Transforming student lives

U&HUSSON

happy holidays!

Student profile: Saqib Nazm

My name is Saqib Un Nazm and I am from Bangladesh. I'm a sophomore at Husson majoring in computer information systems - a four-year bachelor's degree program. Currently, I'm also working at Husson's Office of Academic Success and Intercultural Services (OASIS) as a peer mentor for new students. As a peer mentor, I help guide freshmen students over the course of their first year. In addition to that, I'm the president of Husson University's International Students' Association. I have a lot of interest in application development and have worked with a site called xda-developers for more than two years on Android development. I love playing pool and traveling to cities and countries.

HUSSON UNIVERSITY
THE CAMPAIGN
Shaping our Future

The Shaping our Future campaign includes a new state-of-the-art building for our innovative College of Business, the largest school of its kind in the state of Maine. The new facility is designed to emphasize experiential student learning. It will also fuse business education with STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) opportunities and serve as a hub for entrepreneurial relationships between Husson students and businesses.

Shaping our Future

We will continue to grow as a University of choice for premier professional programs where students succeed, experiential learning is championed, and global engagement is emphasized. That's our vision.

The ascension of Husson University from a small business school to a respected institution of higher learning has not always been easy. Through it all, Husson's guiding principle of educating individuals while instilling character and humility has stood the test of time. As Husson moves forward with a bold vision of its future, we know it is only possible with the support of our friends and family.

This mission cannot be achieved without your help. From humble beginnings come great things – that is the heritage of today's Husson University. Together, you and Husson are Shaping our Future.

Husson's First Comprehensive Campaign

Driving Educational Excellence and Strengthening Resources:

- Scholarship Endowment
- Experiential Learning
- Quality Faculty and Academic Program Support
- Student Leadership
- New College of Business Facility

General Information
husson.edu/alumni

Husson supports equal opportunity in recruitment, admission, educational programs, and employment practices. The University complies with all major federal and state laws and executive orders requiring equal employment opportunity and/or affirmative action.

Dear Alumni and Friends,

The chill is in the air and winter is here. With the holidays almost upon us, now is the time when many of us reflect on how we can help make the world a better place.

Husson University is doing its part. This year, we announced the public phase of "Shaping our Future," the first comprehensive campaign in our institution's history. Thanks to the generous support of alumni and friends, we have already raised $16 million and are more than halfway toward our $30 million goal.

To reach this goal, friends and alumni support will be essential. Although the campaign benefited initially from the generosity of major donors, in the coming years Husson University will need to broaden our base of support.

I want to stress that all gifts, regardless of their size, are important. When we all join together to support Husson University, our combined efforts make a big difference in the lives of current and future students.

If you're a graduate of Husson University, you understand how education leads to career success. We want to ensure that current and future students get the same opportunities to succeed that we received. This commitment to transforming students' lives continues to make Husson the "University of Choice" for premier professional programs where students succeed, experiential learning is championed, and global understanding is promoted.

Your support makes it possible for us to invest in new facilities, hire great teachers, upgrade our technology, and keep tuition affordable. We hope you will join us in helping future generations of young men and women achieve their dreams by making a gift to Husson University this holiday season. You can give to the Annual Fund or whatever part of Husson University is most meaningful to you.

May the holiday season be warm, joyful, and peaceful for you and your family. Thank you for your support.

With appreciation,

Robert A. Clark, PhD, CFA
President

Accomplishments, events and items of note happening at Husson

College of Business

Criminal Justice Faculty Member Presents at National Conference.

Assistant Professor John Michaud made a presentation at the National Partnership for Careers in Law, Public Safety, Corrections and Security. According to Michaud, "Since 9/11, it has become increasingly important for educators to help those studying criminal justice and related fields, to more fully understand the current terrorist threat and the ways our community can help to protect us from further violent acts." His presentation also addressed specific curriculum topics and methods that would lead to the successful transfer of learning to students.

Technology Conference Welcomes Husson Computer Information Systems Professor

In late October, Dr. Gerald Wright, an assistant professor in the information technology program spoke at the 38th Annual NABET (Northeast Association of Business, Economics and Technology) Conference in State College, PA. An upcoming article by Dr. Wright will be published in the association's journal.

