WE THE CLASS OF 1966 PROUDLY

PRESENT OUR YEARBOOK TO YOU.

Living

To touch the cup with eager lips and taste,
not drain it;
To woo and tempt and court a bliss--and not attain it;
To fondle and caress a joy, yet hold it lightly,
Lest it become necessity and cling too tightly;
To watch the sun set in the west without regretting;
To hail its advent in the east--the night forgetting;
To smother care in happiness and grief in laughter;
To hold the present close--not questioning
hereafter;
To have enough to share--to know the joy of giving;
To thrill with all the sweets of life-----
Is living.

Dedication

It is with the deepest respect that we, the Class of 1966, dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Mary Bacon R.N., who has been our class advisor and friend for three years. We all wish to express our heartwarming gratitude for the time she has given us and the tangible and intangible things she has done for our class.

I extend congratulations to each member of the class of 1966. It is my wish that achievement in your chosen profession will bring personal satisfaction and happiness to all of you in the years that lie ahead.

The Ideal Nurse

The "Ideal Nurse", like the "Ideal Woman", exists only in the eyes of the beholder, If she did exist, I am not certain I would like her. To the erudition of an Aristotle, the wit of Mark Twain, the technical skill of an Edison, and the figure of a "Playboy" centerfold girl she would have to add the administrative skill of Jefferson, the political acumen of L.B.J., and the dedication of Nightingale. How dull!

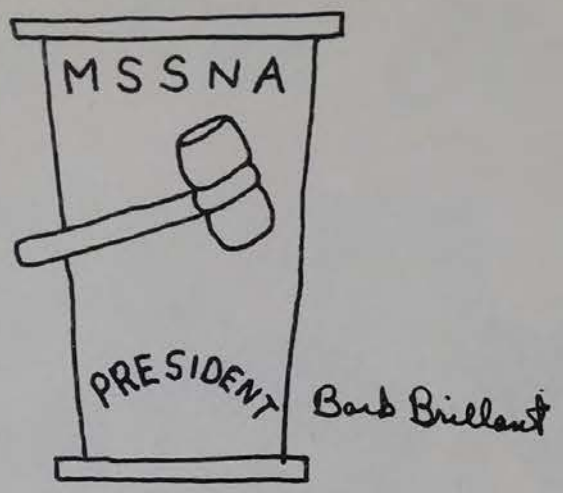

Rather, let her be a charming, gracious person; skilled in the art as well as the science of nursing. Give her a sense of dedication--but allow her to laugh at herself. Give her knowledge--but let her know she is not omnipotent. Make her conscientious in the performance of her job--but let her know that there is more to life than work. Help her heal the sick, and comfort those near death--and let her enjoy the foibles of humanity. Give her a sense of empathy--but keep her from maudlin sentimentality. Let her be an efficient technician--but keep her human.

STRICTLY GERM-PROOF

The Antiseptic Baby and the Prophylactic Pup
Were playing in the garden when the Bunny gamboled up;
They looked upon the Creature with a loathing undisguised;--
It wasn't Disinfected and it wasn't Sterilized.

They said it was a Microbe and a Hotbed of Disease;
They steamed it in a vapor of a thousand-odd degrees;
They froze it in a freezer that was cold as Banished Hope
And washed it in permanganate with carbolated soap.

In sulphureted hydrogen they steeped its wiggly ears;
They trimmed its frisky whiskers with a pair of hard-boiled shears;
They donned their rubber mittens and they took it by the hand
And 'lected it a member of the Fumigated Band.

There's not a Micrococcus in the garden where they play;
They bathe in pure iodoform a dozen times a day;
And each imbibes his rations from a Hygienic Cup--
The Bunny and the Baby and the Prophylactic Pup.

ARTHUR GUITERMAN

"Were they upper or lower dentures?"

"Well, NPO means". . . .

"Now, what was step number one?"

"Naturally, if you have the electrode upside down. . ."

"Was it a student or a graduate?"

"O.K. Where's my stethescope?"

"Now you didn't see a U.F.O.!"

"Pills! Pills! and more Pills!"

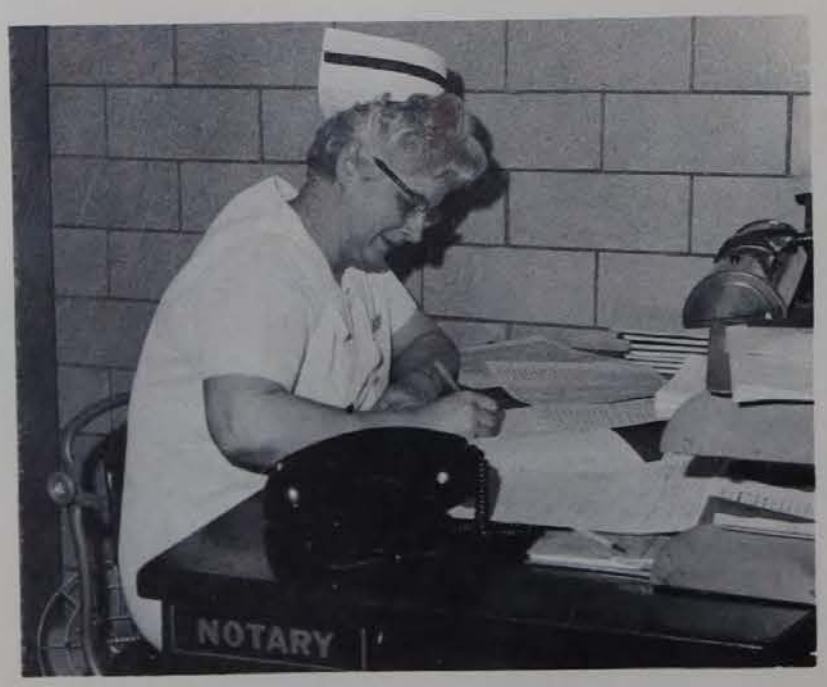

"Hot muffins coming up!"

