HUSSON LEDGER

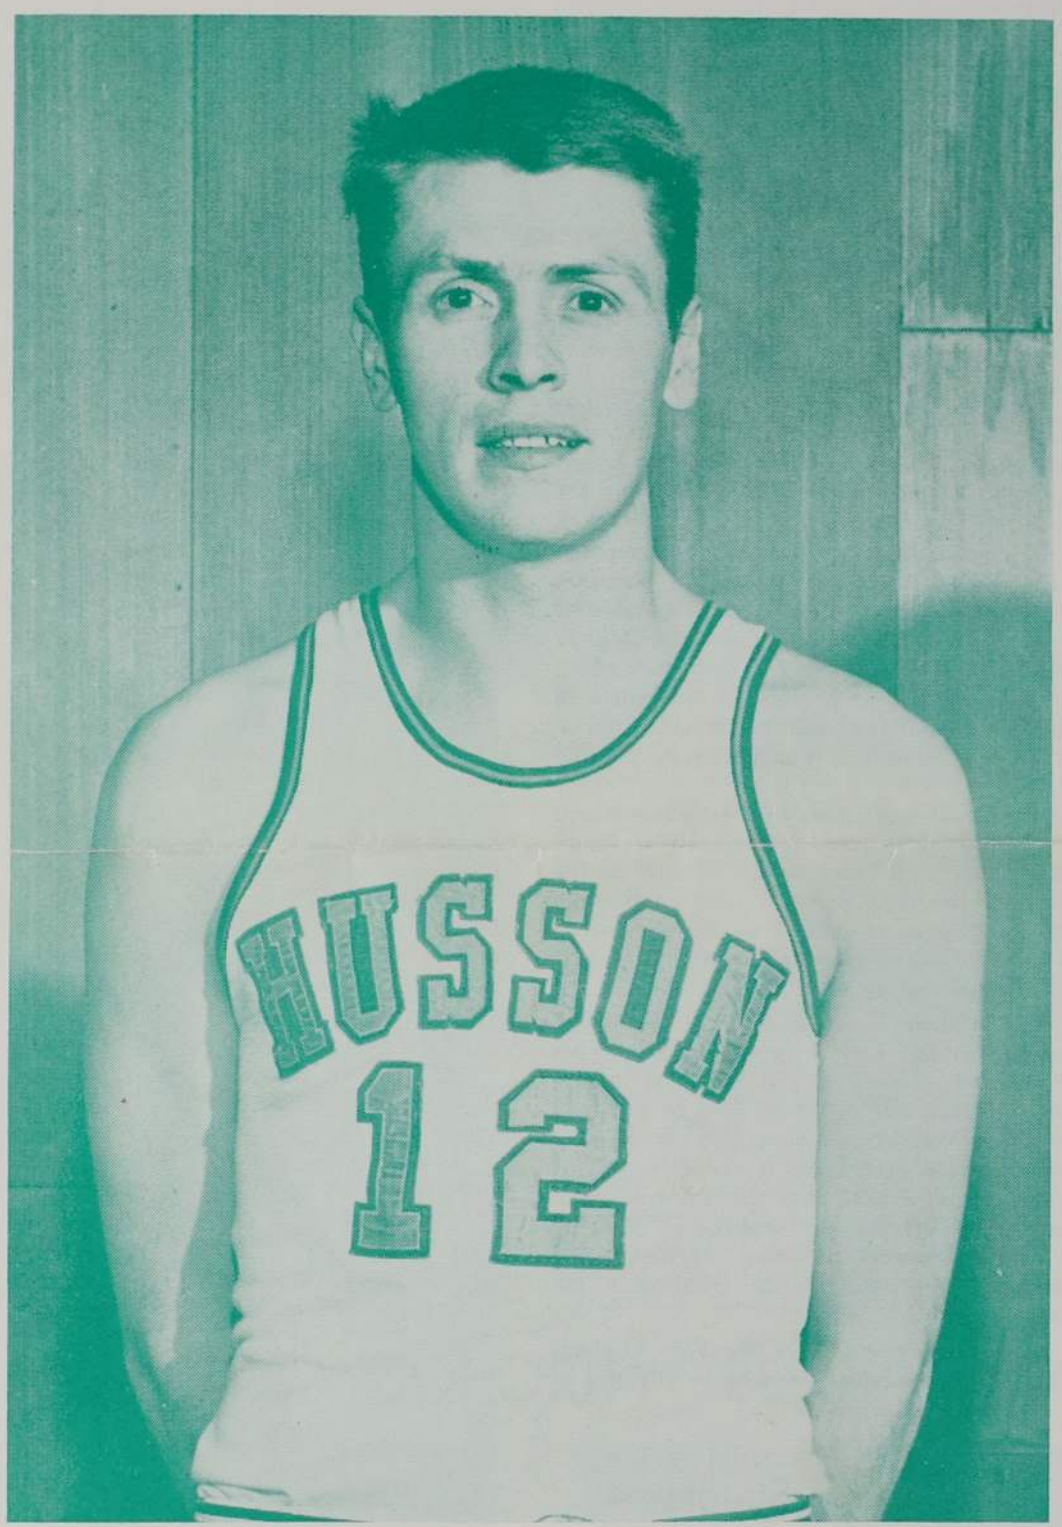

JANUARY, 1962 | HUSSON COLLEGE, BANGOR, MAINE | VOLUME 37, NO. 2

Paul Boardway Blue Nose Classic Choice

Paul Boardway, the first Husson Varsity Basketball player to be named to an all-tourney team, had the honor of being chosen for the All-tourney team at the Blue Nose Classic in Halifax, N. S. "Brother" Paul is a junior in the Business Education Department.

Paul is an active member of Kappa Delta Phi Fraternity.

The student body congratulates Paul and wish him continued success on the "floor."

PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

This is a happy time of year. Thanksgiving is now history and the services provided by Chaplain Dartnell and Mr. Fort remain pleasant memories. The time taken from busy classroom schedules to get in touch with the season is well invested. It is good for us all to acknowledge our thanks for the life we live at home, in college, and in the great land that expresses a simple faith in the words "in God we trust."

Christmas may also be history by the time you read this issue of the Ledger. Right now I look forward to the excitement of Christmas shopping, the wrapping of presents, sending cards, and enjoying the family. Like many other homes we will miss the departed one but we will have him in our hearts, and this means he will be with us.

