Commencement Speaker

DR. STANLEY L. FREEMAN, JR.

University of Maine

At a relatively young age, Dr. Stanley L. Freeman, Jr., is one of the senior members of the College of Education faculty and this fall was named assistant dean of the college and director of its Team Teaching Project, which is supported by a $500,000 Ford Foundation grant.

Since 1952 when he came to the University of Maine as an instructor, Professor Freeman has advanced to the rank of full professor and senior member of the faculty in counselor education. During the past year he was chairman of the teaching team for Ed B 3 and consultant to Rockland High School's team teaching project.

In 1960 and 1961 he was director of the Summer Session NDEA Guidance Institute and this past summer (1965) was director of the NDEA Institute for Teachers of Disadvantaged Youth.

A native of Brockton, Massachusetts, Professor Freeman was graduated from Bates College in 1948 and earned his master of arts and doctor of education degrees at Teachers College, Columbia University, where he was also a lecturer in health education. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Delta Kappa, Kappa Delta Pi, and the American Personnel and Guidance Association.
