VOLUMNE XX

NUMBER 1

June 1950

Editorial

We have made an attempt to carry on the tradition of portraying the life of the school during the year through the medium of the Chieftain.

In an endeavor to publish a volume unique in format the Chieftain Staff made several innovations.

The senior section offers variety in picture-placement. The panel arrangement of all the students according to the courses in which they are enrolled adds an individualistic touch, new in a Husson College publication.

Special effort has been exercised in creating a pictorial section that would offer the reader a glimpse into school life at Husson. The studious moments, as well as the lighter side of school, have been recorded in "A Day at Husson College".

Through pictures and write-ups the activities of the W. A. A., M. A. A., and all other organizations of the school have been recorded.

We express our sincerest appreciation to our advertisers whose cooperation has substantially helped in making this yearbook possible.

As editor-in-chief, I wish to thank the members of the Chieftain Staff, the faculty adviser, the administrative staff, and the faculty for the part, great or small, each played in the creating of the 1950 Chieftain.

School Life

Mu Sigma Chi

Mu Sigma Chi, the only social organization for men connected with Husson College, plays an important part in the social life of the school. In addition to giving its members an opportunity for friendly get-togethers, it sponsors social programs throughout the year.

One of its outstanding projects was the annual Christmas dance, which required the cooperation of all the Fraternity members. Much time and effort was expended by the Fraternity in creating an unusual festive spirit through decorations. The evergreen archway set the tempo for the party. The Christmas tree, banked by "Merry Christmas", offered contrast with the elaborate canopy of green crepe paper artistically arranged around the lights. At one end of the hall a horseshoe, fashioned of aromatic pine, hid the mistletoe from sight of the guests—but the Fraternity members knew where it was! At the opposite end of the hall Mu Sigma Chi in large maroon letters furnished an artistic setting for Ray Downes and his Orchestra.

The year's activities were climaxed by a trip to Boston. Those who went enjoyed a baseball game, a play, and the highlights of Boston.

Initiations were held after each quarter. In order for a student to be eligible, he must have a scholastic rank of 85 per cent, or a combined scholastic and participating rank of 85 per cent. Among the members for the year 1949-50 were these:

Chapter of Pi Rho Zeta International

One of the greatest thrills that come to a girl attending Husson College is her becoming a member of Epsilon Tau Epsilon Chapter of Pi Rho Zeta. As the weeks and months go by, each girl cherishes her membership more and more.

Without our sorority we would not enjoy the good, clean fellowship that we do in our group. We would not have the opportunity to work together and to practice co-operation and teamwork, characteristics so essential for a successful business girl.

I search and cannot find words to express adequately our appreciation for all that Miss Swan and Miss Bradford do to make Epsilon Tau Epsilon mean so much to us. They give of themselves and their time unselfishly, so that we may take with us, when we leave Husson College, treasured memories of good times together. For their wholehearted efforts we want to say "Thank you" from the bottom of our hearts.

Girls' Boston Trip

February 24 was an exciting day for the basketball and sorority girls. Thirty of us went to Boston by chartered bus with Hadley Burrill as the driver. The trip down was uneventful, but everybody was happy and spent her time singing and laughing. One of the song hits was called "Ninety-nine Bottles" sung by about ten girls in the back seats. The audience didn't seem to appreciate the song, however; and there were many sighs of relief at the end.

Everybody was glad when we finally arrived in Boston, and some of the girls, who had never been in the "big city" before, were awed by all the tall buildings, "trackless" trollies, and men. They had never seen such a crowded and noisy place and wanted to go back to the Maine woods.

We arrived at the Hotel Touraine about 5:45 Friday night. After lunch some of the girls went to a stage show, and some called up friends or relatives and spent the evening with them.

After having shopped all morning, we went to the Ice Follies in the Boston Gardens. That was the main event of the trip, and everybody enjoyed it very much. The show was exceedingly colorful with costumes of all kinds. It is hard to say what the main feature of the show was because every act was as good as the one before.

After the Follies, we had dinner in the Grill Room of the hotel. As it was our last night in the city, we stayed in and furnished our own amusements. I imagine that the management was glad we were leaving the next day; for the hotel would be much quieter when we left.