Cultural and Geographic Attributes of Marketing Principles Discussed

Associate Professor of Marketing Cristanna Cook presented at the Clute Institute Academic Business Conference in Las Vegas, NV. Her topic, "The Acceptance of Western Marketing Principles in the South Pacific and the Decline of Communal Values and Norms," resonated with conference attendees. In addition, Dr. Cook served as a session moderator where she helped smooth transitions between multiple presentations by other notable experts.

Teaching Students about Intercompany Debt

Dr. Robert Duron, an associate professor in the School of Accounting shared his thoughts with those attending the American Accounting Association's annual meeting on education. His presentation, "Teaching Intercompany Debt Transactions in an Advanced Accounting Course: An Effective Learning Strategy," was designed to help educators effectively train the next generation of accounting professionals.

Expert Testimony the Focus of Forensic Science Workshop

Assistant Professor Alicia Wilcox, a faculty member in Husson's forensic science program, led a workshop called, "A Juror-centric Approach to Expert Testimony" at the National Institute of Justice's Forensic Technology Center of Excellence in San Antonio, Texas.

Business Education Conference Learns to "Lean In"

College of Business Dean Marie Hansen, Ph.D., presented at the Region I – New England International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education (IACBE) Conference. Her topic, "Lean In for Graduates," was based on her work with students at Husson University.

College of Health and Education

Education Professor Reviews Children's Books

Dr. Sandip Wilson, associate professor, in the School of Education's teacher education program, published multiple book reviews this fall. The articles, "Boo to you!" and "Terrific Content Area Books" were both published in the International Literacy Association's online journal, Literacy Daily. In addition, her review, "Books for Children and Young Adults in Poetry," was published in the September edition of the New England Reading Association Journal. Besides reviewing children's books, Dr. Wilson has helped undergraduate students successfully submit their work to The Dragonlode: A Journal of Children's Literature and Reading, published by the International Reading Association. Dr. Wilson was the editor of this publication from 2010 to 2014.

Director of Graduate Counseling Programs Named Counselor Educator of the Year

Dr. Deborah Drew, associate professor and director of the counseling and human relations graduate programs, received the NARACES Marijane Fall Counselor Educator of the Year Award at the Association for Counselor Education & Supervision National Conference in Philadelphia in October. This award recognizes a "creative, generous, charitable counselor educator who has reached out to others in spirit, scholarship and deed and thereby made a profound difference in the lives of those so touched."

Short Stories Published by Occupational Therapy Assistant Professor

An anthology of short stories written by Cavenaugh Kelly, MS, OTR/L, an assistant professor in the School of Occupational Therapy, was recently published. The book, Occupational Therapy Stories, is based on his experiences working in home health in rural Maine.

New England School of Communications

Student Public Service Announcement Honored by National Organization

Alex Fenderson, a student in the New England School of Communications' (NESCom) video production program, won first place in the national Freedom of Speech PSA Contest sponsored by the National Association of Broadcasters Educational Foundation.

WHSN 89.3 FM Recognized for Multiple Sclerosis Concert

WHSN-FM received the "Commitment to Community Award" from the Maine Association of Broadcasters for their 12th annual AS4MS benefit concert. This acoustic showcase featuring five live bands, and staffed by Husson University students, benefited the Greater New England Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

NESCom Marketing Students Earn Distinction at National Marketing Competition

A team of NESCom marketing communications students received an honorable mention for innovation and their marketing research in the Collegiate ECHO Marketing Challenge, a national marketing competition. Their entry was based on their marketing analysis, advertising materials and a video for a new Direct TV refer-a-friend marketing campaign. With more than 200 competing entries submitted to the challenge, the honorable mention stands as a testament to the quality of the NESCom marketing communications program.

Paper by NESCom Faculty Member Submitted to Conference

Assistant Professor Wellington Gordon co-authored a paper with Douglass Bielmeier of Middle Tennessee State University. Presented at the 10th Art of Record Performance Conference at Drexel University, the paper is entitled "Expectations of Music Proficiency in College Recording Arts Programs."

