THE LAMP

SUZANNE SAWYER

You have powers you never dreamed of. You can do things you never thought you could do. There are no limitations in what you can do except the limitations in your own mind as to what you cannot do.

Don't think you cannot.

Think you can.

To the Class of 1982:

Your persistent efforts, coupled with a desire to serve those in need, have brought you into this noble profession. Each of you should anticipate a lifetime of rewarding service.

Modern technology and rapid change will continue to affect the nursing profession. The challenge is to assess and utilize these modern developments so that each patient will reap ultimate benefits.

Congratulations to a class of promising professionals!

Irene Shannon, R.N.
Director, School of Nursing

Dedication

Bonnie Lou Stone

Teresa Steele

Traditionally, the senior class dedicates the yearbook to a person who has been both an inspiration and a guiding light throughout our nursing school careers.

This year with a slight variation in tradition, we dedicate The Lamp to two instructors who have guided us, as a class to help us achieve our goals and realize the potential that was instilled in each and every one of us. Mrs. Bonnie Lou Stone and Mrs. Teresa Steele symbolize the compassion, responsibility, and empathy we all hope to achieve.

They are very special and to all of their students, they are an inspiration.

So to you, Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Stone, we proudly dedicate our yearbook.

Friendship

Friendship defies age and ignores distance.
It weathers the hard times and shares the good.
Together we have found this.
Our friendship has provided acceptance and understanding in a world that pushes people apart.
But I will always remain with the memories of the times we have shared knowing how fortunate I am to be able to call you my friend.

Is . . .

