Sometimes the game is really won in the stands.

Yelling until your throat is hoarse. Knowing every player's name and stats. Sweating and worrying until the game's over and your team wins. You hope.

Sometimes fans put as much into a game as the players. And your part can make the difference between winning and losing. You can inspire the athletes to new heights. Just as they can inspire us all to reach for something higher.

Key Bank salutes you. Because without fans, a game is just a game.

Dear Friends of Braves:

This is an exciting year for Husson sports. Athletic Director Pam Hennessey has been selected NAIA Women's Administrator of the Year for the nation. We are introducing new sports -- lacrosse and field hockey. And, Braves Basketball remains a cornerstone of college life. It is reflected in game attendance, in inductions into the Sports Hall of Fame, the Homecoming game with alumni, and the numerous service activities.

This is a special year. For the first time we are scheduled to play with University of Maine in Men's Basketball. This is a positive reflection on the team and its reputation. The college is proud of the Men's Basketball tradition, the sportsmanship and leadership on the court and around the campus.

We all wish the Braves our very best.

Sincerely,

William H. Beardsley

Preview for 1996-'97

The Husson College Braves begin their 1996-1997 season looking to return to championship form and to the National Tournament. The Braves have made 5 trips to the Nationals over the last 8 years and twice in the last three years.

Coach Caruso starts his 3rd year as head coach and his 13th year on campus. Coach spent 10 years with Bruce MacGregor, 4 years as a player and 6 years as an assistant. He guided the Braves to a 17-13 record last season and returns 9 of 13 players from that team as they look to return to the National Tournament. Leading the way for the Braves this season will be tri-captains, seniors, Brian Alley and Jeremy Durost and junior Tony Tobin. Brian Alley, a three-year starter and a 2nd year captain, will look to increase his role in the paint where he averaged 12 points and 4 rebounds while shooting over 60%. Jeremy Durost, the consummate team player, will always be there willing to do what ever it takes for the team. The Braves will be happy to see Tony Tobin back in uniform this season. He missed the entire season last year due to an injury. Tony averaged 10 points, and 4 assists his sophomore year and shot over 40% from the 3 point arch. He will be sure to provide a boost to the Braves with his quickness and shooting touch.

The Braves have six returning sophomores who will play an important role in this years success. Returning starters Mike McCaffrey, a shooting guard who averaged 12 points and 3 assists while starting 28 games and Chris Funk, a forward who worked through some early season injuries but came on to have a strong second semester. His all around play provided 11 points 4 assists, and 4 rebounds to the Braves. Jeff Grubke and Mick Dyt a pair of 6'9 centers will look to increase their roles inside and provide some strong minutes in the paint. Sean Foye and Brad Durost, a pair of shooters will look to give the Braves depth on the perimeter.

This year's recruiting class is one of geographic diversity and talent. The class is lead by 6'9 center Brad Olson from Dexter High School. He averaged 22 points and 13 rebounds as a senior and was a Maine All-State selection both as a junior and senior. Freshman guard, Nikos Sompatizs from Greece will look to make an impact and give depth at the point guard position. Aaron Katz from Sutton, MA and Fred Johnson from Tuckerton, NJ are a couple of shooting guards who will grow with the program. Rounding out this year's team are a pair of transfers, Giovanni Cotto an athletic forward from San Juan, Puerto Rico, is expected to contribute while Alfred Rutherford from Delray Beach, FL provides depth in the back court.

The Maine Athletic Conference is as deep and as strong as ever. The Braves will face a tough road as they look to reclaim the MAC Championship.

Coach Warren Caruso

Coach Caruso has been a part of the Husson basketball program for over a decade. A Bangor native, he came to Husson in 1984 after graduating from Bangor High School. In high school he was a track and basketball standout. He played four years under Coach MacGregor, and was captain of the 1988 squad. While finishing his degree, Caruso joined the men's coaching staff the next year. That year the Braves were 35-2 and finished the year ranked 4th in the country, in what might have been Coach MacGregor's finest season. In all, Coach Caruso served six years as an assistant. During that time the Braves made four trips to the NAIA National Tournament and compiled a 164-47 record.