Sunday morning, after two days and nights with very little sleep, we started home. Having gotten on the wrong road in leaving Boston, we had a police escort to the Portland highway. The rest of the trip was uneventful and less noisy than the one down. Even "Ninety-nine Bottles" was forgotten.

Second row: Elizabeth Hawkes, Charlene Kartus, Marion White, Joan Littlefield, Geneva Somers, Marion Brown, Diane Edes, Jeannine Pelletier, Vernis Carter, Elinor Gray.

We arrived in Bangor about 6:30 Sunday evening, and everybody seemed to be glad to see familiar streets, buildings, and faces again. Although we had fun and saw many new things, it was good to be home.

Yes, the trip to Boston was an outstanding event of the school year, but it was only one of them. There were many other happy hours spent together at work and play.

A covered dish supper brought many girls to Commerce Hall in October. We wondered who all the good cooks were who made such tasty dishes and delicious cakes. The wonderful food spiced with interesting conversation and jokes told by Mr. Husson made for other happy memories.

The annual camping trip was held the first of June at Green Lake with approximately thirty girls attending. A few of the braver ones went swimming while others were content to go boat riding. The first sunburns of the season were prominent around school that following Monday. Of course sleep was unheard of; there were too many stories to tell and jokes to try.

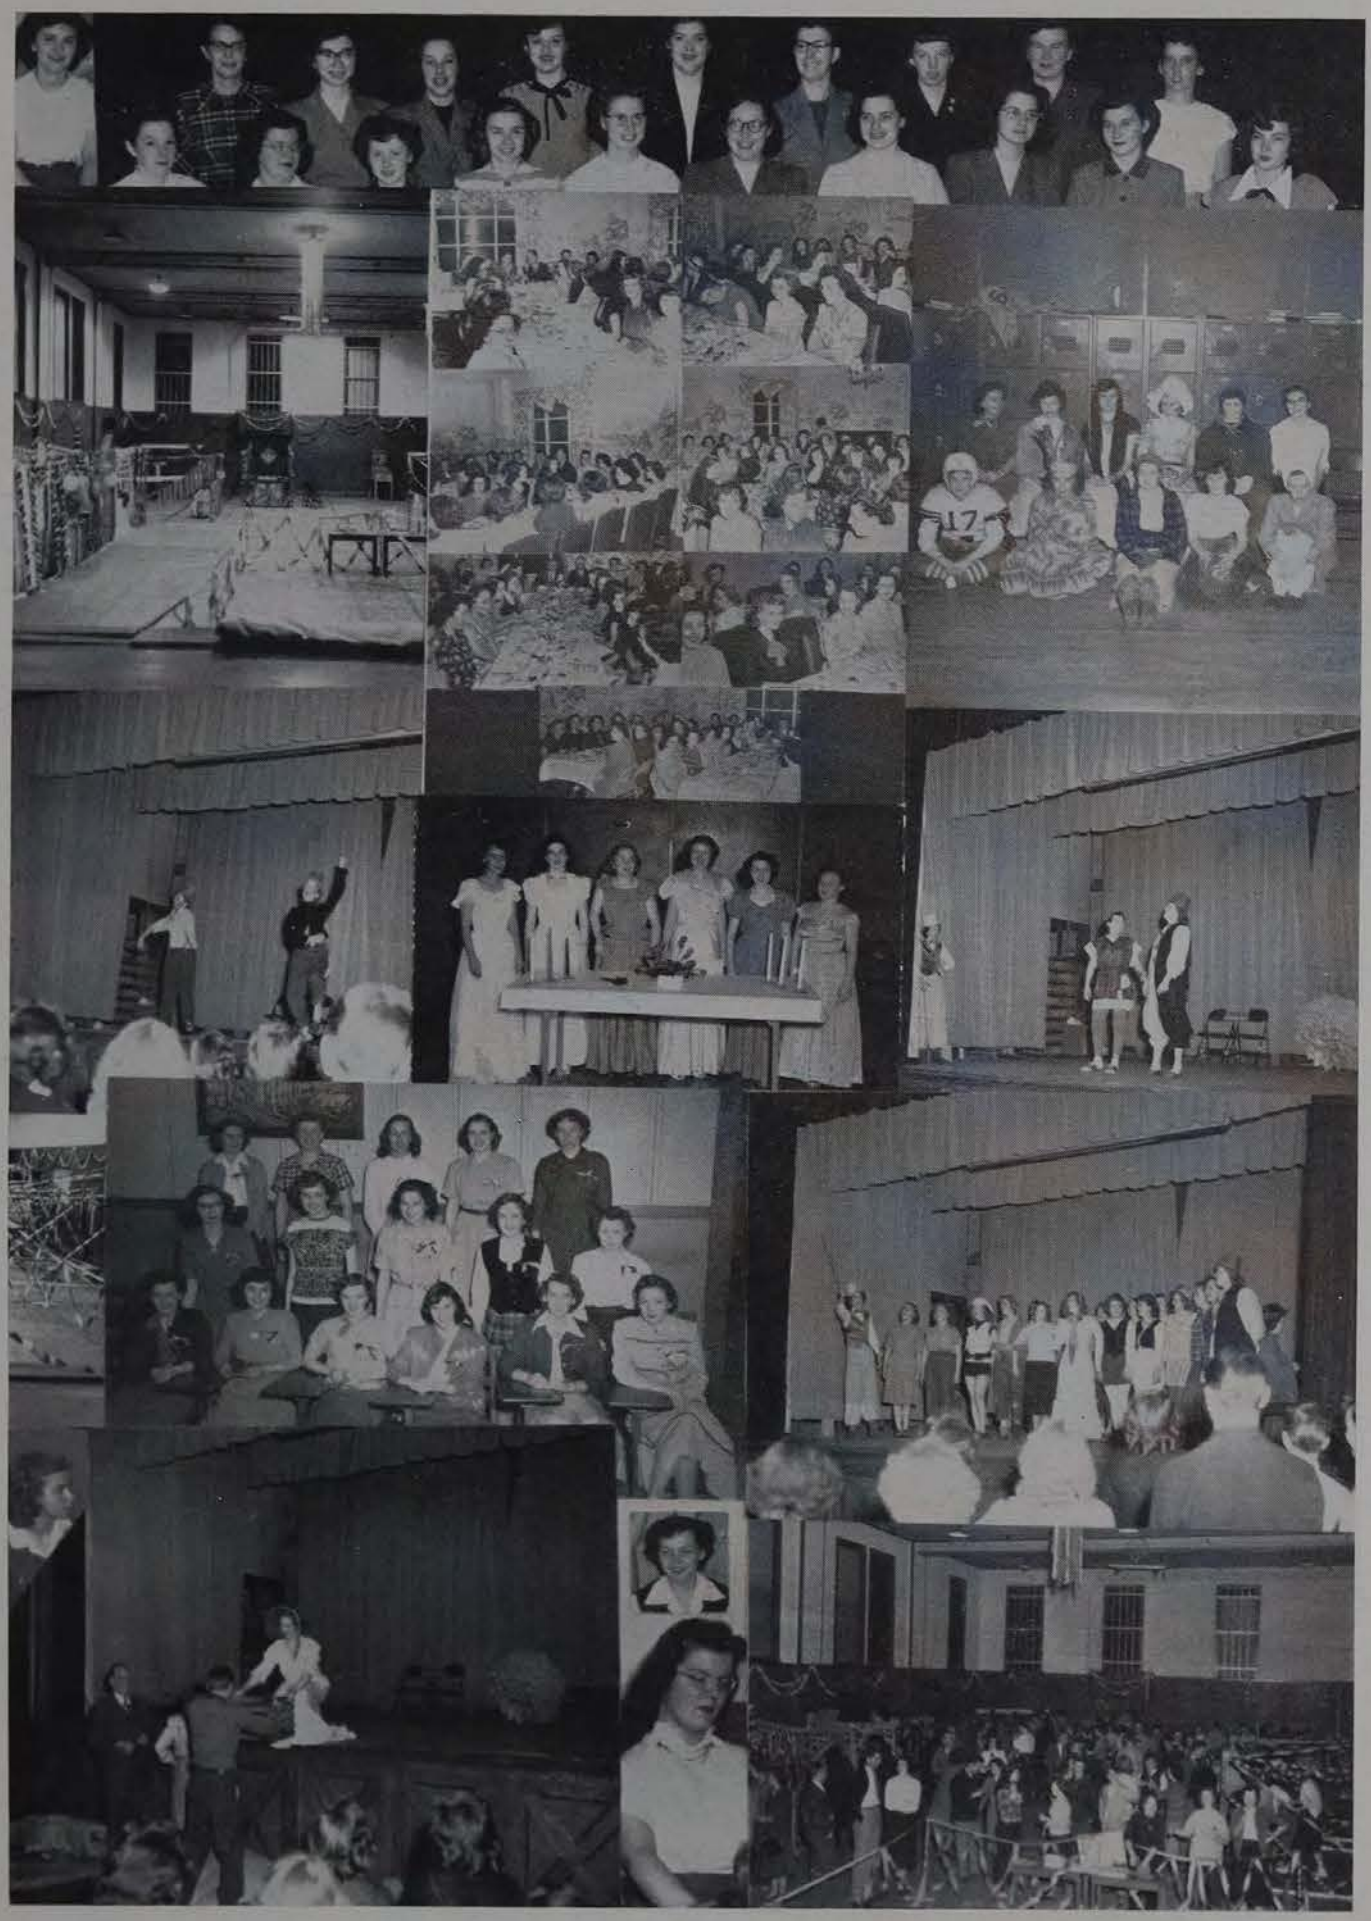

