THE LAMP 1978

Irene Shannon

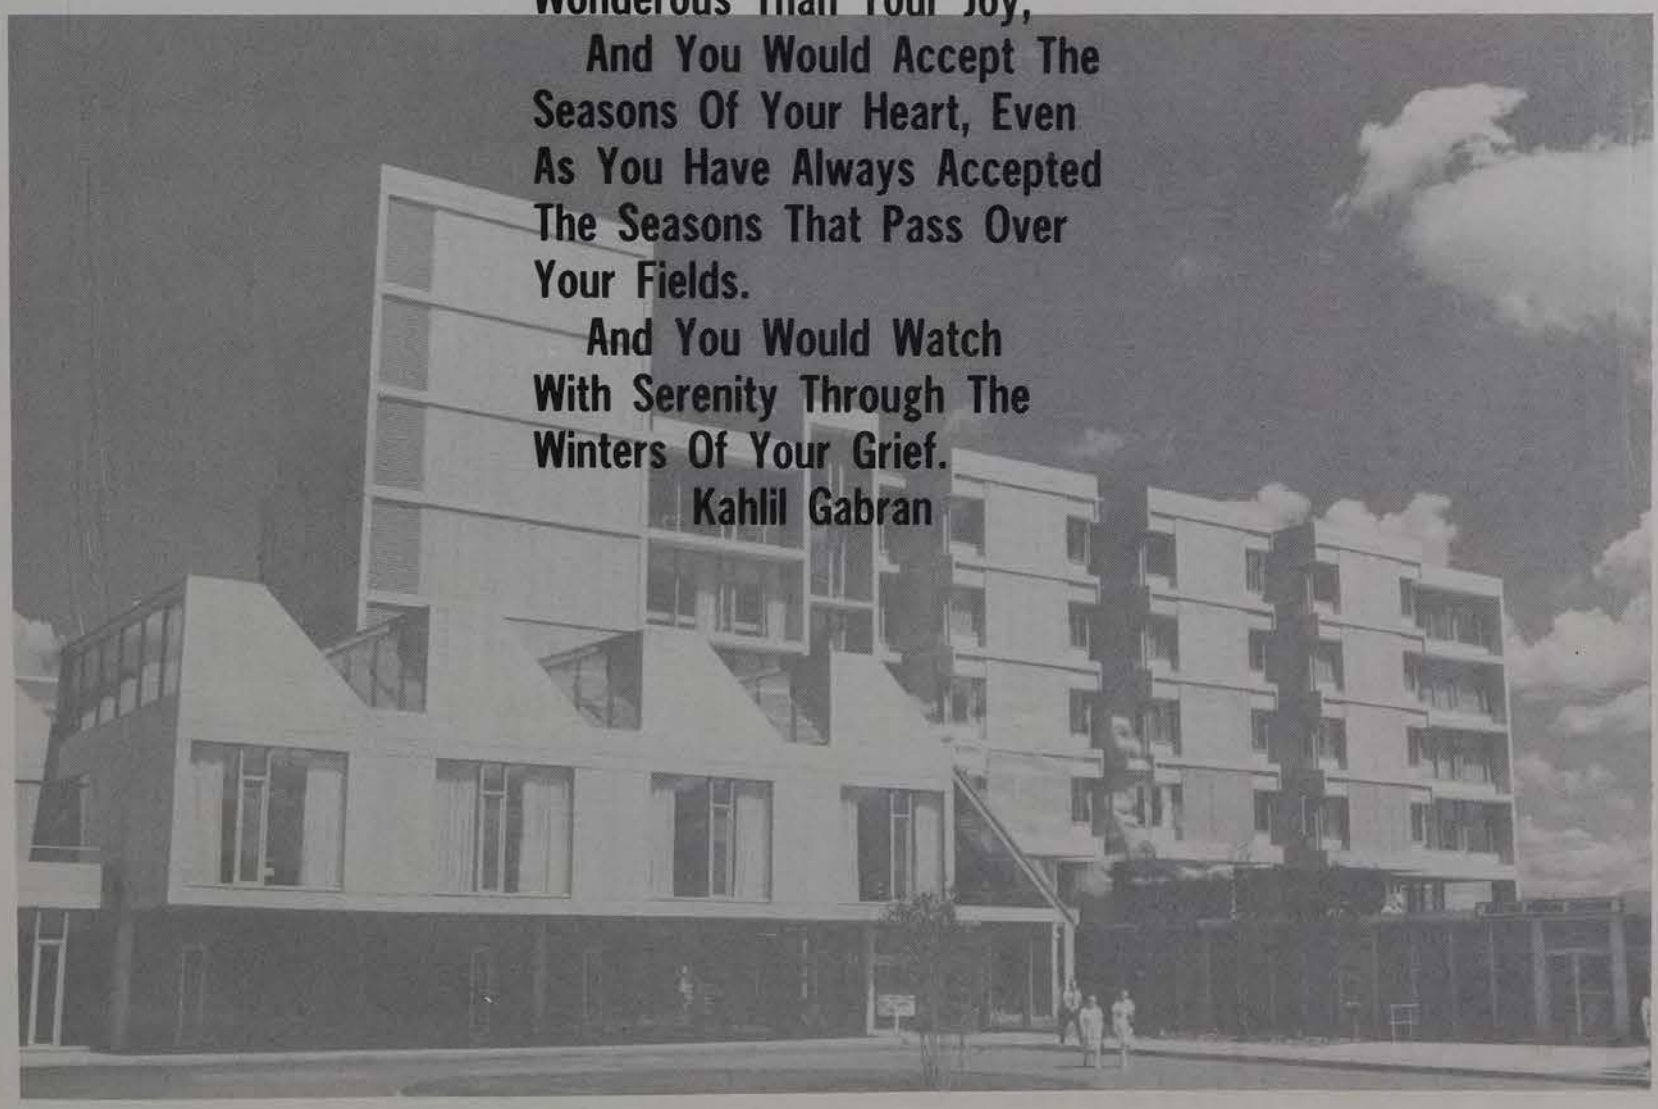

And A Woman Spoke, Saying,
Tell Us Of Pain.
And He Said:
Your Pain Is The Breaking
Of The Shell That Encloses
Your Understanding.
Even As The Stone Of The Fruit Must Break, That Its Heart May Stand In The Sun,
So Must You Know Pain.
And Could You Keep Your Heart In Wonder At The Daily Miracles Of Your Life, Your Pain Would Not Seem Less Wonderous Than Your Joy; And You Would Accept The Seasons Of Your Heart, Even As You Have Always Accepted
The Seasons That Pass Over
Your Fields.
And You Would Watch With Serenity Through The Winters Of Your Grief.

Seed-Time And Harvest

"The nurse-life wheat within his green husk growing flatters our hopes and tickles our desire;
nature's true riches in sweet beauties shewing, which set all hearts with labour's love on fire.
No less fair is the wheat when golden ear, shews unto hope the joys of near enjoying:
fair and sweet is the bud; more sweet and fair the rose, which proves that time is not destroying."

From Caelica, Sonnet XL, Lord Brooke

To those who have been part of our metamorphasis and so will contribute to all our abundant harvest times to come.

With love,
The Class of 1978

DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

What will the delivery of health care be like and how will it change in our complex society in your lifetime? You will find changes and challenges in nursing during the decades ahead and one supposes that he cannot now visualize all of the technologies that will be utilized in the health field.

Your education has barely begun and you have been taught to continue the educational growth process so that you will always be knowledgeable about ever-changing educational and nursing trends.

The faculty join me in extending congratulations to each member of the Class of 1978 as you accept graduate responsibility and to wish each of you a good life with much personal and professional happiness in the future.

Irene Shannon, R.N.
Director, School of Nursing

Editors Letter

We would like to thank everyone who has given so much of their time, energy, ideas and support in helping us put together the 1978 Lamp. Special thanks go to our staff without whose help we could not have put the book together, Gregoire O. Chesaux who designed our cover, a unique reproduction of our school pin, and to our patrons whose financial support aided us in giving you this special yearbook.

We hope that the 1978 Lamp will hold many memories for you. We have enjoyed working on the yearbook for you, and we would like to extend our best wishes forhappy memories for everyone.