For those who decry Christmas because it is "commercialized" I feel a great pity. I taught a course in Salesmanship for many years, and one of the strongest appeals that can be made to a buyer is to offer him a service or article that would please a loved one. All of us warm to the thought of making a loved one happy, of exciting their pleasure with our solicitous attention and concern. Thus it is that I accept a Christmas gift and I present one. I care. I care for the one to whom my gift is sent. I feel that in the gift that I receive that someone cares. That, my friends of all ages, is Christmas.

The perfect example, of course, was the gift of Christ to us all. God gave His son that we might have everlasting life, another great gift. And the son gave His life for the same purpose. It is no wonder that love dominates the season, and I thank the merchants whose attractive displays help us find suitable gifts for those we love.

The New Year is upon us, and it asks us to take a new look at ourselves—what we are doing (or not doing) and what we are thinking. At the end of the first quarter a number of students were placed on probation. They failed to maintain the grade-point average established for their semester's study. It was a taste of failure, and how unpleasant it was. And, in so many instances, unnecessary.

A student in this category may do one of two things; quit and disappoint his plans, his friends, his parents; or apply himself with new vigor and realize that he's here to work rather than to be entertained. The instructors are taskmasters, not entertainers. There is work to be done by both parties. Once this fact is accepted we all move forward to that happy day when the work is rewarded, and beyond. The college degree is merely a recognition that the classroom phase is done. It signifies, however, that its owner is a worker and that the world he enters will reward him for the continuity of his working habits. I won't hire lazy people. Nor would the graduate himself. We cannot expect the world to be good to us unless we be good to it. And the best training for us, in my opinion, is to experience failure and use it as a springboard to increased activity and concern.

We can use the New Year as a starting point for a few resolutions that will propel us forward. Make a few and stick by them. There is one that I wish all of you would make and that is to resolve that you will never enter a classroom unprepared. This you owe to yourself since it is you who pays the bills, you who invest not only money but time. Think about it. Be a smart investor and get your money's worth at the college counter.

Keep up your courage. It's a long haul, and a hard one, to the Easter recess. Fight your battles manfully, grumble only when alone. Some day you will be paid in your own coin, so start minting gold pieces in each and every classroom.

Mrs. Husson and I must leave you until April, but we assure you that we will be thinking of you, and wishing you well. Our pride in the growing Husson "family" is for its character as well as size, and this we want each of you to remember. Nice things happen to nice people—so keep on being the nice people you are!

Cordially,
"Chief"

Husson Places Third In Classic

For the first time in six seasons the Indians have tasted defeat before the Christmas recess.

The Indians, off to a slow start, have experienced a shooting slump. The team shooting average for the first three games was 28%. However, the Maritime Academy had the misfortune of playing Husson on the night the slump was broken. Husson, shooting 48% from the floor and setting up plays with perfection, ran over the Academy by a 100 to 83 score.

Many newcomers dot the Husson lineup this season, and they are expected to play an important role in the success of the team. They are: Tom Bouchard and Carl Brown, Millinocket; Fred Sigrist, Newport; Joe Cyr, Old Town; and Phil Gulliver, Fort Fairfield.

Lettermen who form the backbone of the Indians are:

Jim McKay, Bar Harbor; Paul Boardway, Bangor; Wayne Smith, Milo; Al Trask, Bradford; Bob Gross, Milo; John Doyle, Lewiston; and Bouncy Smith, Southwest Harbor.

The Husson Indians left January 1 for Halifax, N. S. where they competed in the Bluenose Classic College Tournament, slated for January 2 and 3. The boys gained third place in this tournament. Paul Boardway was named to the all-tournament team.

The most recent addition to the Husson roster is Karl Daigle, who has been spending his time on the books and joined the team after the Christmas holidays.

IN FLORIDA

CHIEF AND MRS. ON VACATION

V. A.

Information concerning benefits administered by the Veterans Administration may be obtained much more quickly by writing or visiting local VA Regional Offices rather than writing VA Central Office, Washington, D. C.

Specific requests for information concerning individual cases cannot be handled in Washington, VA pointed out. These must be supplied by the office where the records, files and case folders pertaining to the individual veteran are maintained.

All records of this type are kept in VA Regional Offices and inquiries about particular problems must be referred to the Regional Office having jurisdiction over the records of the veteran concerned. The VA Regional Office in Maine is located at the VA Center, Togus.

When veterans write their VA Regional Office for information, they should include their full name, complete address, birthdate, service serial number and claim number ("C" number), if they have one. This will identify the veteran and assist the VA in locating promptly papers and records sometimes needed in supplying answers to queries.

Approximately 7437 disabled veterans and dependents of some 2467 deceased veterans in Maine, who receive monthly pension payments are being reminded by the Veterans Administration to report their annual income promptly and avoid the risk of having their payments stopped.

Dr. Joseph S. Weltman, Director of the VA Center at Togus, said that VA will include with the December check to all pension recipients a tabulating card upon which the income report is made. Pensions cease under the old pension law if the income of a single individual exceeds $1400, or $2700 if the recipient has dependents.

Under the new law, Dr. Weltman pointed out, pensions will cease if the income of a single individual exceeds $1800, or $3000 if the recipient has dependents. The amount of pension may be reduced if the recipient's annual income rises from one of the lower brackets—$600 and $1200 for a single veteran or widow without dependents, and $1000 and $2000 for a veteran or widow with dependents.

Dependent parents who receive dependency and indemnity compensation also receive income questionnaires and their payments are similarly regulated by the amount of their income, Dr. Weltman added. Regulations require payment to be stopped if the income report is not returned to the VA within 30 days.

No income questionnaire is sent to veterans or widows who are receiving service-connected benefits.

Oversight on the part of many Maine veterans may deprive their families of money at a time when they need it most, the Veterans Administration warned today.

An increasing number of cases are coming to light in which proceeds from GI life insurance were paid to other than the veterans' immediate family.

In most of these cases, it can be presumed that the veteran, through carelessness, failed to keep his VA listing of insurance beneficiaries up-to-date.

Maine veterans holding GI insurance policies were urged to notify VA immediately of any desired changes in beneficiaries to match the changes in family status occasioned through marriages, divorces, births, or deaths.

The VA is required by law to pay GI insurance proceeds to the beneficiary of record, whether or not that beneficiary still is in any way connected with the veteran.

In many cases, the beneficiaries of record are the same ones the policyholder named when they took out their policies, even though they have since married and now have families.

If any of these policyholders should die today, VA would have to pay the GI insurance proceeds to the beneficiaries of record, instead of to the veteran's widow or children.

