JUNE, 1958 HUSSON COLLEGE, BANGOR, MAINE VOLUME 33, NO. 4

GOOD LUCK, SENIORS!

President's Column

This is good-bye for 1958. Another school year becomes history, and over a hundred young men and women will carry their Husson colors into a new way of life. We shall miss them.

Today's world demands from each of us our full competence. It wants the biggest contribution that we can make of our individual talents, and our training. It asks our best. The Russian Bear paws at the door and he respects but one thing—strength. Our strength in planes, bombs, submarines, and in know-how, keeps him from breaking down the door and destroying the American way of life.

I feel good, therefore, to witness the Husson contribution to our economy. One hundred young men and women, trained to do an excellent job in the field of their interest, will enter the world with courage and determination. They are but a drop in the bucket, but their total contribution will make itself felt. The other colleges and universities, each contributing a portion of new blood for industry, commerce, and the professions join with me in a tribute to youth, and a warm wish for its prosperity and happiness ahead. The better trained it is, the better prepared it is to meet the problems of tomorrow.

Sputnik created quite a stir. The cry-babies started to weep at the deplorable conditions in our schools, and the students were accused of studying the wrong things, or the useless things. Education was held up to ridicule. Our youth was called names enough to warrant jail sentences if there were truth in the accusations. 'Twas ever thus.

I hold today's youth in high regard. If they aren't studying the right things, it is because they weren't given two important ingredients, direction and inspiration. They will listen to reason and embark upon careers for which they are suited if properly counseled. They are easily inspired by anyone who makes an honest and real appeal to them. They want to succeed —as all intelligent people do. The failure, if any, is on the part of the adults who are too busy, too indifferent, too tired to begin and maintain a program of interest in youth. Parents are included in this group. They are too often disillusioned by a few early failures and give up the ghost too soon. Thus it is that the teachers in our nation's schools have the tremendous burden of bringing youth to full competence, inspired to meet the challenges of life. These teachers must themselves be inspired, and, above all, dedicated. I find many such, and I pray that more and more will join their ranks. They are needed now and tomorrow as our population welcomes 4,000,000 little citizens every twelve months.

The youth in our school have a purpose in life. They have selected their courses and proceed slowly at first (this I admit) but they gather steam as they mature, and the upper classmen assure me by their application and diligence that we need not worry about them. College is a way of life and when early adjustments are made, youth surges to the top and scores well. Mistakes? Of course they make mistakes. They do many foolish things. All are heedless at times, forgetful. All have aimless days. All have moments of despair and discouragement. But listen well, my friends, so do adults. Youth has no mortgage on human faults and frailties. It will respond if we but find and apply the right prescription. Let's play doctor and help the cause.

To the graduates we say, "Bon voyage—happy sailing." May each of you find a full measure of happiness and challenge. May the world outside these doors prove interesting and rewarding. You will find what you look for, so keep busy. To those who will return next fall, we say good-bye for the moment and wish you a happy summer.

As for the Hussons, young Roy will marry Betsy Kline, Class of '58, on June 28, so a trip to Washington is indicated. Then Mrs. Husson and I will head for our retreat at Green Lake for a bit of rest. A blessing on you all.

Cordially,
Chief

A mother who wanted to help her ten-year-old with her reading was told flatly by the girl's teacher: "You'll only retard her progress if you teach her yourself."

"Perhaps," replied the mother. "But will it be all right for me to read her diploma to her when she graduates?"—American School Board Journal.

Two small girls brought home a box full of dirt the other day and warned their mother to be very careful of it. "All right," she promised. "But tell me, why is it so special?"

"Instant Mud Pies," they answered.—Walter Carss.

Another year of SEA is coming to a close. The SEA has had a very successful year.

On April 22 Mrs. Miller and some of the Seniors who have been practice teaching gave a panel discussion on teaching. This was very interesting and enjoyed by all members who were present.

On May 3, Paul Maroon, Richard Martin, Janis Sprague, Janice Day, Elaine Roundy, and Mr. Wright attended the SEA State Convention in Augusta. The meeting was from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. At noon a ham lunch was served to the group.

