DEGREE-GRANTING AUTHORITY

Husson University is incorporated as a nonprofit, independent institution of higher education by the State of Maine. The Maine Legislature first enacted degree-granting authority for Husson in specific Bachelor of Science programs in 1953 followed by other specific degrees and, most recently, the generic Associate of Science (1991), Bachelor of Science (1991), Master of Science (1993), and Honorary Doctorate (1993) degrees.

ACADEMIC DISTINCTIONS

Based on a 4.0 grading scale, Husson University recognizes the following academic distinctions for baccalaureate graduates at graduation:

Cum Laude	3.40 - 3.59
Magna Cum Laude	3.60 - 3.79
Summa Cum Laude	3.80 - 4.00

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The tradition of academic regalia dates to the formation of the first European universities in the late ninth century. At that time, scholarship was conducted at religious centers, and the dress of the scholar was also that of a religious cleric. Long gowns and hoods had the functional purpose of providing warmth in unheated libraries and cells. The use of the raiment continued unofficially until Oxford and Cambridge Universities permanently adopted the clerical vestments as ceremonial academic costume. This tradition spread to American colleges and universities in the late nineteenth century, when a code was set that defined the cut and style of American gowns and prescribed colors to represent the various divisions of learning. In accordance with tradition, Husson regalia include a long black gown and a mortarboard with a golden yellow tassel. Husson Master's graduates wear hoods referring to their division of learning, drab for business and peacock blue for criminal justice. A golden yellow cord draped across the shoulders of undergraduate-level students represents their academic honors.