During his years as an assistant, Coach's responsibilities focused on recruiting, scouting, and practices. Working with Coach MacGregor for six years and making four trips to the nationals, there was plenty of opportunity to prepare for big games and that experience is valued today as a head coach. Coach was also very involved in sports information; he oversaw the production and publication of the annual media guide as well as weekly press releases. His love for the basketball program and experiences gained as a player and assistant helped prepare Coach Caruso to be named head coach in 1994.

Coach Caruso begins his third year as head coach with an overall record of 40-22 and one trip to the National Tournament. Last year's team started slowly but came on at the end of the season to win 12 of their last 14, to finish 17-13. The Braves finished 2nd in the MAC during the regular season but bowed out of the conference tournament in the semi-finals.

A 1989 graduate of Husson, Caruso earned a B.S. in Public Accounting. Caruso has run a family business for sixteen years and took over the complete operation of Dana's Grill in 1988 from his father Richard. (Dana's Grill is a popular, seasonal restaurant which has been a part of Bangor since 1938.) Caruso and his wife, Nicole, opened a second restaurant in Hampden, Dana's Grill Dockside, in 1990. His mother, Judy, has worked with Nicole and Warren for over 10 years. Caruso says that operating a seasonal business and being a basketball coach is almost a perfect match for him and Husson College.

Nicole and Warren were best friends in high school and started dating in 1983. They got married on September 29, 1990. Nicole is the Braves number one fan, many times being the lone voice of support when the Braves are on the road. Together they run two restaurants, a number of apartment buildings, and love Husson basketball. Nicole and Warren had their first child February 29, 1996, Nathan Richard Caruso.

In addition to his coaching duties, Caruso was also a member of the Board of Directors for the Bangor City Management Corporation, which helps promote downtown Bangor and organizes special events. He successfully helped promote the NAIA District V and Maine Athletic Conference men's and women's basketball championships during the 1990-1993 seasons. Coach Caruso has also worked at MacGregor's Northeast School of Basketball, a summer camp for younger players. He also organizes clinics and Husson intersquad games throughout the state.

Nicole, Nathan, and Warren

Assistant Coaches-Victor Garay and Justin Moffatt

Victor Garay

Born and raised in the Bronx in New York, Victor is a 1993 graduate of Husson College, with a degree in Business Administration. Victor played three seasons for the Braves at the point guard position and it was like having another coach out on the floor. His knowledge for the game prompted Coach Bruce MacGregor and his staff to acquire Victor to contribute to the growing success and tradition Husson College has to offer.

In 1994, Coach Garay stepped into the lead assistant job and has been instrumental in the program's success over the last three seasons. Victor spends countless hours both recruiting and scouting. His ability to relate to student athletes and convey his love for basketball and Husson make him an invaluable asset. Coach Garay has also put together the Braves weight lifting program and off season conditioning program. Victor's responsibilities also include practice, and individual player development.

In addition to being an assistant coach, Victor holds a full-time job at Eastern Fine Paper Company where he works in the accounting department. Victor has been married to Mary Garay for four years and resides in Bangor. Mary is also a Husson College graduate.

Justin Moffatt

Justin Moffatt begins his fourth year at Husson College but begins his first year as assistant coach. Justin is a Senior Sports Management major who will serve as student assistant this year.

Justin, who's nickname is "MO", is a graduate of Mohawk Trail Regional High School in western Massachusetts where he played basketball and golf. Justin interests include basketball, golf, music, and being with his friends. Justin has many aspirations in life, including working with sport's facilities, such as the Madison Square Garden. Justin is looking forward to his first year as an assistant, and he feels that this experience will help him long after graduation.

Justin's responsibilities will include practice, games, and serving as the team's sport's information director

Braves' Seniors

JEREMY DUROST

Captain • Forward
6' 3" • 170 lbs. • Senior
Howland, ME

A Sports Management major who's nickname is "Jerm," Jeremy is the son of Richard and Susan Durost and he has three brothers, Scott, Brad, and Reid. He is a 1993 graduate of Penobscot Valley High School. Jeremy's work ethic, and enthusiasm contributed tremendously in last year's season. He will be looked upon to be a leader on and off the court. Coach Caruso says "Jeremy has been a pleasure to have for four years. His willingness to always be there for the team and his hard work has been incredible. He will always be successful on and off the basketball floor because of this character." Upon graduation he would like to become an athletic director at the college level. Jeremy's favorite athlete is Larry Bird and interests include sports, music, traveling, and hanging with friends. Favorite movie: National Lampoons Christmas Vacation. Favorite food: Italian. Braves' Graduates

