am very fond of records that we had at home when I was a boy. Not all of them were good, but because they were part of home as I knew it, I'll enjoy them 'til time is no more. So, Elvis, relax and keep us talking about you. Parents, get wise and get some bargain albums of good music for the tots in your house. I suspect a large number of parents are going to have a time for themselves getting used to good music, and liking it. It'll be good for them. It should stop the fault-finding. This is good, because the teen-agers are pretty nice people, all in all. Healthy, alive, energetic, and smart.

It's a good world. Let's live and work together to keep it that way. And spring is ready to help us. We welcome it in warm anticipation of its gifts to the mind and body.

See you around.

Cordially,

"Chief"

CHEERLEADING

Once again the basketball season at Husson College has drawn to a close, and with it the end of cheerleading.

This year the cheerleaders, Jackie Borrello, Pat Bonadio, Sandra Babineau, Carol Sloane, Jeannette Sementelli, and Irene Miller, took two trips. The first was to Frederickton, New Brunswick to the College Basketball Conference Play-offs. The second trip was to Sanford where the team played Nasson for the Maine Small College Conference championship.

We believe our peppy cheerleaders did a lot to help the team, and we thank them for their co-operation and teamwork.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

was outstanding against Ellsworth, and Govone's best game was the Lee game. Govone managed to collect the most fouls. (It must have been her long arms and that wicked look in her eyes!)

The bench is most important to a team, the school and the coach. Without the extra girls for practice and support, the starting line-up would have been much weaker. Girls who reported all season and who will win awards in addition to the first seven are Janice Moody, Union; Rose Marie Dubay, Greenville; Janice Day, New Sharon; Myra Gould, Searsport; Thelma Vining, Pittsfield; Nancy Wells, New Vineyard; and Ida Wilson, Port Clyde.

The team wouldn't be a team without its official scorer and manager, Lucy Stark of Winterport. Lucy has contributed much to the success of the club and has contributed much in the way of friendship. She was sadly missed on the Boston trip. Assistant managers in charge of many details were Kay Gilley of Eastport, and Madalyn Jordan of Hampden. The work behind the team and coach is thankless work and not noticed and appreciated by the spectators. However, the team members and Coach appreciate good work on the past of the managers. It was thus this past seasons—all were well managed! All but four of the entire squad will be graduated in June. This means new forces in the line-up next year.

Team' Record: 10 wins, 2 losses. 538 points scored against 371 for opponents. 44.8 points average per game against 30.9 for opponents.

Meet the Faculty

Spring is in the air, and another season comes our way bringing us new ideas, new excitement, new friends, and all the enjoyment of making a place in the world for ourselves.

Also, the spring bring you another edition of our school paper, the Ledger. In this edition of the Ledger, we bring our Faculty Introduction column to a close with Mr. Wright and Mr. Tyler. We hope this column has helped you to become better acquainted with the new members of the faculty.

James L. Wright

In the past issues, we have introduced to you teachers from the South, Pennsylvania, and also from the state of Maine. Now we are going to introduce to you a teacher, whom by now you surely all like and know, Mr. James Wright from Massachusetts.

I believe this is the first time Mr. Wright has had the opportunity to teach in Maine, although he has taught in West Bridgewater, Mansfield, and Petersham, all in Massachusetts. Mr. Wright received his bachelor's degree from Boston University, and he received his master's degree from Bridgewater State Teachers College last June. He has also been a cost accountant in Massachusetts for a year.

Husson College added Mr. Wright to their faculty staff the fall of 1956. He is an instructor in the Business Administration field. Mr. Wright is also faculty advisor to the Future Teachers of America.

Mr. Wright makes his residence here in Bangor with his wife and three sons.

John M. Tyler

Mr. John M. Tyler was born in New York City, but he attended the public schools in Cherryfield. He received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Education at Husson College, and attended the University of Maine.

Mr. Tyler has taught business subjects in Brighton, Massachusetts, and Island Pond, Vermont high schools. He was assistant principal at Bar Harbor High School for two years.

He served in the Navy in World War II in the Pacific Theater of Operations.

He married the former Elsie Sides of Sherman Mills; and they have three children, John, Beverly, and James.

He is now a member of the Business Administration Department and advisor to the College Veteran's Club here at Husson, and has certainly proved an asset to the college faculty.