Changes of beneficiaries can be made at any time without notifying the beneficiaries, but they must be made in writing over the policyholder's signature and beneficiaries of record under the law.

Legal custodians or guardians of war orphans were reminded by Dr. Joseph S. Weltman, Center Director of the Veterans Administration's Togus office, of the importance of planning the child's high school or secondary school program as early as possible, in order that an adequate foundation will be provided for a program of education which may be pursued later.

War Orphans are those children whose parent died of a service-connected disease or injury incurred or aggravated in line of duty during active service, and generally must be between 18 and 23 years of age. They may receive up to 36 months of schooling, with VA paying an allowance of up to $110 a month.

War Orphans handicapped by a physical or mental disability may be provided special types of training as early as age 14. Others who have dropped out of school may be provided vocational courses as soon as the age of compulsory school attendance is passed.

Dr. Weltman said, that the VA counseling staff will assist the war orphans in planning a college or vocational school program. This assistance will ordinarily be given after the junior year in high school.

Further information on the War Orphans Educational Assistance Act may be obtained at the nearest VA office.

PHIL IS HAPPY !

We have quite the hunter at Husson this year. Good old Phil came through with a good sized buck! Congratulations, Phil.

Phil Inforati is a junior majoring in business Administration. Phil shot his buck in Brooks, Maine with a 32 Special rifle. How many times did you have to shoot, Phil? The eight point buck weighed 214 pounds dressed which qualified Phil for the Biggest Buck Club in Maine.

Not only is Phil a great hunter, he is also a member of the Registered Maine Guide Association.

MEMBERSHIP IN THE "BIG BUCKS CLUB"

Mu Sigma Chi Affiliates With Pi Rho Zeta International

Mu Sigma Chi

The 1961-62 school year already has seen Mu Sigma Chi accomplish great things. Among the many things the fraternity has done this year was to join Pi Rho Zeta, an international co-educational organization, sponsor the annual Christmas Ball, and elect a new slate of officers. At present, the fraternity is in the process of incorporating.

Every member of Mu Sigma Chi is very proud to have the opportunity to be affiliated internationally with Pi Rho Zeta, one of the fastest growing college organizations, both stateside and outside the continental boundaries of the United States. January 16 is a big date for us. The international President of Pi Rho Zeta will be here to formally initiate us.

This year, as always, the Christmas Ball was the highlight of the first semester at Husson College for all the students. Due to the increase in enrollment here at the college, the Dance was held at the Brewer Auditorium. Plans are already in progress for a much bigger and better minstrel show, one that is sure to keep all you students splitting your sides with laughter and glee and leave you wide-eyed with amazement. Be sure to get your tickets early from any Mu Sigma Chi brother.

On Tuesday evening, January 2nd, 1962, Mu Sigma Chi Fraternity, a chapter of Pi Rho Zeta International, met at Husson College to elect new officers for 1962. The slate of new officers elected was led by the election of Leo Loiselle of Lewiston as the new President, with Andrew Caswell of Bangor as Vice President. The new Secretary is Peter Predaris of Bangor, and the assistant Secretary is Vernon Flood of Bangor. Benjamin Welch of Brewer was elected Treasurer. Sergeant at arms for 1962 is Robert Welch of Millinocket. Richard Hawksley of Blaine was chosen to represent the fraternity as Public Relations Officer for the ensuing year.

Other officers for 1962 includes David Booker of Bangor as Chaplain, Charles Renski of Cherryfield as Parliamentarian and George Christakos of Bangor as the new Marshal. Re-elected for the second time as representative to the Student Council was Louis Abbotoni of Waldoboro.

As a result of the fraternity going international, progress for incorporation was begun immediately. A board of directors comprised of seven members was set up to ensure a quick and adequate incorporation, headed by the acting President of the fraternity, Leo Loiselle. Other officers includes Louis Abbotoni, Vice President, Charles Guiggey, Secretary and Albert Morgues as Treasurer. Other members are Richard Hawksley, Peter Predaris and Gary McEntee.

Delta Sigma Delta

Much activity was evidenced by the Delta Sigma Delta girls in their attempt to earn money for their sorority outfits. Due to circumstances beyond their control, the well planned car wash had to be cancelled because of rain. To compensate for the car wash, Delta Sigma Delta had a food sale at the Columbia Market in December. The food sale was a big success because of the hard work of all the members.

A Christmas party was held in December for all the Sorority members and the pledgees. The gifts were exchanged and were arranged under a decorated Christmas tree.

Following the end of the first quarter, 50 girls wre invited to join Delta Sigma Delta Chapter, Pi Rho Zeta. Thirty-two girls accepted their bids and were under strict observance for a month. Informal initiation, which was held January 5, proved to be a hilarious success. Formal initiation was held Sunday evening, January 7, 1962.

Our new Sorority sisters are as follows: Ethel Adams, Perry; Sharon Beede, Bangor; Audrey J. Bevan, Bucksport; Katherine A. Bird, Rockland; Cecile Bosse, Caribou; Sandra Bryan, Bangor; Nathalie Burnett, Brewer; Donna B. Coombs, Stonington; Henrietta Coulombe, Bangor; Judith M. Dobbins, Newport; Ruth Durgin, Jenesboro; Catherine Talasco, Bath; Martha Farwell, Falmouth; Sharon Flanders, Lincoln Center; Beverly Fronke, Farmington; Sandra Frost, Bangor; Carole Gardner, Orono; Brenda Glenn, Minto, New Brunswick; Joyce Hamilton, Bangor; Dolores Johnson, Lucerne-in-Maine; Rachel Kyle, Orono; Brenda Lancaster, Millinocket; Frances Madore, Van Buren; Ruthanne Seekins, Stockston Springs; Audrey Simpson, Camden; Anne Roberts, Bangor; Meredith Thomas, Dover-Foxcroft; Barbara Titcomb, Houlton; Lea Welch, Bangor; Roberta Wheelock, Fairfield; Marilyn Wilbur, Rockland.