School of Pharmacy

Prescription Monitoring Poster and Platform

Stephanie Nichols, Pharm.D., an associate professor in Husson University's School of Pharmacy, was the lead author of a poster and platform presentation at the American College of Clinical Pharmacy (ACCP) Global Conference on Clinical Pharmacy in San Francisco. Her presentation focused on 2014 prescription monitoring program trends among individuals arrested for trafficking prescription drugs in Maine. Her paper was named the "Best Presentation (Paper) - First Runner-Up" by the ACCP.

Poster on Valproic Acid Study Presented at Global Conference

Ronald Reed, Pharm.D., chair of the pharmacy practice department, presented a poster entitled, "Evidence for a minimum effective total plasma concentration of valproic acid [VPA] in photosensitive epilepsy patients: Retrospective data-mining results from a placebo-controlled intravenous VPA study," at the American College of Clinical Pharmacy (ACCP) Global Conference on Clinical Pharmacy in San Francisco.

Student Poster and Research Featured at Antimicrobial and Chemotherapy Conference

Meagan Rusby and Charity Wilson are both fourth-year pharmacy students. These students, along with Assistant Professor Anthony Casapao, Pharm.D., presented their original research at the 55th Interscience Conference on Antimicrobial Agents and Chemotherapy in San Diego. Their poster presentations were entitled, "Impact of Mortality and Source of Infection in Intermediate Risk Patients with Staphylococcus aureus Bacteremia" and "Epidemiological Study of Obese Patients with Staphylococcus aureus Bacteremia at Eastern Maine Medical Center."

Research Findings about Exosome Delivery Shared with Scientists

Associate Professors Tianzhi Yang, Ph.D., and Shuhua Bai, Ph.D., along with Salma Aziz, a third-year pharmacy student, recently presented their research findings at the American Association of Pharmaceutical Scientists meeting in Orlando. Their study was entitled, "Exosome Delivery of Small Interfering RNA for Brain Therapy."

School of Science and Humanities

Maine Campus Compact Awards Grant to Husson University

The School of Science and Humanities faculty members were awarded a $4,000 grant from the Maine Campus Compact (MCC) to support conservation education. The grant from MCC to Husson University is part of a $168,000 initiative by the Davis Educational Foundation to support curricular innovation and improve environmental stewardship. Through this two-year initiative, over 70 faculty members from 18 selected campuses across four New England states will learn how to embed environmental service-learning components into courses.

Husson is one of only six institutions of higher education in Maine to receive this grant. The grant signifies that Husson is willing to address important environmental and social issues; committed to creating institutional change by embedding service-learning projects into courses; devoted to strengthening teaching, curriculum, and student learning outcomes; and dedicated to promoting interdisciplinary approaches to education.

Through an expansion of the Husson University garden and four interdisciplinary courses, students will explore issues of food insecurity in the community.

According to MCC Executive Director Sally Slovenski, "This is a unique opportunity for New England's colleges and universities to lead in finding long-term solutions to sustain our planet for generations to come."

Horror Master H.P. Lovecraft Subject of English Professor's Podcast

English Associate Professor Adam Crowley presented papers at conferences in Toronto and Berlin. In addition, Crowley participated in a Southwest Popular/American Culture Association podcast on the works of H.P. Lovecraft. Stories by Lovecraft include The Call of Cthulhu, The Shadow Over Innsmouth, and The Dunwich Horror.

Professor Bishop Featured on Greenlight Maine TV Show

Associate Professor Karl Bishop, a founding partner in two companies, (Cerahelix and Odigo), was recently featured on Greenlight Maine. This program, recorded in the New England School of Communication's television studio, features local entrepreneurs as they compete for a $100,000 prize. The competition is similar to the television show "Shark Tank." Season One began in September and will conclude in December 2015. The announcement of the winner will occur at the conclusion of Season Two in 2016.

Students Turn October into "Artober."

Assistant Professor of Art Kathi Smith and her students were busy during "Artober" in Bangor. Husson student artwork was on display at Bangor City Hall during this month-long, citywide celebration of creativity. In addition, Smith organized an exhibition of faculty and staff artwork at the Gracie Theatre's WBRC Gallery. At the end of the month, Smith and her students organized a "Color Crash Community Mural." Members of our Husson University community who attended the Saturday, October 31 football game created the mural by throwing paint-filled balloons at three canvases.

Open Mic Night

English faculty and students held an open mic night event on November 12. The event, held on Husson University's Bangor campus, gave students the opportunity to share their creative writing, music, and art, publicly.