At Husson College, the men's basketball program has had its fair share of success on the hardwood. A great deal of time and hard work has gone into those achievements, but our basketball achievements would never outweigh our accomplishments in the classroom. Over the last 27 years, 90% (72-80) of the student athletes who participated in their last year of playing or eligibility have graduated with degrees from Husson. Most of these men have gone to be business and community leaders.

Degrasse and Kenyon Awards

Each year two awards are given to male basketball players. These awards are very important to our program. They are the Nelson Degrasse Award and the Allan Kenyon Basketball Scholarship. The Nelson Degrasse Award is given to an individual for his athletic ability, courage and good sportsmanship. The award has been given since 1969, and as the award states, "its aim is to keep alive in the minds of those who follow, the immortal image of a great American. We, who remain, proudly present our everlasting tribute to those whose standards can equal those of Nelson Degrasse." The 1995 winner of the Nelson Degrass Award was senior Bryan Jefferson. Bryangraduated in the spring (1996) with a Business Administration-Sports Management degree. Bryan was a two-time All-American and the school's all-time assist leader. He was a great leader through his hard work and dedication.

An annual scholarship has been presented since 1978, to the male basketball player who best exemplifies former Assistant Coach Allan Kenyon's dedication and love for Husson College Basketball. The award was conceived in the emergency room at Eastern Maine Medical Center while Coach Kenyon's wife Linda and Coach MacGregor waited for word on an extremely sick Coach Kenyon. As Coach passed away that evening the scholarship grew rapidly from donations given by friends of the very popular Coach. Coach Kenyon coached during some of the most successful years for the Braves and his caring nature, sense of humor, and teaching ability left a mark on the program that will also be appreciated and remembered through this scholarship. Sean Foye was the 1996 recipient of the Allan Kenyon Scholarship. Sean played a number of different roles last season and was always there for the team. His team play and hard work symbolizes what Coach Kenyon stood for.

Another exciting season should be in store for the Maine Athletic Conference this year. The teams making up the conference are Husson College, Thomas College, Univ. of Maine Machias, Univ. ME Farmington, Univ. ME Presque Isle, Univ. of New England, and Saint Joseph's College.

The MAC will open this year with each team poised to make a run at the championship. Defending champion Saint Joseph's College has an experienced group back and are sure not to miss a step after loosing 3rd Team All-American John Wassenberg. UMPI has a solid nucleus back from a team that went to the conference final last year. Husson returns 9 players from a team that won 12 out of their last 14 games before bowing out in the semifinals. UNE may be the team to watch this year. A combination of UNE and Westbrook College will make UNE a powerful contender for a conference title. UMF will always be ready to battle and UMM and Thomas return some key personnel and look to make noise come February.

This year's conference Final Four tournament will be held at Bangor Auditorium March 2-3. The winner of the conference tournament will advance to the National Tournament in Nampa, Idaho at Northwest Nazarene College.

A Most Unusual Restaurant

Back in 1960, the sliding window at a little ice cream take-out was slid open for the first time. Owned and operated by Leith & Donna Wadleigh, "Creemee's" came into existence. The original idea was to sell ice cream year round. But, as is the case with many "great" ideas in Maine, the reality of what effect winter would have came to roost on the Wadleigh's little stand with the first snow. So, for the first two years, "Creemee's" was open and serving terrific ice cream from Mother's Day until the end of October.

At the end of two years, a sit-down lunch counter was added and then, to ensure year-round employment, the Wadleigh's opened a full service restaurant with a dining room and waitresses. Of course, with all the changes taking place, Leith & Donna thought a new name would be in order. Now Leith could remember how to build the best hamburger in town, and recite the ingredients of his famous strawberry pie in his sleep, but remembering customers names was something else. All of the regulars were greeted with "Hi ya Governor!" Seeing as it was the customers who really made the restaurant what it was, Leith & Donna decided to name the new restaurant in honor of all those folks...thus, "Governor's" was born.