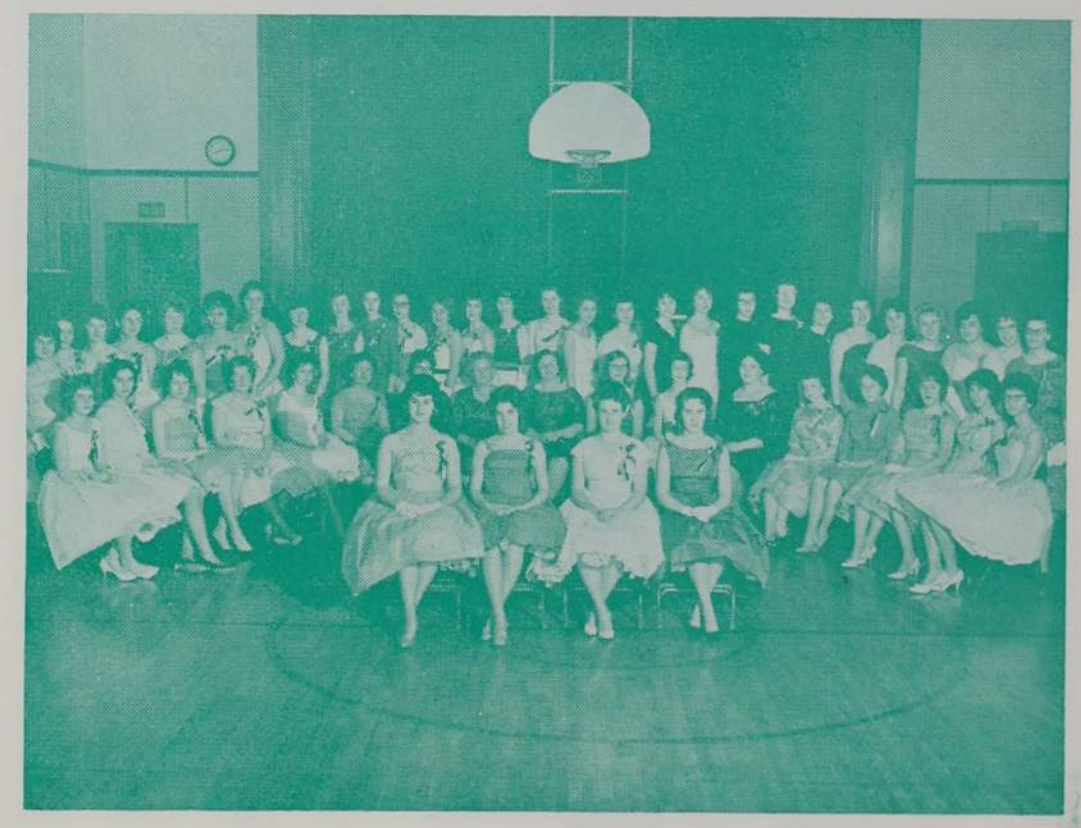

Honorary memberships were bestowed on: Mrs. Hazel Connors, Orrington; Nancy Anne Hogan, Bridgton; Mrs. Richard Howell, Bangor.

MISS THEDA STARK
GIRLS' COACH
UNIV. of WYOMING
DEPARTMENT of
PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The Husson College ladies' basketball coach, Theda Stark, who looks more like a beauty contestant than a tutor among the sneaker set, leads her team back to the court this week with a 2-1 record following Christmas vacation.

The Husson team has defeated girls' varsity squads from Morse Memorial High in Brooks (twice, 80-40 and 58-16), lost to an Alumni team 55-53 and now enters the bulk of its 10-game schedule.

The Husson ladies will play teams from Hampden Academy, Presque Isle, Bucksport and Hodgdon in the remaining games. Included is a two-day trip into Aroostook County, scheduled Jan. 12-13.

Miss Stark, a 1960 graduate from the University of Wyoming, is in her first coaching season at Husson, having replaced Miss Janet Kinney who for three seasons handled the head coaching duties.

The team has scoring potential in the front court with Nancy Elliott (Ashby, Mass.), Carlene Perrin (Sherman Mills) and Sheila Fernald (Millinocket) accounting for 189 points in three games. Miss Elliott leads the individual scorers with a healthy 26.6 points per game average. Miss Perrin has a 21.0 mark and Miss Fernald a 15.3.

Other squad members and their respective home towns include: Betty Early, Dover-Foxcroft; Elaine Goodwin, Madison; Rebecca Blood, Belfast; Alice Tracy, Mt. Desert; Jacquelin Emerson, Corinna; Luere Hodgkins, Bar Harbor; Mavis Churchill, Washburn; Ruth Anne Seekins, Stockton Springs; Linda McKinnon, Bar Harbor; Mary Jane Bruce, Norridgewock; manager Leah Kearney, Mars Hill; and scorer Linda McNeal, Bar Harbor.

The remainder of the schedule includes: Jan. 10 Hampden Academy at Brewer Auditorium (6:00 P.M.); Jan. 12 at Presque Isle High School; Jan. 13 at Hodgdon High School; Feb. 2 at Hampden Academy; Feb. 3 Hodgdon High School at Brewer Auditorium (1:30 P.M.); Feb. 7 Bucksport High School at Brewer Auditorium (6:00 P.M.); Feb. 10 Presque Isle High School at Brewer Auditorium (1:30 P.M.).

Intramurals

All women at Husson College who were interested in an Intramural program met at the College Thursday, December 7.

This meeting was for the purpose of determining the sports which would be offered in the program.

The girls decided on volleyball, basketball, and badminton.

The Intramural Program will officially start on January 12 from 7 to 8:30 in the Husson Gym. The second and fourth Thursday nights have been set aside for this program.

Each student who participates in the Intramural Program will be presented an award at the Awards Assembly at the end of the school year.

Cheering

Whenever the Indians are seen on the court, the Husson cheerleaders are not far away. The group includes: Captain Bernice Ross, Bangor; Phyllis Chase, Milo; Janice Sawyer, Brewer; Nancy Gravelle, Bucksport; Faith Mishow, Unity; Linda Smith, Charleston, N. H.; Lea Welsh, Bangor; and substitutes Kathy Marsden, Turner and Frances Donaher, Worcester, Mass.

The girls have new white sweaters with the Husson "H" and new megaphones.

The cheerleaders have travelled to the Washington State, Ricker, and Maine Maritime games as well as to the first home game with New Brunswick. Their official debut of the season was at the November 30 rally before the Ricker game.

The cheerleaders are doing a fine job, but they would appreciate more of an audience to help them cheer on the Indians to a very successful season.

Men's Intramurals

Intramural basketball began Tuesday, December 5, at 2:30 with the Pete Predaris's playing Kappa Delta Phi. Kappa Delta Phi won the game 48-30.

With eight games having been played, there are three teams with identical records of two wins and no losses. These teams are the "Indians," captained by Bruce Soderholm and Frank Apple, the "Rebels" captained by Charles Guiggey, and Kappa Delta Phi coached by Phil Inforati.

