THE EASTERN MAINE GENERAL HOSPITAL

MY PLEDGE AND CREED

REVERENTLY do I pledge myself to the wholehearted service of those whose care is intrusted to this hospital.

TO THAT END I will ever strive for skill in the fulfillment of my duties holding secret whatsoever I may learn touching upon the lives of the sick.

I ACKNOWLEDGE the dignity of the cure of disease and the safeguarding of the health in which no act is menial or inglorious.

I WILL WALK in upright faithfulness and obedience to those under whose guidance I am to work and I pray for patience, kindliness and understanding in the holy ministry to broken bodies.

Senior Class

How clearly we all remember that day, September 10, 1956, when we were greeted at the Nurses' Annex by students in their impressive blue and white striped uniforms with starched white bibs, aprons, and caps. From that moment our goal was to wear the cap and uniform of our school.

This was achieved by a semester of intense study at the University of Maine as well as classes here in nursing arts. We started working with the patients in the hospital in October. As in any vocation, some found nursing was not suited to them, and we lost several students. Summer was spent at work in the hospital putting into practice all our newly acquired knowledge. With the fall season came the first narrow black band for our caps. It also meant that affiliations started for us at New Hampshire State Hospital, Children's Medical Center, and Boston Lying-In Hospital. It was not until May, 1959, that our entire class was reunited. Meanwhile, we had gained another narrow black band for our caps. Spring classes began again, lasting from May through July.

During our three years of nursing, food sales, dances, and the baby-picture program were our means of earning money for our student government fund. In May, 1958, Eleanor Hansen and Elaine Miller represented our school at the National Convention in Atlantic City. We are also proud of Patricia Tompkins, who was elected the 1959 Maine State Student Nurses' Association President. Class officers for the three years have been: President, Maxine Carle; Vice-President, Patricia Tompkins; Treasurer, Elaine Miller; and Secretary, Sandra Wilkinson.

Although much hard work and studying have been put into our three years of nursing, I'm sure my classmates agree that it has been a valuable experience. Now, as we are ready to graduate, we wish to express our appreciation to parents, instructors, supervisors, and all others responsible for making our careers a success.

BOY
WANTED

The Last Will

We, the Class of 1959, being of unsound minds and physically unfit, do hereby leave, will, get rid of, and donate the following:

If "CHICKIE" ALBERT could find her white print dress, she'd leave it to Anita Shannon, in hopes that she, too, could be "Belle of the ball."

RAE ELLEN BROWN leaves her collection of earrings, souvenirs of good times, and boyfriends to Sally Emery. We're sure she'll take good care of them.

MAXINE WELLMAN CARLE leaves her parking space, flat tires, empty gas tank, out-dated inspection stickers, and any other car problems to Penny Lovejoy.

GAIL KERRIGAN GRAVES leaves her many clothes to anyone who has a lot of closet space.

ELAINE MILLER leaves her ability to remain calm, cool, and collected at all times to "Bobby" Leighton.

MARION MONAHAN, out of the goodness of her heart, leaves her stethoscope and blood pressure cuff to the fifth floor classroom.

SANDRA WOODS leaves her 5:30 A.M. showers to Sharon Clukey.

JUNE BOYER leaves her reserved seat at the N.S.O. to Gail Harris.

ELEANOR HINKLEY leaves her ability to whip up a dress the night before a dance to Anne Boardway.

MARGE McCLEARY leaves her Aroostook accent to Nancy Blood.

SANDRA WILKINSON leaves the women's privilege to change her mind to Jane Rideout.

CAROL ANN HICKEY leaves her seat on the bus to Eastport to Pat Lingley.

BETTY DROTAR leaves her ability to have a date every night to Jackie Donovan.

ELEANOR HANSEN leaves her gentle voice and quiet footsteps to anyone living on the fourth floor.

JEANNETTE MITCHELL leaves her ability to "trip the light fantastic" to Grace McGillan.

PATTI LOLAR TOMPKINS leaves the trials and tribulations of the M.S.S.N.A. to Sandra Haskell.

