Dear Friends,

Thank you for inviting me to the inauguration of President Lynne Coy-Ogan! I am sorry I cannot be with you today to celebrate this special occasion.

As Maine's first woman governor, it gives me great pride to see Dr. Coy-Ogan assume this new role and become the first female President in Husson University's history. A native of Maine, Dr. Coy-Ogan worked in public schools before joining Husson where she has served in leadership for several years. She knows that students learn differently, are motivated by their own unique values, and that everyone takes their own path on their educational journey. With this perspective, she is well prepared to ensure Husson University is a place where everyone can succeed.

As a fellow native of rural Maine, I know that Dr. Coy-Ogan cares deeply about our students' success, fostering a warm, welcoming community, and the future of our great state. I have no doubt that she is the right person for this job and will continue building on Husson's great legacy in Bangor.

On behalf of the people of Maine, I congratulate President Coy-Ogan on her inauguration and I wish the staff and students of Husson the best as you embark on this new era.

Thank you,

Janet T. Mills
Governor

Dear Dr. Coy-Ogan,

Congratulations on your appointment as the seventh president of Husson University! I wish you great success as you bring new leadership to your institution. Along with the inevitable challenges you will encounter, may you also find exciting new professional achievements and personal enrichment.

I'm incredibly grateful for the invitation to your inauguration. As much as I would have liked to attend, I regret that I was unable to join you for this momentous occasion, and I am very sorry that we could not secure someone to send as a delegate.

Please accept my personal congratulations and the well wishes of Gordon's Board of Trustees, faculty, staff, and students.

Grace and Peace,

Michael D. Hammond

Dear Dr. Coy-Ogan:

Congratulations on your appointment as the seventh president of Husson University. The trustees, faculty, administration, and students at Providence College join me in extending best wishes to you and the entire community as you renew your commitment to your school's mission.

I regret that I am not able to be present for your celebration and will forward the invitation to our alumni office in the hope that someone might be able to represent us.

We face unique challenges as university leaders. Yet we experience wonderful blessings that come with our office. Meeting many wonderful people, and helping shape, the future of my alma mater is a privilege. I wish you every blessing in your tenure as president. May God give us the wisdom to guide our institutions to a brighter future.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Sicard, O.P.