May is Teaching Career Month. To observe this month Husson College is holding Friday, May 16, as High School Day. Each member of SEA is to invite a guest from their hometown high school.

The annual outing of the SEA will be held Sunday, May 18 at Sebec Lake. Each member may bring a guest, if they wish. Free refreshments will be served. Virginia Churchill is Chairman; Marjorie Cummings and Richard Moody are on the recreation committee for this picnic.

Teaching Career Day was held recently at Husson College. This is a national program sponsored by the National Education Association through College chapters of the Student Education Association. The purpose of the program is to encourage capable high school seniors to enter the teaching profession.

The high school pupils visited with members of the SEA, visiting their classes, observing campus life, and becoming acquainted with a typical day in the life of an education student. Luncheon was served in Commerce Hall, where President Husson spoke on the advantages of entering the teaching profession.

Those in attendance were Barbara Abbott and Miriam Chase, Higgins Classical Institute, guests of Marjorie Cummings; Elaine Smith, Higgins Classical Institute, guest of Virginia Churchill; Priscilla Brown, Dover-Foxcroft, guest of Rosalie Green; Evangeline Garrett, Foxcroft Academy, guest of Janis Sprague; and Wanita Herrick, and Lorraine Carter of Stevens Academy, Blue Hill, guests of Diane Allen.

Other guests included Paul Maroon, President of SEA, and James L. Wright, Adviser of the Chapter.

Kappa Delta Phi

A game night was held in April by Kappa Delta Phi in order to raise funds for their annual trip to Boston. A sizeable group attended the evening of fun, and a variety of games were played. The high winner for the evening was Jeff Jowdry.

The fraternity went to Boston to attend the 52nd Annual Convention held at the Hotel Touraine. The guest speaker for the occasion was Rev. Father Keating of Connecticut. Rev. Keating spoke on Juvenile Delinquency and its Causes and Cures.

For the third successive year the fraternity brought back the President's Cup. This cup was presented to President Gary Rioux, by the National President; the basis for this award is on attendance. Members of Kappa Delta Phi who attended the convention were: Gary Rioux, Gary Seavey, Gerard Picard, Charles Bears, Robert Sherman, Earle Harvey, Dana Dow, James Cyr, Richard Moody, Reginald McKenney, and William Plummer.

Robert Sherman

At a recent meeting Kappa Delta held its election of officers for the coming year, and those elected were:

Robert Sherman ..... President
Richard Hobson ..... Vice President
Gary Seavey ..... Secretary
Gerard Picard ..... Treasurer
David Edes ..... Chaplain
George Albert ..... Historian
Reginald McKenney .....
.....Student Council Representative

The cup presented at the Boston Convention was presented to the new President, Robert Sherman.

On May 21, a meeting was held at the home of Mr. Merrill, sponsor of the fraternity, and plans were formulated for the next school year. We hope it will be as rewarding as this year has been.

TEACHERS ALL

Jobs are plentiful and changes are being made in our teaching ranks. If you change positions for the year 1958-59, be sure to let us know, so that the Ledger will reach you.

Emmett Stevens of Lee goes to Schenck of East Millinocket. Madalyn Jordan of Erskine Academy will be on the faculty of Hampden Academy.

Our current crop is placed. Janice Moody and Jeannette LePage are going to teach in New Hampshire. Bernadette Daigle has joined the staff of John Bapst High School. Jim Ugone has signed at Easton High School.

Farolyn Wilson Hanscom (as of May 16) is employed by the Maine Food Plan, Inc. Darthea Hubbard Atkinson will fly to Guam to be with her husband, Steve, who is stationed in the Air Force, in Guam. She hopes to teach there this fall. Clarence Thompson is on the faculty of Fort Fairfield High School as he completed at mid-semester. Wayne Wadman is dickering at the present with Limestone. And so it is! Not even a drop in the bucket as to the number of Business Education teachers needed for this next term. It seems to us that each of you should make a personal drive to get just one of your 1958 Seniors interested in teaching Business Education, and, of course, to train at Husson.