Leave off fine learning! End the nuisance Of saying yes to this and perhaps to that, Distinctions with how little difference!
Categorical this, categorical that,
What slightest use are they!
If one man leads, another must follow,
How silly that is and how false!
Yet conventional men lead an easy life
With all their days feast-days,
A constant spring visit to the Tall Tower, While I am a simpleton, a do-nothing,
Not big enough yet to raise a hand,
Not grown enough to smile,
A homeless, worthless waif.
Men of the world have a surplus of goods, While I am left out, owning nothing.
What a booby I must be Not to know my way round,
What a fool!
The average man is so crisp and so confident That I ought to be miserable Going on and on like the sea, Drifting nowhere.
All these people are making their mark in the world, While I, pig-headed, awkward,
Different from the rest,
Am only a glorious infant still nursing at the breast.

PORTFOLIO

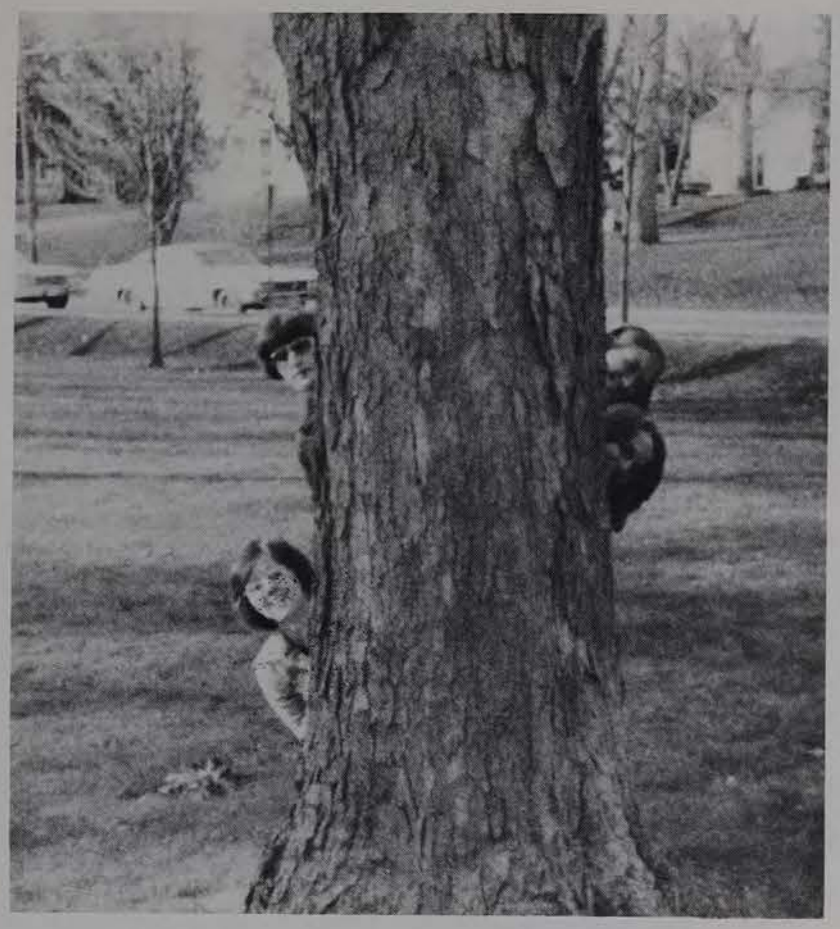

"When I came to EMMC School of Nursing, I had always wanted to be a nurse, But I may change my mind ... "