There are nine teams in the league with seventy-two players involved. Some of the teams do not have their full roster of players, which is ten. All the teams must carry at least seven players on their roster. This is to prevent forfeits, if possible.

Competition is starting to get keener as the teams are beginning to work together better.

The intramural games are played on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 2:30 and 3:30 in the gym.

The students on the intramural teams and others interested in the games have been doing a good job of score keeping. This includes running the scoreboard, and keeping the official scorebook.

Officiating of the ball games has been well handled by Varsity basketball players, and "Bouncy" Sirois, who fills in when Varsity players are not available to officiate.

PROJECT COMMITTEE which deals with fulfilling certain problems that come up. The furniture and fans in Dickerman Lounge and the blazers for the basketball boys are results of this committee's work. Jim McKay, Chairman, Dick Southard, Kevin Hamlin, Dick Harnum, and Pam McKelvey.

SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE which deals with the awarding of scholarships to a worthy student in each department. John Donovan, Chairman, Phil Inforati, Jim Carlisle, Bill Bowler, and Dave Boynton.

STUDENT SENATE COMMITTEE which has the task of checking into the matter of the Council becoming nationally accredited. Mike Mossler, Chairman, Ed Libby, Barbara Stevens, Ron Willette, and Walter Shanley.

The Student Council has a year full of problems ahead of it; and, if everyone cooperates, this 1961-62 school year may be more successful than last year was. It's up to each and everyone of you. Students, keep the tables in the gym clean, please; and, Council members, attend the meetings and work in the store even if one period a week is all you can contribute.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club met at John Bapst High School on Wednesday, November 29 under the supervision of Father O'Donnell. The Newman Club Vice President, Phil Roy, was appointed Student Council representative. Following the evening's discussion, refreshments were served by some of the mothers of Newman Club members in the Bangor area.

In the near future several of our members plan to attend a Newman Club meeting at the University of Maine. This will not only be interesting, but will enable us to pick up a few pointers on how we can develop the best Newman Club possible.

The Newman Club is a new club at Husson this year and has developed very well in the few weeks it has been organized. There are about thirty active members at the present time, and it is the desire of the club to have many more members. Anyone who is interested in joining the Newman Club is more than welcome to attend our next meeting. Our meetings are held every third Tuesday of the month. We hope to see you there.

S. E. A.

At the last S. E. A. meeting, we had as our guests Senorita Catalina Roderiguez and Senorita Novella Roderiguez from Tegucigalpa, Honduras. They were accompanied by their brother-in-law, Senor Juan Martin of Dow Air Force Base. These young ladies are attending Bangor High School to improve their English and French. Questions were asked by the S. E. A. members about the culture, education, and economic aspects of Honduras and the girls answered in Spanish, with Mr. Perakis interpreting.

Karl McGaw, Phil Inforati, Peggy Brewer, and Judy Otis attended the Maine Student Education Association Convention in Augusta which was held November 18.

That's all for now. We'll be SEAING you at S. E. A.

CHIEFTAIN

Early in November the Student Education Association held a meeting for all students interested in joining the Chieftain staff. At this time the following editors were elected: Editor-in-chief, Karl McGaw; Assistant Editors, Peter Lucas and Peter LaMarche; Advertising Editor, Lois Cross; Production Editor, Carol Worden; Senior Editor, Phyllis Chase; Underclass Editor, Nancy Gravelle; Sports Editor, John Donovan; Activities Editor, Peggy Jo Brewer; Copy Editor, Helen Colby; Photographer, Ron Willette; Art Editors, Laurene Blodgett and Christine Demko; Typists, Brenda Grace and Starlene Sewell; Business Manager, Patricia Bailey.

The 1962 edition of the CHIEFTAIN will have a "new look". There will be a complete change from beginning to end and this includes the cover and size, too. Anyone wishing to help any of the above editors please let them know that you are willing to do your share in editing your college yearbook.

Y. R. C.

On November 27, 1961 the second meeting of the Young Republicans' Club was held, and the following officers were elected.

President—John Cochrane
Vice-President—James Hansen
Secretary—Sharon French
Publicity Agent—Frank Smith
Student Council—William Blaisdell

At the meeting it was decided that the Constitution of the Club would be redrawn and that copies would be made to be put on file.

Frank Smith is responsible for contacting speakers for the meetings.

John Cochrane announced that he will start immediately to plan trips for the Club to take. He hopes to be able to make three trips available for Club members.

There is now a drive on for new members. This Club meets once a month and will be working with almost all new members, as graduation took a great part of the members last June.

DRAMA

As the Ledger goes to press, final preparations are being made by the Husson Players for the February 14 and 15 production of "Ondine".

The play, which enjoyed a lengthy run on Broadway in the mid 1950's, is sponsored by the sororities and fraternities at the college.

A cast of twenty-nine and a crew of fifteen are working in several separate parts of the city, constructing scenery, erecting lights and producing sound tracks, in addition to running through lines and actions in Dickerman Lounge.

Several outside experts have been retained by the Husson Players to aid in the production of "Ondine". Frank Narnatonis, a noted artist, is designing the set, Neil Sawyer, authority on stage lighting, is setting a light design for the show, Sid Dahlquist, former director of the Part-Time Players is the technical director. In addition, Polly Lynch Thomas is consulting on the dance sequences for "Ondine".

The play promises to be the biggest theatrical undertaking in the history of Husson College and a show which will please all.

Those in the cast include: Sue Stone, Jon Paisley, Elizabeth Smith, Herb Hopkins, Jeannine Vaillancourt, Terry Weymouth, John Kershules, Nat Burnett, Joyce Ryder, Val Fowler, Erwin Pecker, Bill Pushard, Jan Sawyer, Bernice Ross, Sheila Ouillette, Judy Otis, Frank Sprague and Chet Clark.

The stage and lighting crews included: Lee Cottman, Dave Cole, Carl Blaisdell, Kevin Hanlon, Larry Homsted, Fred Murch, Ed Baker.

Tickets for the show may be purchased after January 15, from any member of the sororities and fraternities.

KAPPA DELTA PHI

Two of our brothers just returned from the national council meeting of Kappa Delta Phi. The meeting was held in Boston at the Hotel Touraine. The brothers attending the meeting were Dick Crandell and Fred Astle. It was announced at the council meeting that the national convention this year will be held in New Haven, Conn. in April of 1962. All alumni that are interested in attending the national convention are urged to get in touch with John Field, Vice President, Lampda Chapter, Kappa Delta Phi, Husson College.