And Testament

INA PULSIFER PRATT leaves her pet sayings, impish ways, and her joke book to "Dody" Mitchell.

IDA JENKINS leaves her love for cokes and "77 Sunset Strip" to Judy Fraser.

HELEN CAMERON PHILLIPS leaves her "never-failing charm" to anyone who can meet the requirements.

ALICIA BRALEY ARSENAULT leaves to join the army.

"BARBIE" DeMERCHANT leaves her share of Dow Air Force Base to Uncle Sam, in case of war.

CONNIE BUCHANAN ROMBLAD entrusts the candy machine to Marie Sawyer, in hopes that she will keep it well supplied with nickels.

SHIRLEY GENTHNER leaves her "never-run" stockings to all the underclassmen.

ANITA PAGE leaves her "secret to success" in Boston to all future affiliates.

FRANCES PHILLIPS passes on the file of ready answers, which was willed to her, to Ragna Byard.

MARY LOU CHAPLES DRAKE leaves her ability to budget to Barbara Fields.

ELEANOR BRYANT McFARLAND leaves, reading the latest copy of "Good Housekeeping."

MILDRED ELLIOTT HANSON leaves her T.V. set to Sharon Smith, so that she can watch the westerns.

JUDY MOTT leaves her daily phone calls from the base hospital to Diane Piper.

PAT FRASER leaves her baby-sitting schedule to Jeannette Cameron.

BARBARA NICKERSON leaves her ability to have two dates on the same night (without being caught) to anyone able to keep up the tradition.

We, the Senior Class as a whole, do hereby will and bequeath our share of 3-11 duty, days off with classes, corned beef and cabbage, Dow men, and U. of M. to be distributed equally among the underclassmen.

The Prophecy

Ten years after graduation have passed,
The Class of '59 is reunited at last.
The hour is late, but memories return,
Like dates at Dow, and parties at Lucerne.

The thought offered by MARION MONAHAN, Frontier Nurse,
Was, "Things have to get better, they can't get worse!"

PAT FRASER, as always, is still on the go,
As Director of Nurses at a hospital in Buffalo.

"CHICKIE" ALBERT, now Bower at last,
Is keeping her secrets, as in the past.

SHIRLEY GENTHNER still holds the lamp high,
Working as O.R. Supervisor with never a sigh.

MARGE McCLEARY, wife of Colonel Lewis,
Finds interest in dependents to be the truest.

Lady-like ELAINE MILLER is really the "mostest",
With the distinction of being an airline hostess.

JENNIE MITCHELL has a modeling career;
At Saks, Fifth Avenue, you'll find her this year.

RAE ELLEN BROWN appears quite the same,
Although dancing, not nursing, has won her fame.

CAROL ANN HICKEY, quite unchanged,
Is caring for Dick, as previously arranged.

"LICIA" and RON ARSENAULT formed a roller skating team;
Keeping in condition for A-1 is "Licia's" theme!

JUNE and TONY BOROTTO have a spaghetti house in Italy.
And they are soon expecting a new little ravioli!

MARY LOU CHAPLES has married into wealth,
With Mark she shares happiness as well as good health.

SANDRA WOODS has sailed the waves, and Oh! how she has changed,
Ships she likes, men she adores; her interests are world-wide ranged.

ELEANOR HINKLEY, with remarks galore,
Has found a husband with a department store.

FRAN and WALT YORK have toured the globe,
And are now settled in their Maine abode.

MAXINE CARLE has gained wealth through the years,
With a new car, she now drives without fears.

PATTI TOMPKINS had a few choice comments,
And one complaint – finding Bangor rents!

SANDY WILKINSON, undecided as to which it will be,
Is working at present as Supervisor in O. B.

BETTY DROTAR is the wife of business executive Jim,
With so much entertaining, her life is never dim.

Though JUDY and DICK PETRI are driving ambulances,
They still find time for the Wednesday night dances.

E. M. G.'s reliable night float, INA PRATT,
Is here at eleven, unless Jim's car has a flat.

ELEANOR and DONNIE McFARLAND, still in their trailer small,
Are having troubles, since there now are five in all.