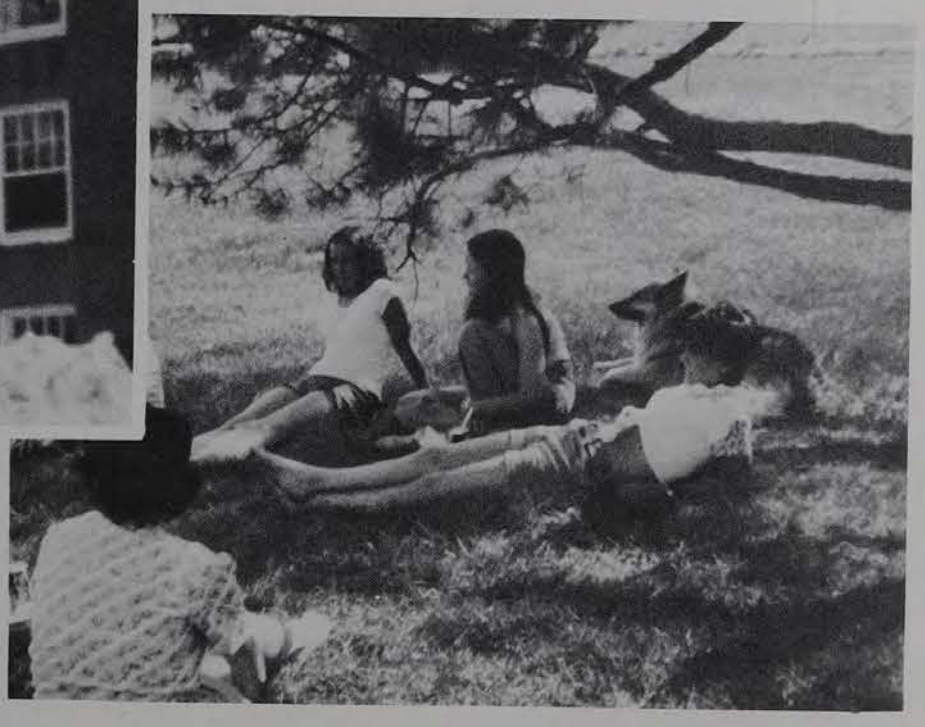

Four heads are better than one.

Laziness-Unwarranted repose of manner in a person of low degree

Once upon a time, there were three instructors ....

Through rain & snow and sleet we come together for fun, games, food & friendship.

Learning- the kind of ignorance distinguishing the

"Shannon, I think you have it."

Positive-Mistaken at the top of one's voice

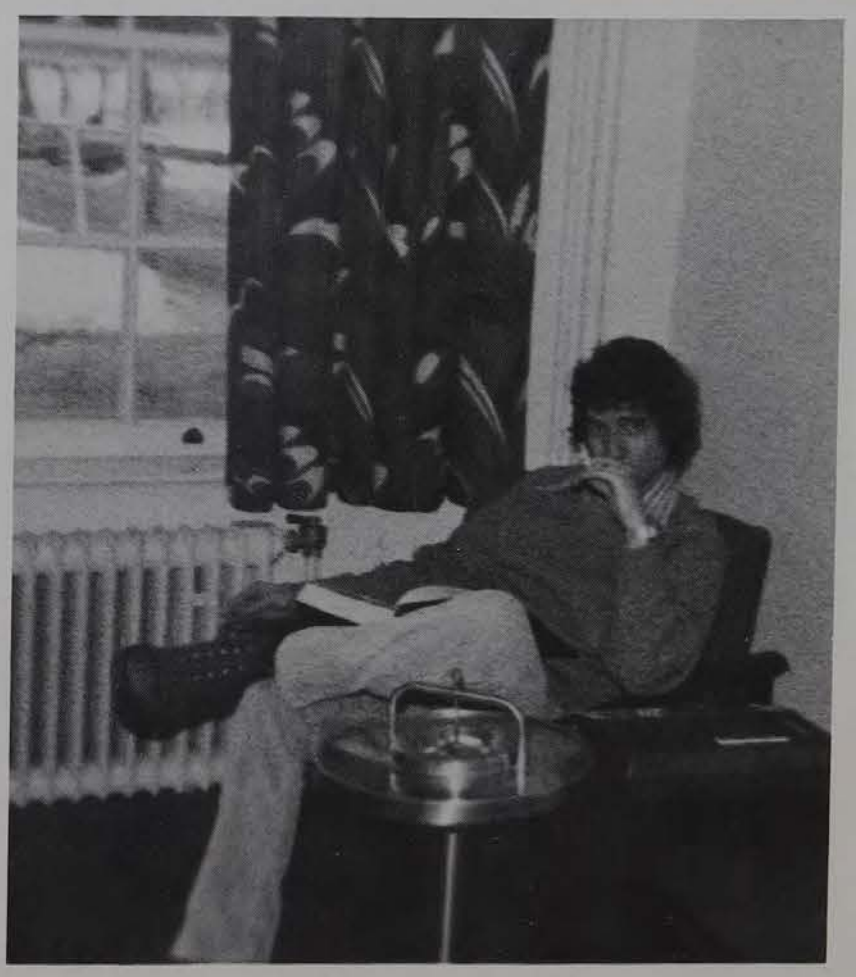

"This is what I call the eye game."