"Quick turn the page!"

"Hello-Operator! This is Batman."

"It's got to be one of those switches!"

And in this corner . . . . .

Of course this bed's made!

WAA-BOO-HOO!

I can't read it either!

Once upon a time . . .

Our yearbook will be better!!!

Four score and seven years ago. .

Letters- I get letters-

Comfort is . . . . studying?

Let's retire!!!

And what do you want for Christmas?

You can't roller skate in a buffalo herd!

Anytime you need me.

It's time to study Neuro!!!

Wait a minute, I can't find "F"!

I always fold caps with my eyes shut!!!

Miss U.F.O., 1966

There's a meeting here tonite!

"Just Let Me Ask You, Nurse"

Sandra Campbell

There's somethin' I wanna ask you, nurse,
somethin' I'd like to know,
Are you really glad that you're a nurse,
answer me before you go.
There's many things I've wondered about since I've been in bed-
Like why can't I get up and play, as my brother Ned?
I've wondered 'bout you too, nurse, ya didn't know, I bet!
And some of the things I ain't figured out yet.
Just let me ask you nurse, is it sad to see someone die?
And how do ya know what to say, when the mom asks you "why"?
There's so many, many others here, that
I just don't rightly see,
How can you always manage a special smile
for me?
How come you always wear your hat in here, but leave it when you go?
My pa, he woulda busted me, if I'd worn mine inside, ya know?
But most important, I gotta ask, do you always dress in white?
But please don't ever change that, nurse,
that color seems just right.
You really do keep clean, what with all the things you do.
My ma, she'd sure be proud to have a kid like you!
Just let me ask you nurse, where do all those pills come from?
And howdo you know just when we're all supposed to get some?
How come you don't bring them all at once,
sure save time, ya know.
Maybe then we'd have more time to talk at night before ya go.
You always seem to know when I'm feeling at my worse.
Ya know, if I weren't a boy, I'd wanna be a nurse!
You must be in a hurry, tho' ya never 'pear
to be.
I'm really glad that you've spent this much time with me.
I won't ask you no more questions nurse,
I'm sorta tired tonight.
My tummy feels real funny, and my head
don't feel just right.
But before you slip so quietly out, and turn the lights down low.
Would ya stay in here while I say my prayers
tonight before ya go?
And just let me ask you this nurse, before
I shut my eyes.
Do you ever get two big tears in yours,
a'fore a person dies?
Your eyes look kinda wet to me, but I can't imagine why!
There ain't a reason in this world, why you should wanna cry.
Mama keeps tellin' me I'll soon be well,
but I know 'tisn't true.
But don't worry, nurse, when I get to heaven, I'll save a place for you!

Will and Testament

We the Senior Class of 1966 being of broken minds and fallen arches do hereby will the following:

Barb leaves her state gavel to Cheryl Kenny.
(Let's keep the gavel in the family.)
Margy leaves her reserved seat in the library to some studious freshman.
Annie leaves her business ability to Marty MacQuinn
(Excluding 'monkey-business')
Betsy leaves all of her 'notes' from the housemothers in the past years to Janie Jude.
(Add them to your collection Janie.)
May Katie Warren forever treasure Ellie's little pink man.
(Keep it on your windowsill, Katie.)
Linda Flye leaves her reserved seat on the Boston to Bangor Greyhound to any affiliating student.
(We challenge you to make more trips than Linda did.)
Glenna leaves her winter wedding to anyone who cares to march down the aisle in snow shoes.
(Planning a winter wedding Peg?)
'Fuzz' reluctantly leaves her 'Girl Scouts' to anyone who will keep them polished.
(Any color will do.)
JoAnn Gahagan leaves her mechanical ability to all '57 Chevy owners and Barbara Logan.
Jill leaves her toasts to anyone who can drink that many cokes.
Marilyn has decided to maintain her ability as 'Head Revivalist'.
(Keep your piano tuned Marilyn.)
Rhonda leaves her purposeful ability to Jane Weeks.
(Slow down and live longer Jane.)
Brenda leaves her cool, calm, and collected quietness to N. Casey.
(Cool it, Nancy.)
Sally wishes to leave her honored title of Student Nurse of the Year to any deserving underclassman.
'Bomber' will share her beatnick ideals with any 'non-conformist'.
Betty decided to take her domestic abilities with her for future reference.
(Any domestic ideas will be appreciated, right, B.T.?)
Dianne leaves her relaxed posture to all freshmen.
(At ease girls)
Linda leaves her box of bandaides to anyone who falls through skylights.
Nancy leaves part of her ability to handle people to Lorraine Rand.
Sue leaves her share of American Tel. & Tel. to anyone whose boyfriend lives in New York.
Sara leaves her ability to evaluate to all of our instructors.
Patty leaves her last minute rides to anyone who wants to leave in a hurry.
Judy leaves her "alarm clock" to anyone who can sleep through it.
Gail leaves her "sweetheart" pillow cases to Ward A.
(Just in case they run low.)
Wilma leaves her scales to anyone else who can diet successfully.
Opal leaves her conversational ability to Ann Perreault.
(Keep talking Annie!)
Jo leaves her questions to anyone with answers.