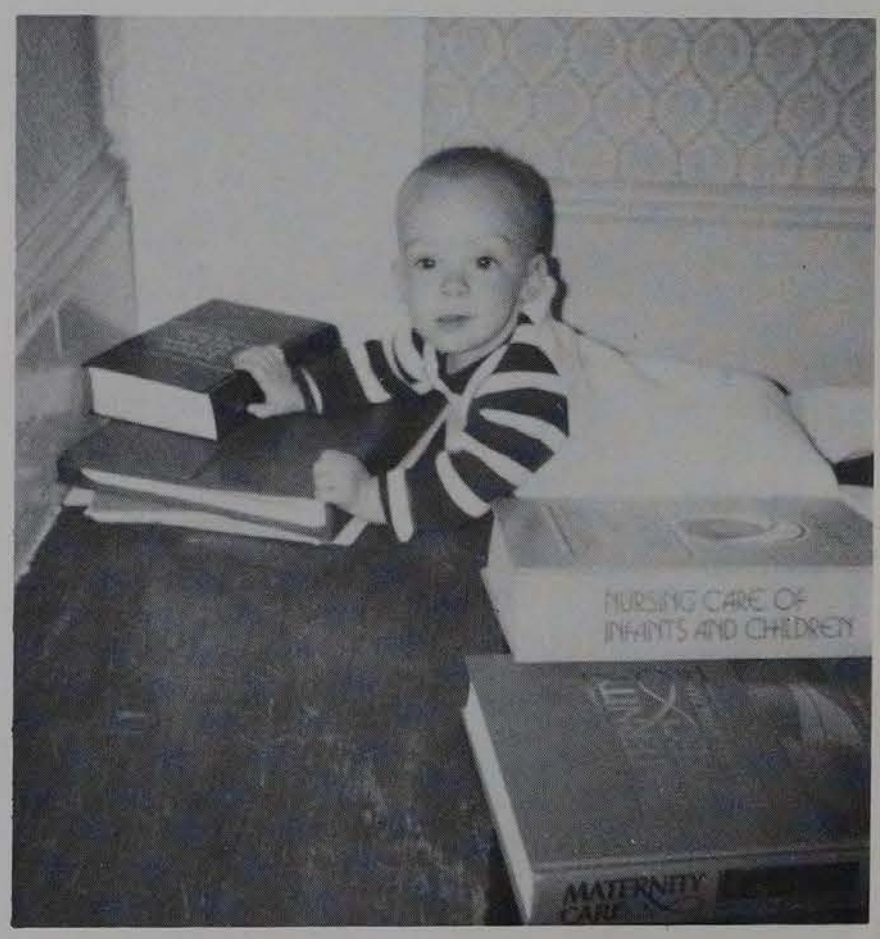

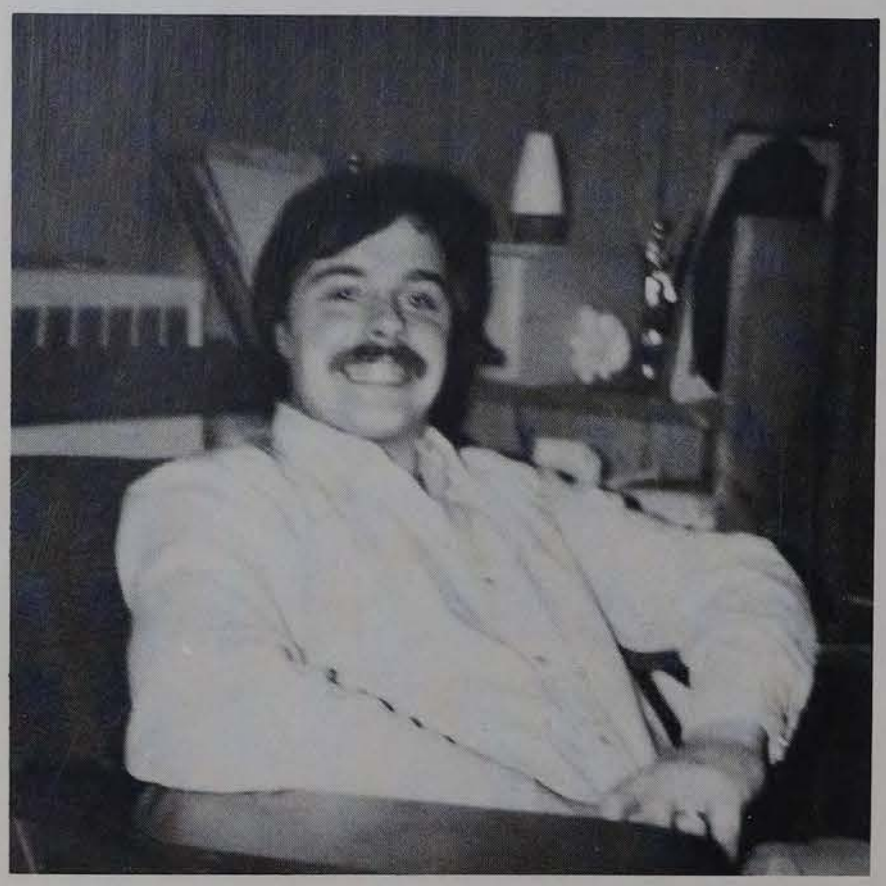

KAREN M. BABCOCK

Josh

Jenny Thank you for your friendship, love,
and support.

There are times in every life
When we feel hurt or alone . . .
But I believe that these times
When we feel lost and all around us seems to be falling apart are really bridges of growth.
We struggle and try to recapture
the security of what was,
but almost in spite of ourselves,
we emerge on the other side
with a new understanding,
  a new awareness,
  a new strength.
It is almost as though we must go through the pain and the struggle in order to grow and reach new heights.

LINDA A. HARMON

Kathy, you're the best!
You give friendship special meaning.

Mom & Dad,
You've truly been my best friends. Thank you for everything — from all the typing of term papers to delivering pizzas during finals, for doing my laundry, letting me use your car, allowances, but most important, thank you for your patience, understanding, loyalty, and love. I love you.

Nanie and Grampy,
You're two very special people. Thank you. I love you both.

Debbie, you're a beautiful sister & friend. Thank you. Reggie, if miles were only minutes, I'd see you tomorrow. I love you both. Dave, thanks for being there.

We once said hello and it all began . . .
But we shall never say goodbye . . .
  For goodbyes are too final.

My early practice

AMBIE HAYES-CROSBY

I never could have made it through these three years without your loving support Dad, Gram, and especially you, Bob. I love you all. Thank you.

After class? Ben's? Got it. Be there.

Is that an ethical dilemma?

Take a number, girls!

Are you with me???

Nice! Another schedule change.

More family

My family. Together we are one.

We go way back & my love for you will grow forever.

Special thanks to you my dear.

As a little girl, my only dream was to be a nurse. Looking back on these three years, I see that dream has become reality. It has been three years of growth, personally and professionally, hard work, tears, joys, and accomplishments. It could never have been without the help of my wonderful parents, family, and friends who became my family away from home. Thank you all for a dream come true.