Does the first day of school always look like this?

Life-A spiritual pickle preserving the body from decay. We live in daily apprehension of its loss; yet when lost it is not missed.

"Linda, if you take that picture I'll ... !"

Friendship-A ship big enough to carry two in fair weather, but only one in foul.

"I had 37% fewer cavities"

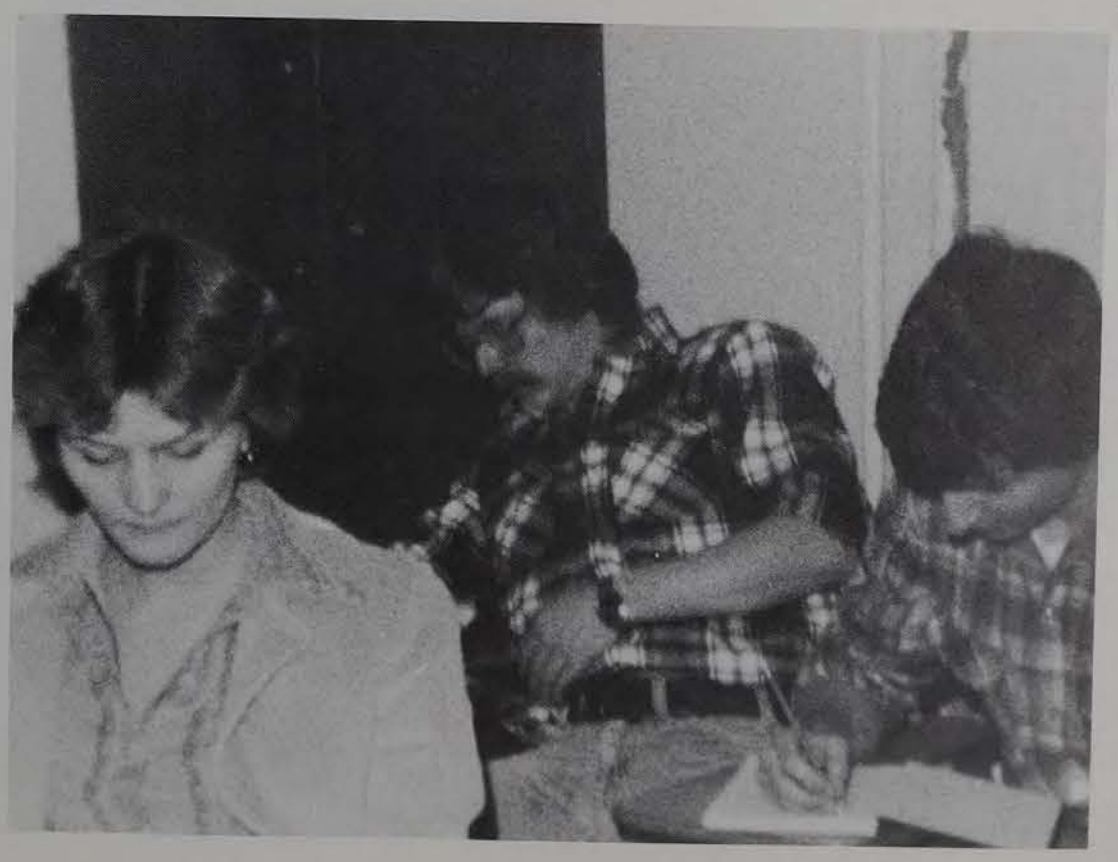

I'm having a good time, how about you?"

Lecturer-One with his hand in your pocket, his tongue in your ear and his faith in your patience.