EDITORIAL

The school year of 1958-59 is in the no too distant future and you are faced with serious problem. As educators, parents, office workers, accountants, this problem will eventually be yours. Have you given any serious thought to the teacher shortage in Maine, your home town, or in the nation? If you haven't, it is now time to consider it. You, as parents, want the very best for your children. You, as teachers, should realize the problem. Perhaps you do not appreciate that you can move today and teach anywhere you want to go!

The average beginning salary this year for a Business Education graduate from Husson is $3700—to start. In three years this means a $4,000 beginning salary for 36 weeks of actual teaching. Things are looking up. In fact, one of our five signed for $3,800 this year. Encouraging! Remember, this is better than $100 per week.

As an educator in our Maine High Schools, why don't you take it upon yourself to encourage one Senior to take an interest in Business Education from the teaching standpoint? It may pay dividends one day and you will have helped provide a capable man or woman to teach your child and other future business leaders of tomorrow!

TO THE STAFF

Husson College, Students and Faculty, President and Mrs. Husson, your Sponsor, extend sincere thanks for a tremendous piece of work all year. Your four issues have been outstanding. The coverage has been sincere and the many hours of outside work have been most profitable and most satisfying. Congratulations from all the Husson Alumni who receive this Ledger.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Another year has come to an end. The Student Council feels that it has been a very successful year for their organization.

One of the most outstanding things accomplished this year was the Student Council Loan Fund that was put into effect about the middle of the year. The Fund is for the benefit of all students who wish to apply for financial aid. Bob Theriault was named chairman of this organization and has done a fine job in setting up the program.

The Student Council also furnished the Infirmary in the new annex. Often the need arises to use the Infirmary when a student is sick during the day or an injury occurs.

More work was done on the parking lot when mud season came this spring. New gravel was hauled in to fill in the holes when the thawing and freezing made it impossible to use the driveway behind the school.

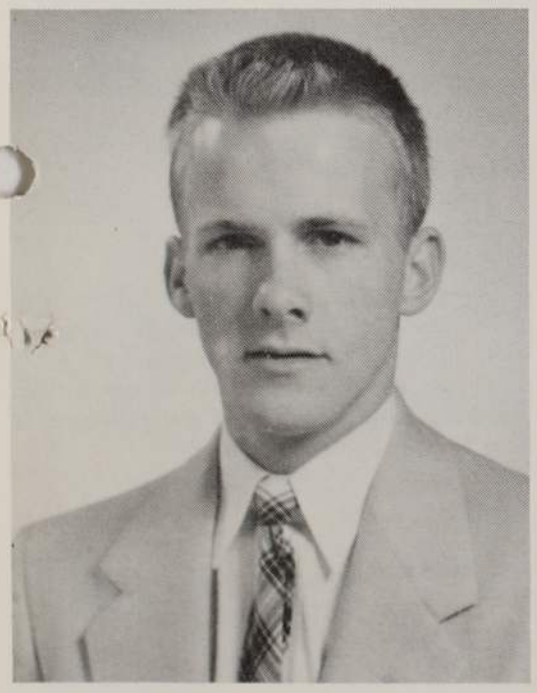

This year's boys' basketball team was very successful and at the end of the season had acquired three championships, including the Northeast College Conference, Small College Championship and State Small College Conference. The Student Council appropriated enough money so that the boys could have white jackets with green emblems, which by the way, are very good looking. We are proud of our boys and we wish them the best of luck next year.

The Chief-For-A-Day election was held recently. The five candidates and their secretaries nominated to run were Steve Bennett, Bangor, and Ruth Whittier, Winterport; Bob Perkins, Brewer, and Janice Frazier, Presque Isle; Terry Coyne, Brewer; and Sandra Hammond, Bangor; Tom Welch, Mexico, and Diane O'Donnell, Searsport; Matt Williams, Brewer, and Elaine Roundy, Benton.

The candidates did an outstanding job on their campaign skits and speeches. A lot of work was put into them, but they were enjoyed by both the students and faculty.

A dance was held to climax the week's festivities at which time it was announced that Steve Bennett had been elected as Chief For A Day. The dance was well attended and was sponsored by the Student Council. Sammy Saliba's music made the evening an enjoyable one for dancing. During intermission those attending the dance were entertained by a group of Husson musicians jazzing it up on "When The Saints Go Marching In." This group was made up of Steve Bennett, Ed Hardy, Danny French, Bob Burleigh, and Dana Thurlow.