F. T. A.

The Forkner-Nichols Chapter of Future Teachers of America have had one big dance since the last issue of the Ledger. On January 29, a cabaret dance was held at the "Commerce Hall" at Husson. It was held from 8:30 to 11:00 p. m. The orchestra was by the Kelso's Orchestra, with men from the University of Maine doing a real fine job.

The auditorium was in caboret style, with tables and waiters. The general chairman was Raynald Martin of Madawaska. Others serving as chairmen were as follows: Darthea Hubbard, Hartland; Janice Moody, Union; John Rioux, Limestone; Norman Williams, Franklin; and George Albert, Millinocket.

There was also a real fine floor show with excellent talent from students from Husson. We wish to thank them all for their fine work.

The F.T.A. has had movies, and also a guest speaker, Ernest Starbird, of Harmony. Mr. Starbird is a graduate of Husson, 1956, and is now teaching in Carmel, Maine. He spoke to the group on "The Beginning Teacher". Much interest was held by the members. A discussion period was held afterwards.

C. V. C.

This year the C.V.C. Christmas project was kept within the walls of Husson College. In the past, we had endeavored to help families within the community. Thus, this year we felt that among our members were many deserving students, and to some of these, we offered our friendly hand.

From Professor Jackman, University of Maine, we received the challenge of addressing letters for assistance to the Korean Ministry of Education in their plea for books. Letters were sent to the 1500 colleges and universities throghout the country in a plea for national assistance. To accomplish this task, we were ably assisted by Mr. Merrill's typing classes. In response to this plea, the South Korean Educational System has been able to make great strides forward.

Again this year we held open house for the ladies. For entertainment, movies of the "Canadian Museum Railroad", "Fishing Trip Down the St. Lawrence River", and "Life of the Creole Indians", were shown.

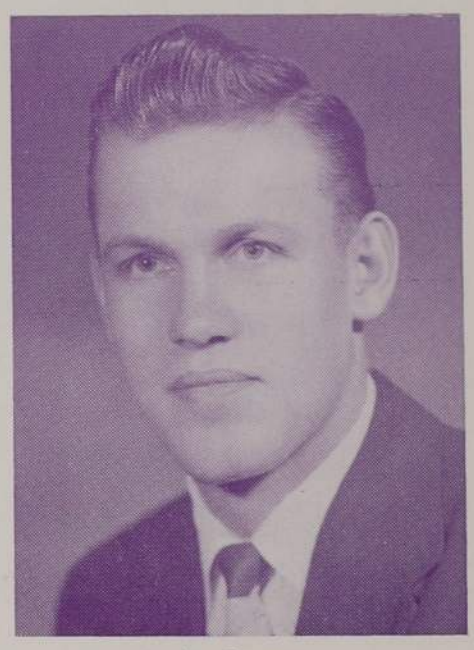

To increase attendance at the meetings, informal "get-to-gethers" were held. At these gatherings, movies, GI chatter and discard games such as pinochle, cribbage, hearts, casino, sixty-three, and of course poker, followed in the later hours.

In the planning stage for spring projects are the following ideas: Outdoor Festival, May Picnic at Branch Pond with a prize for the lucky fisherman with the biggest salmon.

Mu Sigma Chi

The election of officers was held about January 20 at Commerce Hall. Those who were elected were as follows: President, Arthur Everett; Vice President, Richard Dyke; Secretary, William Plummer; Assistant and Secretary, John Dort; Treasurer, Lewis Peters; Sereant-at-Arms, Bill Cyr; Public Relations Officer, Jean Daigle; Chaplain, Malcolm Kitchen; Parliamentarian, Parker Cook; and Marshal at Arms, Donald Wade.

The Fraternity is in the process of bringing in new members into the Mu

Art Everett

Sigma Chi, and bids have gone out to the prospective new members. Initiations will take place within the Month of March.

Preparations are being made for the "Frat Follies" which will be held on May first. This is one of the highlights of the year at Husson College when the "top stars" really "give everyone their money's worth"!

The annual trip, taking place out-of-state, will be in the spring.

Glee Club

The Glee Club, though very small, is still holding its weekly rehearsals. It is now Practicing numbers for Easter assembly and for graduation. Everyone that sings is urged to come to Glee Club to help make these assemblies a greater success. January freshmen are especially invited. EVERYONE THAT CAN SING ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND AND JOIN GLEE CLUB! It meets every Wednesday Afternoon.