Brent Cross (1957 – 2015)

Husson University is sad to report the passing of Brent Cross – business and civic leader, dedicated family man, and faithful Red Sox fan. He passed away on Thanksgiving Day at Mass General Hospital after an extended battle with cancer. He was 58 years old.

An executive vice president with Cross Insurance, Brent was an active member of our Husson University family. He earned his Bachelor of Science in business administration from Husson in 1994. Continuing his studies at our university, Cross completed his Master of Science degree in business administration in 2001.

In remembering Brent, College of Business Dean Marie Hansen said, "Brent was one of our university's shining stars. He believed in giving of himself to help make the world a better place. I'll always remember Brent as a living example of what all Husson graduates should strive to embody – character and humility."

Cross volunteered his time as a member of Husson University's Board of Trustees and was inducted into our Business Hall of Fame in 2005. For more than 20 years, he taught insurance theory and practice to College of Business undergraduate students as an adjunct professor.

"Brent believed in the value of a college degree and its ability to transform lives," says Husson University President Robert A. Clark, Ph.D. "The scholarship that has been set up in his memory is a fitting way to honor him and create an ongoing legacy that supports education."

If you would like to join us in honoring Brent's memory, please make a tax-deductible gift to the Brent Cross Scholarship Fund, Husson University, Attn: Scholarships, One College Circle, Bangor, Maine 04401.

Impacting Student Success

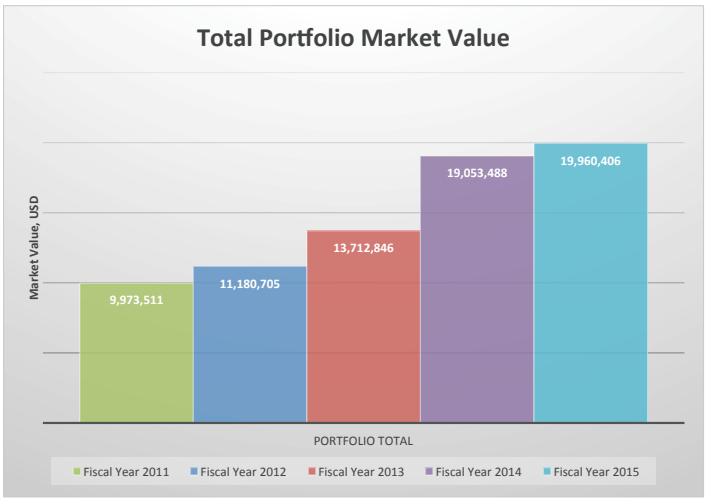

Here at Husson, scholarships play a critical role in ensuring our current and future students receive a great education. Creating more endowed scholarships is a priority for Husson as part of the Shaping our Future Campaign. Our dedication to affordable and accessible education has provided numerous educational opportunities to students from Maine and all over the world.

Nearly half of Husson students qualify for need-based financial aid from the U.S. government and almost 90% of our students receive either a scholarship or loan. Despite this support, many still need assistance to pay for college. As a university we do everyting we can to financially assist students in achieving their full potential through education.

An increase in endowed scholarships increases the university's overall endowment, which currently stands at $20 million. In the beginning of the Shaping our Future Campaign, Husson had 60 fully-endowed scholarships to assist students in obtaining their education. In just four short years, that number has increased to 79 fully-endowed scholarships.

The growth in fully-endowed scholarships can be attributed to the generosity of donors like you. A scholarship becomes endowed when the fund reaches $25,000. You can fund a scholarship with a pledge, spread over five years, using assets such as cash, stock transfers, property or an IRA rollover. Create your legacy and imagine the impact you, as an agent of change, can make on the life of a young person.

If you are interested in creating an endowed scholarship, please contact one of our Advancement staff members.

In gratitude...

Husson sincerely thanks all of its donors who helped to make July 1, 2014 – June 30, 2015 a successful year.

Giving Society: Consecutive Giving

The Bell Tower Society

The Bell Tower Society recognizes donors who have made gifts in the last three or more consecutive years to Husson University. These gifts can be outright gifts, pledge payments, or multi-year pledges and may be unrestricted, restricted for a special purpose, or designated to the endowment fund.