"CHIEF"

STEVE BENNETT

Steve is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bennett of Bangor. He is Vice President of the Student Council and is also active in Mu Sigma Chi Fraternity. Ruth, his secretary, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ardane Whittier of Winterport. She is enrolled in the Secretarial Department. She showed great ability in basketball this year, and we are looking forward to having her return next year.

SECRETARY

RUTH WHITTIER

To climax this year's activities in the Student Council, a banquet was held in the Tarratine Club for the members and their guests. All those attending enjoyed a delicious turkey dinner.

Awards were awarded to President, Gary Rioux; Vice President, Steve Bennett; Secretary, Joan Nickerson; Treasurer, Robert Theriault, and Store Manager Nancy Wells. Others receiving awards were: John Rioux, Janice Day, Jean Daigle, Joe Daigle, Earle Harvey, George Albert, Robert Sherman, Bonney Lynch, Lynette Dionne, Elaine Roundy, Faul Foster, Robert McNally, Beverly Govone, Charles Bears, Jane Feeney, Juanita Inman, Sandra Hammond, Betsy Kline, Parker Cook, William Plummer, Conrad Martin, Shirley Grant, Winston Mahan, Jeannine Morrill, Roland Babbin, Dana Dow, Malcolm Kitchen, Donald Dorr, George Lausier, Alden Stuart, George Halpin, Miles Elsmore, and Arthur Everett.

Remarks were made by retiring President Gary Rioux and Faculty Adviser Mr. John Tyler.

Honored guests present were Mr. and Mrs. John Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lowe, Mr. Lee Ware, and Mr. Mitchell Finn. After the banquet, television, cards, and dancing were available upstairs.

This brings to an end another year of Student Council activities. We are looking forward to another successful year next year. Have a good summer and we will see you next September!

Small College State Champ jackets to the Varsity men: Don Vachon, Brewer; Dave Kelly, Bangor; Wayne Richards, Pittsfield; Bruce Bower, Brewer; Captain Dick Moore, Milo; Dana Dow, Mapleton; Wayne "Red" Haskell, Hermon; Wayne Smith, Milo; Bob Gross, Milo; John Dill of Hampden; Captain Bob Burleigh of Millinocket; Dick Geroux of Old Town, and Managers Charlie Bears, Millinocket; and Wayne Joy, Sullivan.

Through an error Don Vachon's and Dick Geroux's personal write-ups were omitted in the last issue of the Ledger. Vachon is an outstanding athlete, formerly of Brewer High. He was a mighty guard and when Del wanted a man pestered, Don was his choice and did a fine job. He's as fast as lightning. Currently, he's doing a fine job in baseball and will be one of Husson's finest athletes.

Dick Geroux hails from basketball town—Old Town. He played on the finest teams Old Town has ever produced. He's a mighty man on the boards and can take it and dish it out. He has only been at Husson since February. He's the catcher (and a fine one) for Husson's most successful baseball team. We're looking for great things from that boy!

V. A.

Charles A. Roberts, recently appointed Chief of the Veterans' Administration's GI loan activities in Maine, states that his office is experiencing a sharp increase in GI loan activities with private lending sources showing a re-awakened interest in the GI loan set-up.

Roberts says the main cause of the sharp increase in business is Congress' recent action in extending and liberalizing GI loan provisions. The new bill increased maximum interest rate from 4½ to 4¾ per cent on loans made by private lenders and guaranteed by the VA as well as those made directly to the veteran by the VA. In several areas private lenders have given evidence of a desire to participate with the VA in the guaranteed loan program after many months or years of inactivity in this field.

An even sharper increase in business is reflected in the direct loan program of the VA which provides for the lending of money for the purchase or construction of single family houses to veterans in areas where private financing is not readily available. The new bill raises the maximum limit on direct loans from $10,000 to $13,000 and wipes out Federal minimum down-payment requirements. Both of these liberalizing provisions have caused the influx of applications and inquiries about direct loans.