ACCT. STUDENTS

The prof is my quizmaster

Varsity Basketball

The Indians continued on their winning ways by again sweeping through the Northeast College Conference undefeated, running their two year total to twenty consecutive victories. Seeded number one in the Conference Tournament the quintet drew a first round bye and met the rangy University of New Brunswick cagers in the second round. The New Brunswick team, host for the Tournament, were kept off balance by the fast break tactics and tight defense set up by the Indians, when the buzzer sounded Husson had swept to a 105-73 win. In the final round the Indians met the strong and ever dangerous Educators from Aroostook State Teachers College. The Husson cagers jumped off to an eleven point lead at the first quarter only to see Aroostook State battle back to cut the Husson lead to one point at the half. By the end of the third period after the lead had changed hands several times the score was knotted at seventy-five all. During the last quarter the rapid pace and fouls brought on by the tight defensive play began to toll their effect. Aroostook State lost their playmaker Wyman but Gould, Moore and Trafton soon followed for Husson. At this point Hunter from Aroostook State started taking matters into his own hands and with his ball handling and shooting led his team to a thrilling 105-98 victory which left the tournament crowd exhausted with excitement.

Strong Defense

The rampaging Indians, after sweeping through the Northeast College Conference were to meet Nasson College the Western College Conference winners for the State Small College Championship. These same clubs had met the previous year with the Indians gaining a quick first period lead and then holding off the Lions' last period drive for the championship.

The St. Ignatius Gym at Sanford, site of the game, was packed for the second meeting of these teams. Nasson's tall and rangy club jumped off to an early eight point lead but the Husson quintet kept shaving away until at the end of the first half Nasson only led 36-35. Throughout the second half the fans were thrilled as the score was close and the play speeding up in tempo and suspense. Going into the last two minutes the Husson chances appeared doomed as baskets by Sadlier and Pigott gave Nasson apparently an insurmountable eight point lead. Cimbollek was fouled and dropped in two points to cut the lead to six points with one minute to go. Meanwhile the Husson all court press was holding Nasson at bay and making them throw away their scoring chances. With time running out Cimbollek was again fouled and with fifty seconds left on the clock dropped in two more foul shots to cut the Lions' lead to four points. The all court press broke up the next Nasson scoring threat and Gross was fed the ball on a quick drive which was good. He was fouled on the drive and dropped in the foul marker which found Nasson with a one point lead with thirty-seven seconds to go in the game. Greenough then dropped in a basket followed by Sadlier with a foul shot to raise the Lions' lead to four points. With seven seconds remaining in the game Greenough scored again and followed with a foul shot. The Indians had been dethroned by the Lions for the State Championship in the hectic battle which reflected the excellent caliber of basketball furnished by the small colleges.

The Husson College Indians will lose only one player as Frank Dawes graduates in June. This should give Coach Del Merrill a strong core around which to build another conference contender. The Indians have risen in the past two years to the tops in small college competition and are a prominent figure around the local sport's scene. Coach Del Merrill and the team wish to thank the avid supporters whose cheers, confidence and backing have in a part made this season a success. We can not forget the efforts of the cheerleaders who have worked hard to cheer the team on, many thanks for a job well done to Captain Pat Bonadio and her girls.

Veterans holding GI life insurance policies can save time and money by paying their premiums in advance, Myles P. Cronkite, Officer-in-Charge, Veterans Administration Office, 96 Harlow Street, Bangor, Maine, said today in response to numerous inquiries.

Moreover, by paying premiums in advance, policyholders will eliminate the chance of forgetting monthly premiums, an action which might cause the policy to lapse, Cronkite said.

GI policy premiums can be paid three, six or twelve months ahead through adoption of a regular quarterly, semiannual or annual mode of billing and payment. Special advance payments for any period up to the full life of the policy also can be made if the policyholder desires, Stoddard said.

In addition to saving postage, GI policyholders get the benefit of a discount in the premium rate, Cronkite said.

Information about advance payment of GI insurance premiums is available from the VA office servicing the policy, or from any VA local contact office.

VETERANS' NEWS LETTER

Release of a veteran from GI loan liability to the Government does not automatically restore his GI home loan entitlement, Newell E. Perkins, Acting Officer-in-Charge, Veterans Administration Office, 96 Harlow Street, Bangor, Maine said today. Many veterans seemingly think different.

Such a release, provided in an omnibus GI home loan law signed by the President recently, does not change the fact that VA continues to be liable on the guaranty, Perkins explained.

