Commencement Speaker

KENNETH M. CURTIS

Governor of the State of Maine

Kenneth M. Curtis, Governor of the State of Maine, has earned the distinction of being the youngest Governor in the history of Maine to be inaugurated to the State's highest office. He is also the youngest state chief executive in the nation.

A native of Curtis Corner in Androscoggin County, Mr. Curtis attended Cony High School in Augusta and later was graduated from the Maine Maritime Academy with a Bachelor of Science degree. In 1959 he was awarded the Bachelor of Laws degree from Portland University Law School.

After serving with the United States Merchant Marines following graduation from Maine Maritime Academy, the Governor began his political career as an assistant to Congressman James C. Oliver. Later he conducted legal research for the United States Library of Congress, Legislative Research Service. During the Kennedy Administration, Mr. Curtis was appointed State Coordinator for the Area Redevelopment Administration for Maine. From 1965-1967, and, prior to his election, the Chief Executive served as Secretary of the State of Maine.

A veteran of the Korean War, Governor Curtis is a Lieutenant Commander in the United States Naval Reserve and is a Second Mate in the United States Merchant Marines.

As an attorney, the Governor is a member of the Maine Bar Association and has been admitted to practice law in the Supreme Court of the United States. He is also a member of the Harold T. Andrews Post of the American Legion, Past President of the Southern Maine Chapter of the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation, and former State director of the National Foundation March of Dimes.

Governor Curtis is married to the former Pauline Brown of Kennebunk and the couple has two children, Susan, age 8 and Angela, age 5.