BARB DeMERCHANT, who has changed her opinion of men,
Has finally found her single life nearing an end.

Before HELEN and MEL PHILLIPS can call it a night,
They still must make the last stop Mike's.

MILLY HANSON, still busy keeping things neat,
Always manages to find some spare time to eat!

GAIL GRAVES, a former Air Force wife,
Lives in California and leads a rancher's life.

CONNIE ROMBLAD, famous for her talks,
Is busy lecturing from her little "soap-box".

NITA and ALLEN PHILLIPS have found bundles of joy
With Beagle pups, two girls, and a boy.

IDA JENKINS, tired of the long corridor,
Is now Dr. Hannah's office nurse in Florida.

ELEANOR HANSEN had a radiant beam,
With her nine boys, she has a ball team.

At NICKIE'S "Home for Wanderers" was a sign on the door:
"Gone fishin' all day, can't stand any more!"

The world grows year by year
Because some nurse in her little sphere,
Puts on her apron and smiles and sings,
And keeps on doing the same old things.

Taking the temperatures, giving the pills,
To remedy mankind's numberless ills.
Feeding the baby, answering the bells,
Being polite with a heart that rebels.

Longing for home and all the while
Wearing the same old professional smile,
Blessing the newborn babe's first breath,
Closing the eyes that are still in death.

Taking the blame for others' mistakes,
Oh dear, what a lot of patience it takes.
Going off duty at seven o'clock,
Tired and discouraged and ready to drop.

But called back on special at seven fifteen,
With woe in her heart, but it must not be seen.
Morning and evening, and noon and night,
Just doing it over and hoping it's right.

When we lay down our caps and cross the bar,
Oh Lord, will you give us just one little star,
To wear in our crowns with our uniforms new,
In that city above where the Head Nurse is You?

To be a nurse is to walk with God,
Along the path that our Master trod;
To soothe the achings of human pain,
To faithfully serve for little gain,
To lovingly do the kindly deed,
A cup of water to one in need,
A tender hand on a fevered brow,
A word of cheer to those living now,
To reach the soul through its body's woe,
Ah! This is the way that Jesus would go.
Oh, white-capped nurses in uniforms new,
Our Great Physician is working through you.

Affiliations

During our three years of nursing, we have spent nine months on affiliation in the obstetric, pediatric, and psychiatric fields at Boston Lying-In Hospital, Children's Medical Center, and New Hampshire State Hospital. Each three month course was given to provide us with greater knowledge and a broader outlook on these subjects. A separate staff of instructors and supervisors is maintained to guide and direct us.

The rotation plan is used to acquaint students with the various phases and specialties involved in total patient care in each of these fields.

We enjoyed meeting students from different schools and various types of hospitals. Many of us made new and lasting friendships, and had valuable experience in caring for children of all ages, new mothers and their babies, and people from all walks of life. We feel that our affiliations were a very profitable experience.

Junior Class

On September 9, 1957, the Class of 1960 entered the Eastern Maine General Hospital School of Nursing, thirty-seven strong. We were anxious, frightened, and confused, as new student nurses frequently are.

Shortly after we entered, our first class meeting was held, and the following officers elected: President, Sandra Leathers; Vice-President, Anne Boardway; Secretary, Sharon Clukey; and Treasurer, Joanne Mitchell. Student Council Representatives were Sandra Haskell and Elaine Lord.

On Monday, September 23, we started our classes at "Maine." After the first day we were thoroughly confused! We remained in this state for approximately one-half of the time we were there. Soon, however, we found ourselves studying for finals, and in January, we were finished.

The day we were all anxiously awaiting, Capping Exercises, arrived on February 19, 1958. It was a most impressive ceremony, and we were all extremely proud, as were our parents.

We were separated as a class when some of the girls left for Boston on December 29, 1958. It was a sad occasion, but we seem to have survived.

Our Junior Class Officers are: President, Sandra Leathers; Vice-President, Anne Boardway; Secretary, Barbara Graham; and Treasurer, Shirley Winchester.

Elaine Lord and Sandra Haskell represented our school at the National Conventions at Atlantic City and Philadelphia. They brought back information from other states which was very interesting.