Shortly after the first ranking period we pledged the following girls: Mary Lou Agnew, Lois Armstrong, Carole Blaisdell, Joan Bradbury, Vernise Carter, Betty Crawford, Elizabeth Crouse, Jeanne Dunham, Diane Edes, Ruth Freeman, Elizabeth Hawkes, Madelyn Kronstrand, Betty Obey, Hope Sherwood, Gloria Smith, Marion White, and Dorothy Jones. We former members prepared for entertainment and chuckled among ourselves while they thought of convalescence and doubtful survival. The probationary period was endured by the pledges and enjoyed by all members of the student body. They outdid themselves at the Husson-Alumni basketball game in leading the cheers. They were ever so clever in their originality in executing them that the cheerleaders received pointers for improving their own techniques. A few nights later at an impressive ceremony they became fully-pledged Sorority sisters.

At the time when "Canasta fever" reached its highest point, we met one evening at the Y. W. C. A. Those of us who had not come in contact with the "disease" were exposed to it; and, unlike other fevers, this one was agreeable to all. It was a sad moment when we were reminded that there was school the next day. Lessons must be prepared and a few hours of sleep acquired before eight o'clock.

Glee Club

In September the Husson College Glee Club organized under the direction of Mr. William Cupp. At the first meeting the following officers were elected: President, Retha Booker, Belgrade; Vice-President, Arland Mitchell, Fairfield; Secretary, Betty Crawford, Dexter.