Over the past thirty years or so, "Governor's" has grown to four restaurants, all with the primary goal of providing good wholesome food in a family dining atmosphere at prices a family could afford.

Since the first "Governor's" opened, the Wadleighs have gone the extra step to insure their homemade pies, cakes, bread and rolls are the tastiest and freshest available (our bakers start each day at four in the morning), and making sure the "Daily Specials" truly are special. Thanks for making "Governor's" what it is today, and enjoy your meal!

Bryan Jefferson and Rick Sinclair followed different paths to get to Husson College but they ended up on the same road by the time they left Husson College. Rick Sinclair and Bryan Jefferson were named to the 1996 All-American honorable mention team.

The path for them to get to Husson was as different as the places they attended high school. Rick Sinclair played his high school basketball at Hermon High School, about 7 miles from Husson College. A starter his junior and senior years in high school, he helped his team make two appearances in the Eastern Maine Tournament. He was heavily recruited by the colleges within the state, during his senior year in which he was named 3rd team All-State, but in the end he chose Husson.

Bryan Jefferson attended Archbishop Carrol High School in Washington, D.C. A high school known for putting out Division I athletes both in football and basketball. Bryan played woth Lawrence Moten who attended Syracuse University and now plays in the NBA with the Vancouver Grizzlies. He also played with Charles Harrison of Georgetown University and Marvin Graves who played football at Syracuse. During Bryan's senior year he slipped through the cracks of recruiting. A phone call to Bruce MacGregor from a friend in August started the ball rolling for Bryan to become a Brave.

So, as they began their freshman year they knew very little of one another. They spent the year learning the system and adjusting to college life. Rick remembers "we really didn't spend much time together that year. I wasn't playing much and was working hard to improve." Bryan would emerge as the back-up point guard to 1st Team All-American Ray Alley. Their freshman year would prepare them for the years to come and the friendship that would develop.

Bryan recalls his sophomore season "We had a great team that year, we both played off the bench and started to get to know each other." The two would be key factor's off the bench all season long, as Bryan would average 7 pts. and 4 assists and Rick would average 4 points and 3 rebounds. The team finished 28-4 and went to the national tournament. Rick finished with 10 points at the Nationals, and as the Braves said good-bye to seniors Ray Alley, Rich Mazurek, and Dwayne Knowlton, it was time for Rick and Bryan to step forward as the new leaders.

As their junior year started, there was some changes in the program. Bruce MacGregor had decided to take a year off and then assistant Coach Warren Caruso was named interim head coach. "It was strange starting the season, Coach was gone, the seniors were gone, and me and Bryan were now the veterans. That was the year we really started to get close." Rick reflects back on what would be an exciting year. Bryan remembers "we did a lot of traveling that year and we roomed together a couple of times and everything just fell into place." The Braves would finish 23-9 and would make their second straight trip to the national tournament. They both share the same memories from that season. Rick sums it up "It was great to get back to the nationals, but ending St. Joseph's winning streak at home was sweet."

Bryan was named All-American honorable mention at the end of his junior year and as their senior year approached, he and Rick both knew their senior year was going to be a special one. The two would guide a youthful Braves team to a 17-13 record but were knocked out in conference semifinals, denying the two their third trip to the nationals. Coach Caruso reflects "the two had such a strong desire to win, they took upon themselves to try and make the big plays. Though they didn't make it back to the nationals, they instilled a winning attitude in the teammates that would return."

The closeness of Rick and Bryan is now realized. The battles have been fought together on the basketball floor. The grades were made in the classroom. There was good times and bad times but no matter what they were friends. Bryan says "He's my best friend, I'll never forget all that he and his family did for me while I was at Husson. I was a part of his family and that means a lot to me." The friendship symbolizes what Husson basketball is all about and Rick sums it up well. "We weren't just friends, he's my brother, we played together, had fun together and at times fought but no matter what, I'll always be there."

Rick and Bryan walked through Newman Gym in May to receive their diploma. They did so together as graduates of the sports management program and as basketball All-Americans. They symbolize what Husson basketball has been about for 30 years. Two people brought together from different parts of the country, and through the wars of school and basketball become friends. The memories of school may fade and the win's and losses may seem less important but their friendship will never disappear.