"I don't really look like this."

As the music plays on, Roland sleeps!

Leisure time spent by many, in many different ways, Help us all to learn and love and pass our many days.

If Ever

If ever, we were to own all possessions and to control them, would life not offer but the obvious?
If ever, we were to own nothing, possessing only ourselves, could there then be a challenge?
If ever, we were only to give, never to recieve, would we not feel cheated?
If ever, we were only to inherit, never to surrender, could we ever feel a true sense of being?

Janet's Wednesday evening meal meant cooking supper on those hot plates for Bill?
Shannon was on time for class?
it took Sally five minutes to find a replacement for the 1977 Christmas Dance?

Murphy's Laws.
If anything can go wrong,
it will, at the worst possible moment.
Everything you decide to do costs more than first estimated.
Every activity takes more time than you have.
It is easier to make a commitment or to get involved than to get out of it.
What ever you set out to do something else must be done first.
If you improve or tinker with something long enough it will eventually break.
By making something absolutely clear someone will be confused.
Nothing is ever as simple as it seems.
Outgo always rises to exceed income.
If you try to please everyone, someone will not like it.
It's a fundamental law of nature that nothing ever quite works out.
No good deed goes unpunished.
The probability of an occurance is in inverse ratio to its desirability.
The probability of failure is directly related to number and importance of the people watching the test.
You can fool all of the people some of the time, and some of the people all of the time, and that's sufficient.

I extend my love and graditude to my parents, who with their love, understanding, selflessness, and limitless support have afforded me all that's yet to come. Special thanks to Debbie, who's friendship shall ever remain dear. And to others who have contributed to the fulfillment of my life.

"The issue of students Rights and Students power (or powerlessness) is of serious concern of students in nursing programs .... It is not the concern of just a few malajusted, discontented, trouble making deviants driven by "maniac energy, neurotic anxiety or obsessive, compulsive tendencies." And, , while the ideas are neither revolutionary nor unfamiliar, the sense of desperation that motivates us to speak out turns our complaint to an act of humanistic liberation"

"You give but little when you give of your possessions.
It is when you give of yourself that you truly give.
For what are your possessions but things you keep and guard for fear you many need them tomorrow?

There are those who give little of the much which they have and they give it for recognition and their hidden desire makes their gifts unwholesome.
And there are those who have little and give it all.
It is well to give when asked, but it is better to give unasked."

Today is the Edge of Tomorrow

Yesterday is now an echo with Mom, Dad, and the Family standing as illuminous pillars of the past, present and future And now those who dared to touch, to know, to grow - my friends and lovers of love. We laughed together with joy smiled with the beauty and truths of life.
Ah, those who dared to touch, for touching was such reaching and feeling, such pain when we could not comprehend the hurt, frustrations, and anguish. Thru violent sorms we took quiet walks and the sands always settled. To feel the limitless horizons of the sun and moon today and know the path beneath my feet is right, is to be expandingly full as I touch the edge of tomorrow.

Thank you all for risking with me.
May love be ours,
forever.

When God wants to drill a man and thrill a man,
And skilla man,
When God wants to mold a man
To play the noblest part;
When he yearns with All his heart
To create so great and bold a man That all the world shall be amazed Watch His methods ... watch his ways
How he ruthlessly perfects Whom he royally effects.
How he hammers him and hurts him
And with mighty blows converts him Into trial shapes of clay which Only God understands!
While his tortured heart is crying and he lifts beseeching hands How he bends but never breaks when His good He undertakes; How he uses whom he choses, and with every purpose fuses him; By every act induces him to try his splendor out God knows what He's about.

People through finding something beautiful Think something else unbeautiful, Through finding one man fit Judge another unfit.
Life and death, though stemming from each other,
seem to conflict as stages of change, Difficult and easy as phases of achievement,
Long and short as measures of contrast,
High and low as degrees of relation;
But, since the varying of tones gives music to a voice And what is is the was of what shall be,
The sanest man
Sets up no deed,
Lays down no law,
Takes everything that happens as it comes,
As something to animate, not to appropriate,
To earn, not to own,
To accept naturally without self-importance:
If you never assume importance
You never lose it,