The Glee Club scheduled Monday afternoons for practice. Everyone enjoyed these periods of practice.

At the Thanksgiving Assembly the chorus sang Come, Ye Thankful People, and We Praise Thee, O God. At the Christmas Assembly the songs—Silent Night, Jingle Bells, Hark the Herald Angels Sing, and We Three Kings of Orient Are—were enjoyed by the student body. David Winters, a member of the club, sang The Desert Song. At Open House the club won the admiration of the guests through its rendition of Moonbeams, Wooden Shoes, and Sweethearts.

The graduation program was enriched by the club members singing The Heaven Is Telling, and Sundown.

Husson Players

The Husson Players, under the direction of Mr. Alvah Ford, enjoyed a very successful year. Among the activities for the year was "play night" which brought to Commerce Hall the members of high school dramatic clubs and their chaperons. The schools represented included Old Town, Lincoln, Corinth, Blue Hill, Bangor, Harmony, Belfast, Bucksport, Dover-Foxcroft, Winterport, and Dexter.

The two one-act plays, "Shadow of a Dream" and "Her Fatal Beauty", were presented to the high school dramatic clubs on the evening of March 28. "Shadow of a Dream" was a serious play while "Her Fatal Beauty" was a melodrama. The cast of the former included Dorothy Jones, Lois Armstrong, Donald Grindle, David Brezger, and Jo Ann Quirk; and the latter, Roderic McLeod, Douglas Curtis, Robert Corbett, Vaughn Cole, John Conner, Bernard Wilbur, Dean Carroll, and Donald Grindle.