Howard Foley, the fraternity's attorney, has just informed us that our corporate charter has cleared through the State of Maine's Attorney General, and that we are now a legal corporation. Mr. Foley also informed us that the by-laws are in the process of being drawn up and incorporated into our charter.

The new T. V. raffle turned out to be a big success and we wish to thank everybody that bought tickets on the set. The winner of the T.V. was Mrs. Fred Getchell, Joe Paul's mother-in-law!

Kappa Delta is very proud to announce that six members of the varsity basketball squad are brothers of Kappa. We certainly wish them well this season.

The Bigger They Are . . .

A resident of Cape Canaveral, Florida, was on his first visit to the nation's capital. Viewing the Washington Monument, he remarked, "They'll never get that off the ground!"

Bangor, Maine
Dear Miss Swan:

I would appreciate it if you would express my thanks to the two Sororities for the money which they sent for a needy family for Christmas. I wish to thank you personally for your donation.

The money was combined with that from Altrusa Club of Bangor, to make a Merry Christmas for a family of four children, whose mother went to the sanitorium three weeks before Christmas. Not only did your gift make the children extremely happy, but the gifts were taken to the Central Maine Sanitorium for the mother to see before they were wrapped. I firmly believe that this was better therapy for her disease than all the medications, etc., which she could take at this time.

Thank you again for your kindness.

Happy New Year.

Sincerely,
Priscilla R. Graham, R. N.
Director of Public Health Nursing

ROVING REPORTER

Biography of VERONICA YUSKIEWICZ

EARLY YEARS: I was born at Selfridge AFB, Michigan. Attended first two years of school in Virginia, in 1939 my father received orders transferring him and the family to Hickam AFB, Hawaii. We left New York, sailed through the Panama Canal, stopped off at Panama and thirty days later reached Hawaii. After the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor in December 1941, a bomb had been dropped in the center of the new swimming pool which my sister and I had waited patiently for months to be finished; we were evacuated to the United States, my father remaining. We lived in Massachusetts, then moved to California where my father joined us, after completing three years of duty overseas. He was later transferred to Oregon and then Washington.

HIGH SCHOOL: We were transferred to Carswell AFB, Texas in 1946. I attended Mt. Carmel Academy, Ft. Worth, Texas and graduated in 1950. Shortly after graduation, I entered the WAF's, United States Air Force and received my basic training at Lackland AFB, Texas and was stationed at McClellan AFB, California. I attended night classes held on the base from Sacramento Junior College and received my first year of college credits. I was transferred in 1953 to Ft. Myer, Virginia and worked in the Pentagon for 2 years. I received an honorable discharge as a S/Sgt. in December 1954.

CIVILIAN LIFE: After discharge from the service, I attended Riverside College in Riverside, California receiving my A. A. degree. I transferred to Immaculate Heart College in Los Angeles to major in Business Administration and attended one semester. Due to financial strain, I went to work for a period of time.

In 1959, my father retired from the Air Force completing 32 years of service, my sister graduated from Incarnate Word College in San Antonio, Texas with a Bachelor's degree in Nursing. I became engaged to T/Sgt. Daniel J. Yuskiewicz, a Flight Engineer stationed at March AFB, California.

In July 1960, he was transferred to Dow AFB, Maine. Anxious to continue my education, I wrote him to inquire if there were any colleges in the vicinity of Bangor, Maine. He answered by writing "That having made several inquiries, there is an excellent business college located in the city of Bangor, Husson College. It is a four year college which gives the Bachelor of Science degree." To my delight I wrote the Veterans' Administration at Togus, Maine whether I could transfer to Husson College and was advised that Husson College was highly recommended and given the name of the officials at the college whom I should confer with to be admitted.

My fiancé returned to California and we were married in September 1960. We had our honeymoon in Las Vegas, Nevada and drove to Maine, arriving September 21, 1960. After finding a place to live, I made a trip to Togus, Maine and then to Husson College and with the invaluable assistance given by Miss Clark, was enrolled in two night courses at Dow AFB, as I had received a job to work at Base Supply. After working a year and taking night courses at the same time, I was advised to enroll in school full time. Since my training allowance from the government will expire in January 1963, I hope with the help of the college and its outstanding faculty to graduate in January of 1963.

PLACEMENT

A meeting was held on October 17th of all Senior men, at which time plans for 1961-62 placement were outlined. The students were given the necessary forms to fill out for registration in the Placement Office. Robert Cowan '61 spoke to the Seniors about the opportunities of Provident Mutual Life Insurance Company, and how he obtained his position. The potential schedule of recruiting companies for 1962 is:

8th Travelers Insurance Company
9th Continental Insurance Company (America Fore)
21st General Electric Credit Corporation

April

10th Federal Housing Administration
18th Sherwin-Williams Paint Company

These companies will be recruiting junior accountants, managerial trainees, underwriters, claims adjusters, credit investigators, office managers and salesmen.

Many of the companies contacted by our Placement Office indicate that even though they are unable to visit the Husson Campus, they would welcome letters of application and resumes from Seniors. In addition, there are, on file in the Placement Office and in the Husson Library, many excellent company brochures.

The Placement Office is also busy gathering data from the employers of the 1960 graduates. Returns have been received from the following companies: Sprague Electric Company, Elmer Berg; National Life Insurance Company of Vermont, Ronald Bishop; International Harvester Company, Dudley Bourchard; Briggs Beverage, Peter Briggs; General Accounting Office, Ronald Byers; Chester Kearney & Co., Howard Carlson; Texaco, Inc., Robert Chandler; Columbia Markets, Patricia Crory; Universal C. I. T., Norman Fenlason; W. T. Grant Company, Ralph Fortier; Atwood Motors, Carleton Gerow; Freese's Department Store, Robert Good; Dun & Bradstreet, George Hamilton; Northern Chemical Industries, Charles Howard; General Accounting Office, Arthur Martin and Elwood Martin; Internal Revenue Service, Wilbur McIntyre; Manning, Maxwell, and Moore, Dale Neal; Jackson Memorial Laboratory, Robert Theriault; Great Northern Paper Company, Keith Veazie.

The men in the class of 1960 serving our Country are: Robert Crane, U. S. Air Force; Joseph Curtis, Army; Michael Ford, Army; David Young, Army. Reginald Cote, it was learned, receive his Master's Degree from Michigan State in December. The reports have been highly commendable.