The new bill extends the period during which applications for direct loans may be made to World War II and Korean Conflict Period veterans to July 25, 1960. Korean Period veterans may apply for guaranteed loans through February 1, 1965, and for direct loans to July 25, 1960.

Roberts advises Maine veterans to obtain further details by personally visiting any VA Office or by writing to him at VA Office, 171 Middle Street, Portland, Maine

M. L. Stoddard, Manager of the Veterans Administration in Maine, wishes to list his field service facilities in response to frequent requests from veterans and their dependents.

The VA's contact representatives—so-called answer men—who assist and advise on filing benefit claims are located full time at VA Center, Togus; VA Office, 171 Middle Street, Portland; and VA Office, 96 Harlow Street, Bangor.

From the Bangor Office travelling contact representatives go to points in northern and Eastern Maine to bring VA service to those unable to get into the Bangor Office because of distance, disability, etc. Points usually visited are: Houlton, Presque Isle, Millinocket, Machias, Calais, Ellsworth, Lincoln, Dover-Foxcroft, and Belfast.

GI insurance policyholders who plan to reenter military service should not drop their policies in the belief they will be covered by the so-called "free $10,000 insurance," or indemnity. Veterans Administration states that the indemnity coverage ended more than a year ago, on January 1, 1957. An increasing number of veterans who are returning to service are making this mistake, VA says. They apparently do not know that the indemnity or so-called "free insurance" no longer is available. VA says most of these veterans were discharged while the indemnity still was in effect. It was abolished January 1, 1957, by the Survivors' Benefits Act, which substituted increased compensation rates for service-connected deaths.

VA's advice to these veterans: "If you go back into the service, don't drop your GI insurance in the belief you'll get free coverage. You won't, and you may lose your insurance in the bargain if it is near the end of its five-year term period."

FRATERNITY MINSTREL

Last month the fraternity enjoyed one of its most successful shows. In lieu of the "Frat Frolics" they had a minstrel, the theme of which was, "Bring Back Those Minstrel Days." Terry Coyne's past experience adequately qualified him as director of this show.

Besides the fraternity members there were four outside entertainers. Terry Bowden, Judy Kent, Anne Robbins, and Jim Richardson were the excellent outside vocal additions. John Gass was the pianist who rendered the accompaniment.

MU SIGMA CHI

JANICE FRAZIER

The candidates for Sweetheart of Mu Sigma Chi were Elaine Roundy, Charlotte Turner, Beverly McFarlaine, and Janice Frazier. Lovely Miss Janice Frazier was selected for this honor.

A record hop featuring "The Del Tones" followed the show with Lee Ware as disc jockey and M. C.

Friday, May 16, 10 members of Mu Sigma Chi along with Mr. Albert Spain, their adviser, toured north to Quebec for their annual spring trip. While there they went on guided tours and saw many historical landmarks. They returned to Bangor the evening of Sunday, May 18.

Tentative plans are being made for an outing to wind up the fraternity festivities for the year 1957-58.

TO GERMANY

April 26, 1958

Dear Swan and Brad:

I want to thank you for the Ledger; I enjoyed reading it very much. In the next one you can put a correction.

I am now working for the United States Army and am also leaving for Germany on the 21st of May. I am coming home on the 16th for about four days, then I am off to Frankfurt, Germany for two years. I just found out about 10 days ago, so I am now running all over creation to get things I will need, and trying to decide what I will be taking with me and what I want stored until I get back. Luckily, the Army comes in to pack me. I am going to store all of my furniture—three rooms full—until I gt back. At least it is all paid for. That is one thing I am thankful for. I have butterflies in my stomach and probably will have for another few weeks. It isn't every day that a person gets a chance like this. I will be working in the American Consulate in Frankfurt.

I chum around with Liz Kirstead a lot. She just bought herself a brand new Ford. It is a very nice car and she gets quite a kick out of it. We went to the annual "Maine State Society" lobster dinner last night. Boy, did that lobster ever taste good. That is one thing I miss down here—good lobster. Oh, well, you can't have everything.

The weather is just beautiful here. It has been hitting 82 and 85 some days, but this weekend is kind of cool. I had to wear my summer coat when I went downtown today.

Well, I must close for now. I will probably see you while I am home. I plan to come down to school on Monday, May 19. See you then.