A full length play, "M'Liss," was presented Saturday evening, May 13, at Open House for parents and friends of Husson College students.

Future Teachers of America

Second row: R. Buxton, B. Jack, G. Ballanger, R. Bell, E. Tucker, C. Garcelon, H. Dunham, D. Carroll, C. Rogers, J. Conner, W. Clayton, and L. Rossignol.

Third row: E. Frost, adviser; W. Grant, W. Clement, D. Blanchard, G. Merry, G. Portwine, C. Poulin, G. MacDonald, K. Snowman, W. Packard, J. Dinsmore, H. Bellatty, and H. Handy.

Having successfully completed two years of activity, the members of the Forkner-Nichols Chapter of the Future Teachers of America at Husson College look toward the future and the contribution they may make in the field of education.

The Chapter was organized in 1949 and admitted to the National Education Association the same year. Husson College is the first commercial college in the country to establish such an organization. All members of the teacher training course, who have satisfactorily completed ten weeks in an educational subject, are eligible for membership in the Future Teachers of America.

The establishment of a Husson College Library was the major project of the Chapter. Through the cooperation of the administration and the members of the F. T. A., a room at the school was set aside, redecorated, and furnished for the school library. Although modest in its inception, the library will grow and become a vital part of the school equipment.

One of the highlights of the year was the State Teachers' Convention held in Bangor. The club members had the opportunity of attending meetings and lectures. Some were fortunate enough to hear Dr. Forkner, a prominent educator whom the Husson College Chapter honored through its name. He is a member of the faculty of Columbia University.

The club sent a representative to the Future Teachers of America Forum held at Bangor High School. The unification of all F. T. A. chapters throughout the state was one of the major problems discussed. It was decided that a vote would have to be taken among the several chapters before anything definite could be accomplished.

The basic purpose of the Chapter at Husson College is to work for the betterment of education — locally, statewide, and nationally.

Husson Ledger

The students of Husson College were kept abreast of the times through the medium of the school newspaper, the Husson Ledger. The editorial staff was organized under the capable leadership of the editor-in-chief, Clyde LeClair. All members of the editorial staff gave generously of their time in planning, composing, and publishing the several editions of the paper that were distributed among the students.

One of the outstanding innovations of the paper was the shift from a magazine-type to a newspaper-type. In addition to an increase in size and content, more cuts were used than ever before.

The articles, pictures, cartoons, and jokes depicting school life interested all the readers.

The last edition of the Ledger was circulated on June 7. Among those serving on the editorial staff were:

Editor-in-Chief ..... Clyde LeClair
Assistant Editor ..... Thomas Brown
Sports Editor, Girls ..... Charlene Kartus
Sports Editor, Boys ..... Richard Kelsey
Literary Editor ..... Bernard Wilbur
Social Editor ..... Dorothy Jones
Circulation Manager ..... Frank Perkins
Faculty Adviser ..... William H. Donahue, Jr.

Accounting Society

On November 17, a small group of accounting students met under the supervision of Mr. Donahue to form an accounting society.

The first meeting brought many problems to be solved. After discussion on various topics, it was decided that the purpose of this organization would be to provide additional help for students having difficulty in accounting courses. Any student is eligible for membership; but to qualify to be an officer, he must have completed three semesters in accounting and have a current rank of 85 per cent or better in all the subjects he has taken.

At a later meeting the following officers were elected: President, James Russell, Vice-President, Gilbert Jameson, Secretary, Dorothy McLean, Treasurer, Robert Golightly, and Parliamentarian, John Monohon. Committees were appointed to arrange for the monthly meetings.

To acquaint the student with the problems of practical accounting, outstanding men in the field were invited to be guest speakers. Mr. William Hayes, C. P. A., and Mr. Harold Royal, cost accountant, gave valuable information to the members.

Although the accounting society is the youngest group at Husson College, the assistance the students received during the past year justified its existence.