The following members cannot be located, and any information as to their whereabouts may be sent to the Placement Office: Leslie Bouchard, Harry Carter, Terry Coyne, Edward Cramer, Richard Parlee, Richard Sullivan, Richard Taylor.

The responsibility of handling part-time work for men has been assigned to the Placement Office. This year the supply of men seeking part-time work outweighs the demand. On the brighter side, the outlook for June graduates seems very promising.

A closing word to alumni. We have many requests for experienced men from employers. Unless a former graduate has contacted us regarding job change, we have no way of filling these vacancies. Won't you come in today and sign up with your placement office? There is no charge for this alumni service.

60 WAYS TO IMPROVE YOUR PERSONALITY

By Esther Eberstadt Brooke

This part of the article, "60 Ways to Improve Your Personality," contains the rules of appearance.

The first rule of posture is to carry your head with an air of pride—high, chin up. Walk with that easy stride, which reflects an alert, active mind. Sitting or standing can be made the eloquent expression of our inner degree of poise. Pull up a chair in front of your mirror. Practice letting yourself down into the seat slowly and easily, with the aid of your knee muscles. Practice getting up with the upper portion of your anatomy reasonable erect. Practice standing erect so that you don't look as if you'd just about lost your battle with the law of gravity.

The dress for women would express individuality becomingly. In an office, it should be conservative, trim, "undated." Choose grays, blues, browns, black, inconspicuous prints—for office wear. Keep an eye out for line and refinement of design. Choose the simple, clever things, and you'll be right.

For office wear, avoid the easy sport clothes that were all right in the classroom. Wear pumps or oxfords—not open toes or fancy-cut shoes in the office. Don't come to the office dressed for your evening date. It looks out of place all day and you won't look fresh in it by evening, anyway. Wrap it up and change after hours when you can spruce up. It's far more subtle than advertising your affairs.

Men should wear a well-pressed suit of conservative cut and color—well-brushed, especially around the shoulders. And a clean shirt. When applying for a job, wear a hat and coat. Leather jackets, sweaters, and sport shoes are taboo for the rising young businessman. Invest in a can of shoe polish and use it. Your trousers get shiny with age but not your shoes.

Modern hygiene dictates that we women be immaculate about our person. Bright, sparkling teeth, clean fingernails, no offensive breath, or perspiration odor—these things should go without saying. Cuffs and collars, once white, should be worn only as long as they stay white. If you're not meticulous about keeping yourself crisp, attractive, neat and dainty, you're likely to care less about the looks of the work you do.

Check up on your rear view. Is your hair neat at the back? Are the seams of your stockings straight, or do they swirl drunkenly around your calves? Is your slip slipping, to reveal that too-often-glimpsed pink margin below your skirt? Are your heels run down?

Be ashamed to have less than a clear skin. Proper diet, plenty of water, proper cleansing prevent a spotty, blotchy complexion. Take a lemonade instead of a soda. Cosmetics are an aid to beauty if properly applied. Make up should not be put on by the light of a bathroom mirror, so the daylight effect is that of a peasant doll.

Frequent shampoos and hair-dos are a girl's duty to herself. A simple style that is easy to keep in order not only looks best, but it's your best bet because it's effective and economical, as well.

Don't use "gory" nail polish until after dinner. With much of the work in an office our hands are constantly on display. Hands can be beautiful. It behooves us at least to make frequent use of soap and unguent so that they will be firm, but soft and white and clean.

The men's linens must be spotless—your collar, cuffs, and handkerchief. Men can't resort to those artifices that do so much for women, but they can and must look immaculate. Theirs is that soap and water look—the mark of the well-kept potential executive.

Frequent haircuts and shampoos are a duty to yourself. Certain oily solutions seem to be the attribute of a rather large minority of young men whose long hair is brushed straight back once a day, and is thrown back with a toss of the head every five minutes thereafter.

If you smoke, scrub away every trace of yellow stain, even if you must use pumice stone.

Shave daily, please. Talcum powder, hastily applied, won't take the place of a razor. No man can risk looking for a job or starting his day's work with an excuse instead of a shave.

Scrub those fingernails. Dirt is nowhere more embarrassingly apparent than under the nails of hands which are under close observation on a desk.

Watch your figure, for it proclaims the state of your health. Proper exercise and diet will build up any normal person who has no chronic organic ailment. Self-discipline and self-denial will help the young man (or young woman) who have let themselves fatten up. Cut out candies and desserts.

These have been Mrs. Brooke's rules for appearance for both men and women. More rules in the coming issues.

RULES FOR GUARANTEEING SCHOOL'S GOOD WILL

His name is Dr. (Ph. D.) Charles L. Lapp and he is an earnest young fellow, on the staff of Washington University. His special subject is salesmanship in the broadest sense—the sense of selling the schools and their programs to the public.

A man like that, as intelligent and as dedicated and as well informed, is bound to have ideas which will help you with this phase of your job, for, you know, of course, that one of your most important obligations is to carry on that selling process yourself.

Recently D. Lapp declared that in doing this job of selling the institution two things are extremely important.

The first is: HAVE A PROPER PHILOSOPHY.

And on that he says: "A College or University staff member no longer can feel that professional proficiency is all that is expected of him as a professional educator. That is of number one importance, to be sure, and it cannot and should not be discounted in any way.

"But there is another obligation almost as important. It is the realization that each day he must help the school to win more friends, cultivate more good will. And that requires the proper philosophy—which consists of the recognition of the importance of his contribution to the school's future in the community," he concluded before going to the second point which is: ESTABLISH BETTER RELATIONS WITH OTHERS ACTIVE IN THE COMMUNITY.

Because: "A staff member who takes his place in the community alongside the banker, the lawyer, the business people, the doctors and dentists, becomes one with them, wins respect not only for himself but for the school as well.

"This is what I mean by establishing better relations in the community.

"Since we are judged by the company we keep, a person who keeps company with the community's leaders, quickly becomes regarded as a leader himself."

BANGOR MAN TAKES POST AT SEMINARY

Harold E. Hansen of Bangor has assumed his duties as business manager of Bangor Theological Seminary. He succeeds Donald S. McCobb, who served for four years in a similar capacity with the title of assistant to the president.

Hansen was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and has lived in Bangor for seven years. For two years, at Dow Air Force Base, he was a member of the U. S. Air Force.

In 1956 Hansen completed a nine-year term in the Armed Forces and was honorably discharged with the rank of technical sergeant. He then attended Husson College in Bangor for four years and was graduated in June of this year with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. For the past five years, while attending school, he has been employed part-time by the Knight Auto Sales Company here.