The VA restores GI home loan entitlement only where it is no longer liable to the lender on that guaranty and the veteran is otherwise eligible for restoration of entitlement.

Perkins said veterans who have used their GI loan privilege may have another GI loan if their property:

1. Was taken by a government agency for public use;
2. Was destroyed by a natural hazard; or
3. Was otherwise disposed of for compelling reasons such as health, employment transfer, or other specified reasons without fault of the veteran.

A veteran in military service who disposes of his home because of a transfer under military orders may have his GI home loan entitlement restored.

In all cases where GI loan entitlement is to be restored, the Veterans Administration must be relieved from liability on the old guaranty, Perkins emphasized. This generally is done by paying off the old loan in full.

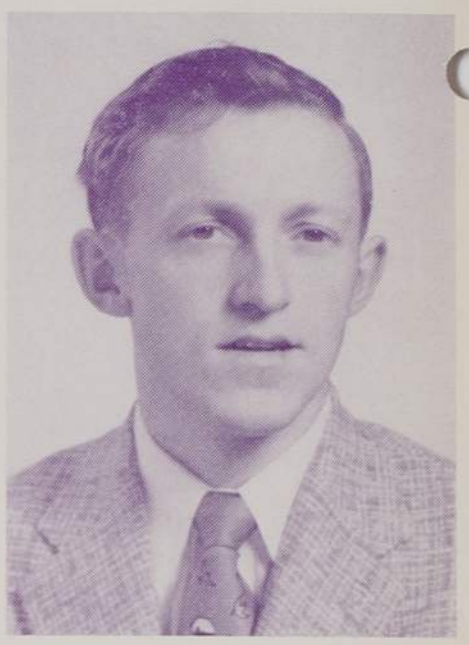

Both World War II and Korean-conflict period veterans have until January 31, 1965 to use their restored GI home loan entitlement.

Under the new liability law, Perkins said, a veteran may be released from liability to the Government under certain conditions if he sells his property and allows the purchaser to assume the GI loan rather than having it paid off in full. These conditions are:

1. The purchaser must obligate himself by contract to purchase the property and assume the veteran's liability;
2. The loan must be current;
3. The purchaser must satisfy VA that he has a good credit risk.

Further information on release of GI loan liability or restoration of entitlement may be obtained by writing or visiting the VA Office located at 96 Harlow Street, Bangor, Maine.

Dramatic Club

February 20, the Dramatic Club sponsored the Washington's Birthday Ball. This dance was advertised as a Stag Dance and proved to be one of the most successful dances at Husson to date.

Kenneth Lane and Lewis Albert did an excellent job on the posters advertising the dance.

The gym was decorated in the patriotic colors of red, white and blue. Colorful streamers covered the doorway and each wall of the gym.

Many compliments were received on the unusual design of the dance tickets. These tickets provided a great deal of interest in the dance before the first note of music was heard at the dance. A miniature bust of George Washington in gold and yellow was mounted on a white background. "Chief" Husson commented that these were some of the most unusual tickets that he had seen at Husson College in 20 years.

The popular Sammy Saliba provided the excellent dance music which was enjoyed by all those attending the dance.

The chaperones for the dance were Mrs. Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Wright.

The profit realized from this dance will be used to finance our future production, "Follow the Girls", which will be presented at Open House in May.

DELTA SIGMA DELTA CHAPTER

DELTA SIGMA DELTA SORORITY

Several members of Delta Sigma Delta Sorority took part in the formal initiation ceremonies at Thomas Business College in Waterville, where a new chapter of Pi Rho Zeta has been organized. Those taking part from Delta Sigma Delta were as follows: Phyllis Perkins, Dottie Abbott, Lucy Stark, Wanda Hazeltine, Judy McEwen, Ruth Thompson. We enjoyed the trip very much, but some of the girls, who made the trip, had to come back and pack their suitcases and leave for Boston at 3:00 a. m. Thursday morning. A good time was had by all. Some of the things that proved to be most interesting were the Ice Follies, the dog show, the basketball game, and Cinerama. A tired group of girls got off the bus Saturday night and it was quite easy to tell Monday morning which ones had gone to Boston.

Phyllis Perkins was appointed as the "Chieftain" representative from Delta Sigma Delta.

It was decided to have a mother, father, and daughter banquet this year. In the past, we have had only a banquet for the girls' and their mothers. This banquet will be held on the night of March 29.