EPSILON TAU EPSILON

No one belonging to Epsilon Tau Epsilon forgets the wonderful time we had, planning and decorating for the Penny Carnival. Each group worked to make its booth novel and attractive. All attending anxiously awaited the floor show where hidden talent gave rise to joyous laughter.

The May Formal is the outstanding event offered by E. T. E. as its contribution toward richer life at Husson College. The hall was beautifully decorated. The crowning event of the evening was the coronation of Edward Gott and Joan Littlefield as the king and queen by President Husson.

Whether it was helping out with the decoration of the hall for a special occasion or camping at Green Lake, we enjoyed each time we were together. Those of us participating in these many activities included Marion Brown, Retha Booker, Irma Gould, Elinor Gray, Barbara Hoar, Charlene Kartus, Joan Littlefield, Jean Peters, Jeannine Pelletier, Barbara Porter, Ann Ricker, Rosemary Storey, Evelyn Webber, Mary Lou Agnew, Lois Armstrong, Carole Blaisdell, Joan Bradbury, Vernis Carter, Betty Crawford, Elizabeth Hawkes, Elizabeth Crouse, Jeanne Dunham, Diane Edes, Ruth Freeman, Madelyn Kronstrand, Betty Obey, Hope Sherwood, Gloria Smith, Marion White, Dorothy Jones, Patricia Allen, Janet Bates, Geraldine Boisclair, Eleanor Cook, Maxine Eustis, Dorothy Crane, Avis Dinsmore, Carolyn Gamble, Pauline Haskins, Geneva Somers, Florence Page, Eunice Harding, Shirley Libbey, Mildred Bradford, Clara Swan, Louise Whitcomb, and Shirley Walker.

Athletic Council

The Husson College Athletic Council was organized to co-ordinate the athletic program at Husson College. The members included the president of the Men's Athletic Association, president of the Women's Athletic Association, three members elected to represent each group, all coaches of varsity activities, and the Athletic Council Store manager.

The purpose of the Athletic Council is to further participation in varsity athletics at Husson and to raise funds necessary to carry on varsity basketball and baseball.

The officers were chairman, Richard England, Bangor; secretary, Marion Brown, Grand Lake Stream; and treasurer, Rosemary Storey, Bangor.

Men serving as representatives of the Men's Athletic Association were Raymond Rollins, Sangerville, Wayne Packard, Howland; Gilbert Jameson, Bangor; and Howard L. Handy, Providence, R. I.

Women representing the Women's Athletic Association were Joan Littlefield, Old Town; Joan Bradbury, Enfield, and Hope Sherwood, Washburn.

Mr. George Husson, Mr. Millard Foss, Miss Mildred Bradford, and Miss Clara Swan met with the group.

Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association under the capable leadership of Miss Clara L. Swan again offered a well-rounded program of athletics to the women students of Husson College. Marion Brown, president, Robina Mollison, vice-president, Rosemary Storey, secretary, and Paula Meloche, treasurer—these were the officers elected for the year.

The captains of the hiking teams were Jeanne Dunham and Betty Obey. Although some of the hiking got under way in the fall, many miles had to be covered in the spring weather for the members to qualify for a letter.

Four teams of girls' bowling were organized with Barbara Nadeau, Jacqueline Webb, Charlene Kartus, and Audrey Potter as captains.

The cheerleaders, sponsored by the W. A. A., contributed as much to the athletic program as any other group.

Husson College Girls closed their basketball season with 10 wins, 1 loss and 1 tie, scoring 406 points to their opponents' 285.

Marilyn Payson of Union led the scoring with a 16-point average for each game with a total of 193 points for the season. Captain Sally Hathorne of Bangor averaged 12 points per game, scoring 146 points for the season. Marion Brown of Grand Lake Stream set up the plays and scored 51 points for the season. The defense consisted of Evelyn Webber of Phillips, Barbara Hoar of Grand Lake Stream, Berchard Goode of Bangor, and Ruth Freeman of Pittsfield.

The Junior Varsity consisted of the following: Joan Littlefield, Old Town, Joyce Mahany, Easton, Barbara Nadeau, Bangor, Blanche Gordon, Sullivan, and Jacqueline Webb, Fort Fairfield, and Manager Charlene Kartus of Holden.