Love,
Dottie

1958 "GRAD"

Charles "Buddy" Oliver, a January, 1958 graduate writes: I am getting along very well at Union Carbide. Their training program consists of teaching both the chemistry of plastics and the management of the plastics industry. Ultimately, I will be a Technical Representative and will serve as a correspondent betwen Bakelite Company and the manufacturers who use our raw materials in the manufacture of consumer products.

At present I am spending a few days in each of Bakelite's many offices here in New York, learning their functions and policies. I spent a week in both the Advertising and Credit Department and can truthfully say that both the "Advertising" and "Credits and Collections" courses that I took at Husson proved very beneficial.

As a point of interest, the management of Bakelite Company prefers to hire Business Administration graduates rather than technical graduates with engineering or chemistry degrees. They seem to feel that it is easier to teach the chemistry of plastics to a Business Administration graduate than it is to teach management and business policies to engineering and chemistry graduates. Therefore, I believe Bakelite would welcome interviewing future Husson Business Administration students.

Personally, I think it is a wonderful company and feel it offers good opportunities for those who are willing to study and try to improve themselves.

(For Buddy's friends who do not have his address, it is: 100 West 76th Street, New York 23, N. Y.)

1957 GRADUATE

Dear Miss Swan:

I certainly do appreciate your putting my name on the mailing list for the Husson Ledger. The minute that I received it, I sat right down and read it from cover to cover. It held so much interest—both about the students and the expansion of Husson.

As you will recall, I sent for my transcript. I took it over here to East Carolina College to have it evaluated and changed into quarter hour credits. And I was so pleased to learn that they accepted all of my credits, thus making me a Sophomore. This was quite unusual, for nearly everyone loses some points. That goes to show that Husson College is held in high esteem even from this great a distance.

We have a 45-foot trailer, and we live only about five blocks from the school. We both like living in a trailer real well. There are about 20 trailers in the court, and everyone (either wife or husband, or in some cases, both) goes to ECC.

Sincerely,
Diana Trask Pridgen

1946 GRADUATE

Dear Miss Swan:

Congratulations on your national rating in basketball. I read in the Husson Ledger that you had completed your 25th year in basketball. I am quite interested when something appears in the Ledger concerning a classmate of 1945-46.

We now have four children: Joyce, Tommy, Paul and Larry.

This past year I have been Treasurer of the Machias Parent-Teachers Association and have been elected to the same office for next year.

I'm on a bowling team but could never compete with the scores given by a classmate in the Ledger a while ago.

Sincerely,
Elsie Reynolds Johnson

CLASS OF '47

May 16, 1958

Mr. Chesley H. Husson, President
Husson College
157 Park Street
Bangor, Maine

Dear "Chief":

Received your letter of May 15 and was glad to be reassured of your continued interest in an old grad; although I needed no such reassurance.

Perhaps the most outstanding regard that I have for Husson College is the manner in which you have always stood behind me whenever called upon and wherever I have been.

I still have only the three youngsters; now aged 7, 10, and 11. We are all well and getting along fine. We seem to have been blessed with much good fortune. The present job at the bank involves the administration of estates and trusts and, of course, is a phase in which I previously was not proficient. For that reason it has indeed proved challenging and, at the same time, very interesting and satisfying.

Well, I guess I have rambled on long enough. Once again give my regards to all of my friends who are still there at Husson, and thanks for placing my name on your mailing list.

Sincerely,
John D. Robinson
Assistant Trust Officer

TO TYPE CLASSES

April 20, 1958

Dear Mr. Merrill,

We've had a successful campaign for the crippled children of our nation and especially of our state. In the face of many demands on the generosity of the people, now, with a recession on, I believe those of us who worked on the campaign can take special satisfaction in the results.

You and the students, who took on the arduous task of typing the envelopes, are entitled not only to "thanks," but to that good feeling that can only come from a voluntary job well done for someone less fortunate.

On radio and TV I tried to acknowledge the part Husson College played in the Easter Seal Campaign; I wish to do so again personally.