See you in the next issue of the "Ledger!"

AT WATERVILLE

PI RHO ZETA SORORITY CHAPTERS CONDUCTED FORMAL INITIATION AT THOMAS JUNIOR COLLEGE

Pi Rho Zeta Sorority Chapters conducted a formal initiation ceremony at Thomas Junior College in Waterville, February 21, 1957.

Installing officers were Dorothy Abbott, President, Delta Sigma Delta, Lucy Stark, Vice President, Delta Sigma Delta, Barbara Moore, Chaplain, Epsilon Tau Epsilon, Farolyn Wilson, Past President, Epsilon Tau Epsilon, Phyllis Perkins and Judith McEwen, Escorts, Delta Sigma Delta. Miss Swan and Miss Bradford attended the ceremony. Twenty-four girls were initiated to Epsilon Kappa Chapter of Pi Rho Zeta Sorority.

After the ceremony the Husson students were entertained at a coffee party and were shown about the new building. President Thomas and his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Sr., were at the coffee party. Faculty members who attended from Thomas were Miss Bashier and Mrs. Hall.

TO BOSTON

HIGH SPOTS OF THE BOSTON TRIP OF THE SORORITY GROUP

To begin with, let us get this straight. There were low spots, too, but we wish to remember only the high spots!

Thursday in the wee hours everyone except the bus driver slept from Augusta to a turnpike stop. The driver got sleepy so we had a coffee stop and from there to Boston, Clark and Watson slept!

Upon arrival at 10:00 a. m. at Hotel Touraine, all thirty of us and luggage piled into one suite until other rooms were vacant.

Thursday's lunch was a high spot—I think the cafeteria fed almost everyone this noon. Thursday afternoon Turner and James spent riding the escolators and pushing their way through Filene's basement; others shopped and a group of ten attended the double-header NBA pro basketball games at Boston Gardens. In the first game, the Ft. Wayne Pistons downed the New York Knickerbockers and in the second game, Bob Cousy led the Boston Celtics to a victory over the Western division leader, the St. Lousi Hawks. The garden was full and excitement ran high when Boston played.

Thursday, various groups ate pizza, spaghetti, steak, sea food, for supper at with eyes shut tight and nodding heads, the specialty houses. Thursday evening, approximately twenty girls went to the Cinerama. We all had a terrifying ride with the runaway train down the mountain and enjoyed watching Miss Swan "sway" back and forth as the airplane did its swayings and turnings! Adams enjoyed it so much that she slept through some of it! Just plain lack of sleep! To bed and did it feel good! Some didn't ever go to bed till time to get up!

Friday dawned bright and clear. Bernadette, Dottie H., Brad, Clark and Watson went shopping for sure! They walked the soles right off their shoes and came back loaded with bargains. Friday afternoon, those interested in dogs, went to the Dog Show at the Boston Gardens. One thousand dogs for us to look at. The obedience section interested us most. Friday night the girls attended the Smongasboard House for a complete Smorgasboard supper. Two and three trips worried us some but the girls stood up well. Friday evening, taxis and subways took us to the Boston Garden to see the Ice Follies. It was a stupendous show, the best ever! Various trips to the Ice Cream Parlors kept the girls busy. Friday evening, some of the girls attended a play which was real entertaining.

Saturday, more shopping, more visiting, and more sore feet, sore throats and tired bodies.

Miss Swan and Miss Bradford called on Mrs. Grace Stewart at the Massachusetts General Hospital. She seems much improved and is looking forward to coming home.

The bus left Boston at six p. m. The final feed of the trip was at Vallee's Steak House in Portland and a nearby Pizza House. The bus arrived in the wee hours of the morning and some of the people were so sleepy that they forgot some of their bundles.

Jokes

No Teacher Shortage

"How to Get and Keep Better Teachers" was the problem under discussion by a group at a State Conference on Education. When one delegate quietly remarked that there wasn't a shortage of teachers in his town—in fact they had a waiting list—the others began bombarding him with questions.

"Do you pay high salaries?"

"No, the state minimum."

"Do you offer lots of special privileges?"

"No."

Similar questions were equally unrewarding.

Finally the delegate ended their suspense. "It could be," he drawled, "because our little town has 17 bachelor millionaires."

Family Resemblance

Hostess: "Our dog is just like one of the family."

Bored Visitor: "Which one?"
