SEASON PREVIEW

The 2002 Husson Baseball Team is made up three different groups of players. There is the group of seasoned seniors who have been through three very successful college seasons. Then there is the group of sophomores and juniors who now know what it takes to play college baseball. Finally, there is the third group of talented freshmen who look to make an immediate impact for the Braves. They may be three different groups but all have the same goal: to continue the successful tradition of past teams. A tradition that has led to 12 consecutive post season berths, 62 All New England Players, 6 New England Players of the Year, 10 Honorable All Americans and 6 Academic All Americans.

The heart of the team is behind the plate where seniors Mike Worcester and John McGlinn will split duties when not playing in leftfield or DH'ing. Worcester is a 2 time All Conference Selection and McGlinn was the utility player on the All Conference team. They are backed up by freshman Bill Kane and Seth Stoddard.

The infield is very young with sophomores Jason Folsom (3B) and Josh Ferguson (SS) anchoring the left-side; the right side will be filled by talented freshmen Shawn Henderson (2B) and Craig Harvey (1 B). Harvey is a former recipient of the Dr. John Winkin Award; the annual award to the state of Maine's best high school baseball player.

The outfield will feature McGlinn, Jarod Foster (Sr) and Jonas Bard (Fr). Also expected to contribute on the outfield are Kyle Mathieu (Fr), Keith Simmons (Jr) and Aaron Brideau (Fr). An outfield that does not have a lot of speed but one that is intelligent defensively who makes the routine play. Offensively this group will hit for average with occasional power.

The pitching staff is headed by veteran Dave Dostie, Keith Simmons, Travis Reynolds, and Eric Reynolds. Sophomore Barrett Dione and Freshman Josh Dubay were quality high school pitchers who will be in the starting rotation. The bullpen is made up of-Paul Klink (So), Kyle Mathieu (Fr) Deric Prescott (Sr), Aaron Brideau (Fr). Everyday players Craig Harvey and Jarod Foster also play important roles for the staff.

Over all the most intriguing aspect of this team is its versatility. Most players are capable of playing more than one position and will do so this spring. A total team approach will be used and necessary for the Braves' continued success. A total team effort that will consist of some players not listed in the overview but listed on the following pages. Players who know their role and want the team to succeed!

5 Winkin, Dr. John

Assistant Coach

Coach Winkin is a legend in the world of College Baseball. His experience and knowledge are second to no one. This will be his 48th year of Coaching baseball at the collegiate level. While at Colby College and the University of Maine, he attained an amazing record 934-670. This record includes, 6 trips to Omaha for the College World Series with Maine. He has coached 73 Players who have signed professional contracts including current Baltimore Orioles shortstop Mike Bordick.

Dr. Winkin is also the Director of the Sports Leadership Institute here at Husson College. He serves on the Board of Directors of the American Baseball Coaches Association and is a member of six Hall of Fames. The newly renovated baseball field here at Husson has been named the John Winkin Baseball complex in honor of Coach Winkin's service to the Baseball Community in the State of Maine along with the rest of the nation.

Paul, Dave

Assistant Coach

6

Coach Paul enters his second season on the Braves coaching staff. During his tenure as the coach of Orono American Legion Baseball team he won 3 consecutive State of Maine Legion titles. He has also coached the Old Town High School Baseball Team during this period. Coach Paul's duties include coaching third base, recruiting, and the organization of the ever growing Husson Baseball camps.

4 Takahashi, Kei

Infield

HT: 5'3" WT: 132 YR: Sophomore

Throws: Right
Bats: Right

Hometown: Tokyo, Japan

Remarks: All coaches appreciate a player like Kei. He works hard, does everything that he is asked to do, loves the game, respects his opponents, and gets along with all of his teammates. He is a quality young man. Look for Kei to give the Braves depth at all the infield positions this spring.

Ferguson, Josh

Shortstop

7

HT: 5'10" WT: 150 YR: Sophomore

Throws: Right
Bats: Right

Hometown: Saint John, NB

Remarks: Josh proved to be a steady and reliable shortstop during his freshman year. Though only a sophomore this season he will be the leader of the infield having the most game experience of all the infielders. Josh is a contact hitter who can occasionally drive the ball in the outfield gaps.

8 Foster, Jared

Pitcher-Outfield

HT: 5'9" WT: 172 YR: Senior

Throws: Left
Bats: Left

Hometown: Old Town, ME

Remarks: Jared will not only be asked to fill his usual offensive role for the Braves this season but will also be asked to take the mound. In his limited mound appearances last spring he showed an ability to throw strikes and get batters out. This gives depth to the pitching staff.

Simmons, Keith

Pitcher-DH

24

HT: 5'11" WT: 210 YR: Senior

Throws: Right
Bats: Left

Hometown: Friendship, ME

Remarks: Keith is an important part of the Braves team on the mound and at the plate. He has experience on the mound in crucial situations and can give the Braves another left handed bat in the lineup. His ability to contribute was a key in last years DH sweep of conference rival University of Maine at Farmington as Keith picked up the win on the mound in the first game and had several key hits in the second game.

Brideau, Aaron

Outfield

30

HT: 5'9" WT: 180 YR: Freshman

Throws: Left
Bats: Right

Hometown: Miramichi, NB

Remarks: This young man along with several other newcomers to the Braves will play a major role in the teams success this season. Aaron will help the team both in the outfield and on the mound. He has very quick wrists at bat and is solid fundamentally in the outfield. He is not overpowering on the mound so he must rely on mixing up his pitchers to be successful.