Hansen and his wife are members of the Grace Methodist Church of Bangor. Mrs. Hansen is employed as a teacher in the Bangor public school system.

Dear Miss Swan:

We have been meaning to write for some time; and when we received the invitation to the first homecoming, decided to sit down and write. We're sorry we weren't able to come to the homecoming. It would have been fun to see old friends and our instructors again. Hope you had a huge turnout.

We like it down here very much, but doubt if we'll make it our permanent home. We both like New England too much.

Frank likes working at the General Accounting Office very much, and they've been keeping him hopping. So far he's been at the Treasury, Post Office Dept., and the General Services Administration. At present, he's at the Bureau of Public Roads, and will be until next summer. He plans to go to night school the first of the year to study for the C.P.A. Exam. I'm going to hate taking that bus home every night, but it can't be helped. I'd never dare to drive through that tariffic.

I had no trouble finding a job here. I have been working for the General Electric Company since February, and just love it. Have four bosses, so am kept pretty busy, but it is interesting work and they are all very nice to work with. I think you ought to include a "How to Make Coffee" course along with the other Secretarial studies. That's my first duty in the morning—takes priority over everything else. I've found all of the courses I had at Husson to be very helpful, and the Secretarial Handbook is indispensable.

We live a short distance from Sandra and Dick Pelletier. Their little daughter—Michele—is adorable. Rita and Roger Furbish have a lovely home in Maryland, but it only takes about 30 minutes to drive over.

We appreciated receiving the Husson Ledger the other day. Some of the names weren't familiar, but most were and it was nice to hear what's been happening at Husson.

Sincerely yours,
Sandra (McNeal) and Frank Ackley

Dear "Chief" and Miss Swan,

Got my copy of the "Ledger" last week and was glad to get the news from Husson.

We are settled in our new home and all like it very much here. I enjoy my work and it is an ideal job for me as it does not require any walking or moving to different locations such as I would have encountered in GAO.

John and Richard seemed to make this move much easier than from Princeton to Bangor. They made friends quickly and are active in the church youth fellowships and in the Explorer Scouts Post.

We have gotten together with the Dick Pelletiers, Frank Ackleys, Phil Thibeaus several times. They all seem to like it here.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year,

Dear Friends:

Today we begin our second year in Cyprus and are still enjoying it very much. Although the island is small, we haven't seen it all yet. There are plenty of monestaries, Middle Age castles, and ancient Roman Ruins to see.

We have been to the ruins of Salamis, the city at which Saints Paul and Banabas landed when they came to Cyprus. Also at one of the monestaries, we have seen an icon of Mary supposedly painted while Jesus was still alive. It's hard to believe that some of these things are so old. Anything over a few hundred years seems old at home!

This week the Embassy is having some orientation lectures which are quite interesting. Today the Counselor of the Embassy and the Chief Judge of the Cyprus Supreme Court, who made a tour of the U. S. this summer, spoke on American Aid to Cyprus and Greek Culture and Customs. Tomorrow we'll hear about some of the Turkish customs. Most of our relationships have been with the Greeks—we have a woman come in twice a week to clean, and we went to her daughter's engagement party and wedding. They served a four course meal to about three hundred people and thought nothing of it. The wedding celebration lasted for three days!

I've had it in mind for several months to write up some kind of article about Cyprus for the Ledger, but we have been on the go so much during th summer that it just hasn't got put down on paper yet. Maybe during the winter evenings I'll get ambitious.

Hope school is going well this year. We were very sorry to hear about Mr. Husson's son from the newspaper account that was sent to us.

Yours sincerely,
Benjamin Blodgett

Dear Mr. Husson:

I am applying for a job with the U. S. Government and need a copy of my grades (transcript) to forward with my application.

I think the last time you heard from us was when we were stationed in Nicosia, Cyprus. We certainly enjoyed our tour of duty and took advantage of being there by traveling to Jerusalem and Cairo. We are now back and extremely pleased with the good old U.S.A. Now, or I should say, November 10 we shall move into a cute brick home in Falls Church, Virginia, which we are buying.

Thank you for forwarding my transcript.

Your world traveler,
Juanita M. Adams (Thompson)

Dear "Chief",

I imagine things 'on campus' are going at a rapid pace about now in preparation for mid-years and the up-coming holiday festivities. Do hope you'll extend my best wishes to the "Husson Family".

As you've no doubt gathered by now, I'm located in one of the most beautiful cities in America. San Francisco, with its majestic bridges, cosmopolitan atmosphere, and cultural background, really has so much to offer. I truly think the Chamber of Commerce has a selling point here.

Vocationally, I'm now undergoing a training program here at P & O which looks very promising in the personnel administration department. Although our parent company, which is located abroad, dates back to the early 1800's, P & O in North America is comparably new—just incorporating in 1959. With only our two offices—Los Angeles and San Francisco—at present there is ample room for expansion. At the present time, Cunard Lines (Alden Head in Bangor) represents us in the East, but talk has it of our own offices eventually locating in the East as well, so you can readily see the opportunity that very well may prevail.

Enough on my status . . . how have you been? I seriously hope that you are delegating the many tasks before you and not bearing the total burden as you have for so long in the past.

Best regards,
Terry Coyne

My Dear Mrs. Lowe and Mrs. Saba:

I have intended to write you sooner, but good old Uncle Sam has other plans when it comes to my spare time. Now, let me light up a Marlboro and I'll stop wasting your valuable time. You can stop slapping the slices of bread for just a minute, can't you???? Now, I'm all set.

Well, here I am in my sixth week of basic training and I have only two weeks and a half remaining—I cannot say that I have been having an enjoyable time, but neither have I been miserable. The weather has been unbelievably warm and here's hoping it continues.

I often think of you all and I have so many memories from last year.

I had a fantastic summer at Ogunquit. Never before have I met so many kind and wonderful people.

I arrive home the 23 of this month for two weeks and then head for Indianapolis, Indiana for O.C.S. school! Or in hopes to go abroad following his training.

I have met a wonderful lad from France who has been in this country for two years. He is one of the most outstanding fellows I have ever met. He has a remarkable command of the English language along with four others. A most sincere fellow is he and I hope I shall have the opportunity to meet others like him during the next three years. I am in hopes to go abroad and work after completing my obligation! I think it would be a truly wonderful experience.

Well, I shall make this short as there is so very little to write of interest. Keep the bread fresh and I hope to see you both over the holidays.

Warmest regards,
John Thomas