Thank you,
(Dr.) Martin Schmidt, Chairman

He has worked at the Y. W. C. A. all through his four years. He has a wonderful sense of humor and will be a delight to his students, yet will be in full control of his classes. Jim is affiliated with Kappa Delta Phi Fraternity. The best to you, Jimmie, and let us hear from you.

Margaret Leach, of Blue Hill, has been accepted by Metropolitan Life Insurance Company for Bangor for their office. Margaret is an A-1 secretary and will be graduated in June from the Junior Secretarial course. Margaret is real capable and has done excellent work at Husson. Good luck in your new job.

Mrs. Ruth Golding, a mother of two children, has been training in the Accounting Department this year. She plans to work in the Bangor area doing acounting. Mrs. Golding, has enjoyed her stay at Husson and it is certain that students and faculty have enjoyed her. She is a good student and an ambitious one. The best to you, Ruth. (Show your family this!)

Constance McClay is enrolled in a Stenographic course. She plans to be a stenographer and work in the Bangor area. Connie is a Bangor High Graduate and has upheld the honor of her school. She has beautiful red hair and wishes it were anything but red—guess she'd even settle for blue. The Ledger wishes you the best ever, Connie, and hope your one year here has been a memorable one.

SORORITY "DREAMLAND"

E. T. E.

A short time ago E.T.E. and Delta Sigma Delta chapters and a large audience took a journey to "Dreamland." This show was a great success, complete with chorus, specialty numbers, and a fashion show, to mention only a few of the surprises found along the way.

Now E.T.E. Chapter has placed another jewel in its crown of "things well done." The annual May Ball was held in the Gym on Friday, May 9. The theme of Dreamland was carried out with the stage the center of attraction, highlighted by floating clouds, and sparkling stars. A false ceiling on the stage was made in pastel green and yellow. This was accented by the use of the same colors and the Sorority symbol "E.T.E." in yellow daffodils on artificial grass. The entire gym was decorated with the same motif. The large crowd attending seemed to enjoy the music, furnished by Jack MacDonough's orchestra.

Charlotte Turner was chairman of the Decorating Committee, with Janice Day, Beverly Govone, and Elaine Roundy serving as her assistants. Bernadette Daigle and Darthea Atkinson were in charge of the beautifully decorated ice punchbowl. Joanne Philbrick and Judy Murphy were in charge of the bids. Nancy Wells had charge of the sale of the bids. We want, also, to thank those boys who helped us decorate for the dance.

The annual jaunt to Ada Woodman's camp at Bayside for a spaghetti feed and a good time took place Thursday, May 15. Twenty-six members attended the affair. Outstanding Achievement Awards were given to Nancy Gray, and Adrienne Strout. Certificates and pins were awarded to members of the Ledger Staff.

The last meeting of the year was held in the Annex Lounge on June 5. At that time, we had a surprise baby shower for Mrs. Adrienne Strout—everyone bringing a gift. Janice Moody, Darthea Atkinson, and Janice Day were in charge of the decorations which were appropriate for the occasion; and Ida Boylan, Judy Murphy, and Nancy Gray served the refreshments.

As we glance backward over the year, I think we can well be proud of our accomplishments and the good fellowship we have achieved this year. May our graduating sisters find their futures rich and satisfying.

D. S. D.

The Delta Sigma Delta Sorority held a "Come-As-You-Are" party at the T. A. Plourde residence on East Summer Street on May 1. Gloria Hjulstrom and Joan Larson were co-hostesses.

After the regular business meeting, Miss Kinney showed slides to the group. Some of the slides shown included shots of "Dreamland" and a former sorority "Come-As-You-Are" party. The sorority presented Joan Crabtree, one of the summer brides-to-be, with a blanket and an attractive dish. The refreshment table was centered with a cake topped with a bride and groom. The cake was served with punch and ice cream. The evening was concluded with an exchange of May baskets.

The final meeting of the Delta Sigma Delta Sorority was held on the afternoon of May 12. Plans for an outing on the weekend of May 16 were made.

On May 16 at 5:00 p. m. the Delta Sigma Delta girls left for China Lake from the school. We stayed overnight at the camp of Joan Crabtree's parents. Committees were formed to buy food and also serve the meals. The group returned Saturday, May 17 from a fun-packed weekend.