The team met Searsport, Husson Alumnae, Southwest Harbor, Winterport, Higgins Classical Institute, Hampden Academy, Bucksport, and Mattanawcook Academy of Lincoln. The loss to Winterport and the tie game with Lincoln kept the girls of Husson on their toes.

At the close of the girls' basketball season, Coach Swan suggested that a basketball reunion be planned for all of the alumnae who have worn the green and gold during the past ten years. Under her leadership, a delightful reunion was held Saturday, March 25. All of the guests were organized into several teams and everyone, guests as well as members of the 1950 squad, saw action. In spite of moans and groans, aches and pains, everyone enjoyed the "feel" of the ball and the fellowship of being together again on the Husson floor. The alumnae enjoyed seeing the many innovations at Husson College, including the electric scoreboard which E. T. E. had presented to the school.

A delectable chicken pie supper was served by the Queen City Grange at 6:30. Among those attending were: Mrs. Eleanor Libby Joy, Ellsworth, Miss Mildred Bradford, Bangor, Miss Eunice Crowder, Bangor, Mrs. Marion Smith Wright, Calais, Miss Jo Reed, Northeast Harbor, Miss Mildred Allen, Bangor, Miss Gertrude Littlefield, Old Town, Mrs. Melissa Lugdon Cummings, Lagrange, Mrs. Alma Parlin Burgess, Farmington Falls, Mrs. Anna Gould Cochran, Grand Lake Stream, Mrs. Shirley Wilson Whitney, Bangor, Miss Kathleen Babbin, Greenville, Miss Virginia Blood, Pittsfield, Mrs. Charlotte Wentworth Wildes, Brooks, Mrs. Joyce McEachern Brown, Monson, Miss Shirley Libby, Bangor, Mrs. Phyllis Curtis Harrington, Bangor, Mrs. Elsie Grant Reynolds, Bangor, Miss Marilyn Ryder, Northeast Harbor, Miss Priscilla Clark, Fairfield, Miss Dorothy Estabrook, Lincoln, Mrs. Helen Hillier, Bangor, Miss Ruth Wishart, Mexico, Miss Priscilla Simmons, Bangor, Miss Marylyn Raymond, Phillips, Miss Maxine Eustis, Bangor, and Miss Barbara Allen, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Guests attending the banquet were Mrs. Chesley Husson, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. George Husson, Jr., Miss Thelma Watson, Miss Dorothy Crane, Mrs. Orissa Kingsbury, Douglas Van Wart and Robert Barter, photographer.

After the dinner the annual awards were given to the 1950 squad. Those receiving awards were: Captain Sally Hathorne, Bangor, Marilyn Payson, Union, Marion Brown, Grand Lake Stream, Barbara Hoar, Grand Lake Stream, Evelyn Webber, Madrid, Ruth Freeman, Pittsfield, Berchard Goode, Bangor, and Manager Elaine Spruce, Orono.

Junior Varsity awards were given to Joan Littlefield, Old Town, Barbara Nadeau, Bangor, Blanche Gordon, Sullivan, Joyce Mahany, Easton, Jacqueline Webb, Fort Fairfield, and assistant managers, Joan Bradbury, Enfield, and Charlene Kartus, East Holden.

Miss Bradford awarded the Cheerleading letters to the following girls: Madelyn Kronstrand, Bath, Theresa Nicholson, East Millinocket, Lorraine Morris, Limestone, Jo Ann Quirk, Bangor, Jeanne Dunham, Brewer, and Audrey Potter, Sullivan.

Captain Hathorne welcomed the alumnae at the banquet. Miss Priscilla Clark replied for the alumnae. Mr. George Husson, vice-president of the College spoke briefly.

To Mrs. Marion Smith Wright, Calais, was presented the award for having traveled the greatest distance to attend the reunion. Mrs. Eleanor Libby Joy, the mother of three children, received an award for having the largest family. Sally Hathorne, Captain of the 1950 squad, was fortunate in receiving the lucky number award.

Cheerleaders

Under the leadership of George Merry and the direction of Miss Mildred Bradford, the cheerleading squad — Lorraine Morris, Madelyn Kronstrand, Theresa Nicholson, Jo Ann Quirk, Audrey Potter, and Jeanne Dunham—kept the enthusiasm of the Husson College basketball fans at a high level.