Our fund-raising projects have been car washes, food sales, dances, and selling calendars. We are looking forward to future projects and to graduation with great anticipation.

Freshman Class

We, the Class of 1961, floated into the Nurses' Annex on September 8, 1958 in a flurry of tears and teddy bears. None of us knew exactly what to expect that first day. However, we soon realized that our hopes and aspirations were finally a reality. We were met by what seemed like thousands of strange faces, our future friends and instructors, at a reception tea.

Our first week included meetings with out instructors, and a tour of the hospital and the University of Maine. The following week we started our classes.

By the time Christmas arrived, everybody was ready for a vacation. Upon our return, we faced the gruesome thought of final exams. Even after much time and effort was spent studying, a few were unable to make the grade. This loss made us realize how closely we were united as a class family.

Finally the long anticipated day arrived. On March 6, 1959, we "probies" received our caps and became full-fledged student nurses. In the presence of our proud parents and instructors, we were honored at a tea held in the living room of the Nurses' Annex.

During the class meetings, we chose our Student Council Representatives, Ida Robbins and Sherryanne Hibbard. Class officers elected were: President, Judy Purington; Vice-President, Joanne Morse; and Secretary, Mary Ross. Mary Ross was chosen as class delegate to attend the National Convention in Philadelphia. Elizabeth Haskell, Sherryanne Hibbard, and Sharon Grant attended the State Convention in Waterville.

Although most of our time was devoted to studies, we still found time to play basketball, swim, attend the school dances, hot dog roasts, and teas. Our weekends and evenings were devoted to food sales, car washes, donut and coffee sales, and selling baby pictures.

With such an eventful and rewarding year behind us, we are looking forward to our remaining two years as student nurses.

Karo

WE GIVE OUR THANKS

To Miss Mabel Booth, Director of Nursing, and to her Assistants, Miss Louise Nawfel and Miss Irene Shannon, for their interest in our welfare.

To the Faculty of the School of Nursing, to our Instructors at the University of Maine, and to the Nursing and Medical Staffs at the Eastern Maine General Hospital for their instruction, guidance, and assistance in providing us with a good foundation in nursing.

To Mrs. Susan McGrath and Miss Barbara Roach, who over the past three years have offered a guiding hand and worthy advice as we have partaken in our endeavors.

To our health team, Dr. Parrot and Miss Getchell, for their patience and sincere interest in aiding us with our health problems.

To our Housemothers, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. O'Donahue, Miss Tyrie, Mrs. Shannon, and Mrs. Davis, for their many kindnesses to us in answering our calls, getting our mail, and receiving our guests. We have missed Mrs. Davis, and wish her a speedy recovery.

To Miss Nickerson, our Librarian, who has willingly given of her time in helping us with our reference work.

To our Patrons and Patronesses, who have helped to make possible this publication of THE LAMP.

To the Ladies Auxiliary and to the Alumni Association, who have always supported us in our many endeavors.

To Dr. and Mrs. Magnus Ridlon, who have given a player piano and many rolls to the Nurses' Home for our enjoyment.

To Helen Cameron Phillips, Editor of THE LAMP, for her patience, time, and effort, which have made possible this publication.

To Patricia Lolar Tompkins, who has put much of her time and energy during the past year into the office of President of the Maine State Student Nurses' Association.

To Maxine Wellman Carle, Class President; Patricia Lolar Tompkins, Vice-President; Sandra Wilkinson, Secretary; and Elaine Miller, Treasurer, for faithfully serving in their offices.

And to our parents and friends, who, in a sense, will be graduating with us, for without their guidance and constant support, we would not have been able to attain this goal.

The Committee on Resolutions

I would like to take this opportunity to thank my yearbook staff and the members of the class who have worked so hard in assembling THE LAMP with me. Also, my special thanks to all the students who so busily went about the task of earning money for the student government fund, especially Anita Page and her committees. I thank Jackson Studios of Portland for doing the photography for the yearbook, and the Portland Lithograph Company for publishing this edition of THE LAMP.