Many of the unique and intricate formations used in executing a repetoire of cheers evidenced long hours of arduous practice. At each rally, as the basketball season progressed, the cheerleaders held the student body spellbound with their performances. Often the students were more interested in watching the cheerleaders than in helping them to make noise at a rally; yet, they lacked nothing in the way of volume, rhythm, and enthusiasm in following the cheerleaders at games.

Among the old cheers—The Indian War Dance, Victory Cheer, Can Can —the novel routines used, added fresh life and enthusiasm to the games. The new cheers had the support of the school and won the admiration of the many visiting teams. The cartwheels and the "elevation" in the Victory Cheer appealed to the audience. Few realize the work and effort that went into the perfecting of this year's cheering squad.

Men's Athletic Association

The Husson College M. A. A. is made up of male students interested in a well-organized program of activities. All male members of the student body are urged to affiliate, thus allowing full participation in the different activities according to the students' interest as a group.

The officers elected for 1949-1950 were these:

President ..... Nelson DeGrasse
Vice-President ..... Raymond Rollins
Secretary ..... Ray Buxton
Treasurer ..... Gilbert Jameson
Faculty Adviser ..... Mr. Foss

This year the M. A. A. sponsored the following major activities: basketball, bowling, and baseball.

The fact that basketball attracts more attention than any other sport resulted in a Varsity team, J. V. team, and six intramural teams that played during the regular basketball season.

This was the first time the M. A. A. had ever tried running an intramural basketball championship during the regular season. Although there was difficulty in obtaining the gymnasium for one afternoon a week for the fellows who felt that they were not in condition to play with the college teams, the coaches relinquished one practice session a week to allow these fellows to participate in basketball on a smaller scale.

The last three afternoons of the season were spent battling for the championship. Bob Corbett and his ever-winning Crushers took the crown by knocking off the taller boys of the Downes's Clowns club in the final tussle by a score of 38-33.

Our thanks to the school, Coach Swan, Coach Husson, and the members of the College basketball teams who helped referee our friendly little matches. Thanks a lot, to all who helped.

The members of the M. A. A. selected the following six teams and captains:

Chute's Shooters

Capt. W. Chute, J. Callaghan, D. Blanchard, P. Pelletier, W. Clayton, B. Bowden.

Downes's Clowns

Capt. V. Downes, K. Antworth, S. Wyman, D. Ouellette, E. Rogers, P. Burruby, C. Baird, W. Cote, G. Hurd.

MR. FOSS

A successful year of bowling was completed by the Husson College Bowling League. It was a year of fun and a showing of fine sportsmanship on the part of all participating. The members would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Foss for his splendid co-operation in acting as their sponsor.

The schedule this year included a match with Stearns High School. Husson won at Bangor, and Stearns won at Millinocket. It is hoped that more matches of this type may be arranged to bolster friendly relations between Husson College and other schools in Maine.

Rollins' Ramblers

Capt. R. Rollins, L. Hull, W. Clements, C. Poulin, H. Gerow, L. Pearson, John Dinsmore, M. Wheeler.

The turnout for Husson College basketball was so great that Coach Husson had to organize two clubs, a varsity and a junior varsity. The opposition of the varsity team consisted of normal schools, prep schools, and college freshmen, while the J. V.'s tangled with high school teams. The Maritime and Higgins games were the thrillers of the season. There was plenty of excitement in each game; and, as the scoreboard kept jumping from one side to the other, the speed of each game increased. In both games the Husson Five led most of the way only to lose by a narrow margin in the closing moments of the game.

The speed and spirit of co-operation of the junior varsity won the admiration of all the fans and opposing players.

Following is the list of wins and losses for the season with the dates and scores:

The baseball team had a very successful season with five wins and only two losses. There were no outstanding stars on this year's squad. When one member was not performing to his best ability, another would take up the slack. This is what is known as a well-rounded team and that is what Husson had. Miles Elsemore was elected captain.

The entire squad received letters which were presented by Mr. Husson at the spring assembly. Miles Elsemore was presented with the Gattrell Award which is given to the member of the baseball team who is credited with driving in the most runs.