Love is patient, love is kind.
It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud.
It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs.
Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with truth.
It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always preserves.
I Corinthians 13:4-7 NIV

To my family & friends:
Thank you all for everything you have done for me. For the faith you had in me to complete the goal I set. For the love and support that you gave to me. For the encouragement that was always there when I needed it. For the patience and understanding you always showed me. For the extra push you gave me when I was down and ready to give up. Without your love and prayers I could not have made it. Thank you.
I love you all very much.

MARILYN B. RENFRO

I'd like to thank all the members of my family and my close friends who gave me the love and encouragement that I needed to get through these past three years.

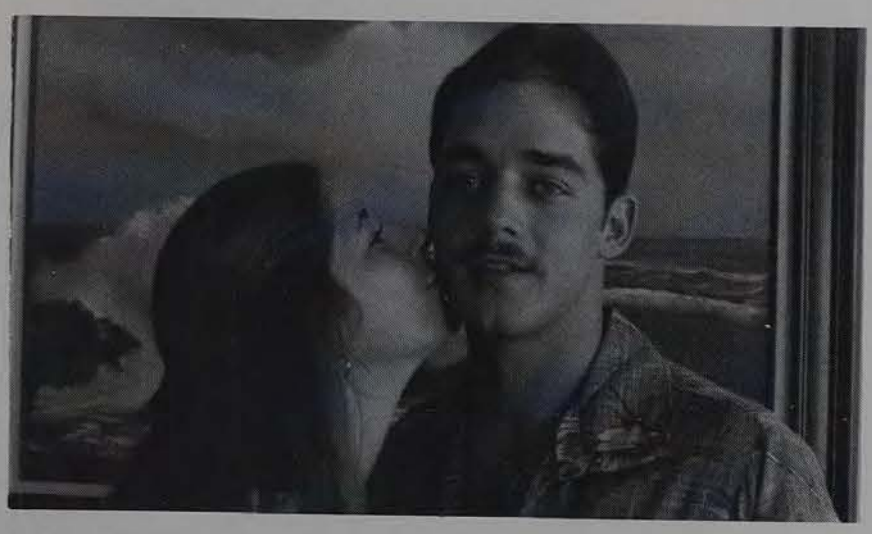

To be loved is to know happiness & contentment, to give love is to know the joy of sharing oneself . . . For it is through the miracle of love that we discover the fullness of life!

LISA J. RYDER

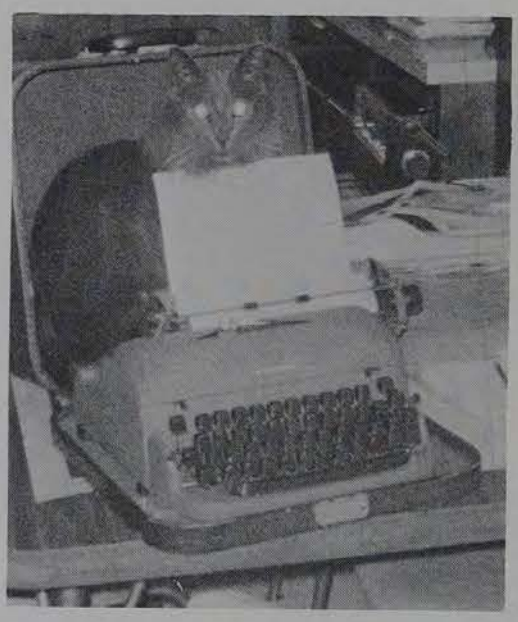

JOYCE E. SANFORD

I would like to than ny family and friends for the encouragement ar pport I received during my three years here MMC. When times got rough, there was always somebody with some encouraging words or a friendly smile to keep me going.

I appreciate everyone's concern and support and wish to say, "Thank you!" to everyone who helped me through this special time in my life. Now, this portion of my life is over, but yet another road lies ahead to follow into the future of my nursing career. May everything be happy in the future.

O Lord, our Lord
how majestic i[s] our name in all the earth!
You have set yo[ur] glory
above the hea[vens].
From the lips of [ch]ildren and infants you have ordained praise
because of your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger.

When I consider your heavens,
the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars,
which you have set in place,
what is man that you are mindful of him,
the son of man that you care for him?
You made him a little lower than the heavenly beings
and crowned him with glory and honor.

You made him ruler over the works of your hands;
You put everything under his feet:
all flocks and herds,
and the beasts of the field,
the birds of the air,
and the fish of the sea,
all that swim the paths of the seas.

O Lord, our Lord,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!

SUZANNE M. SAWYER

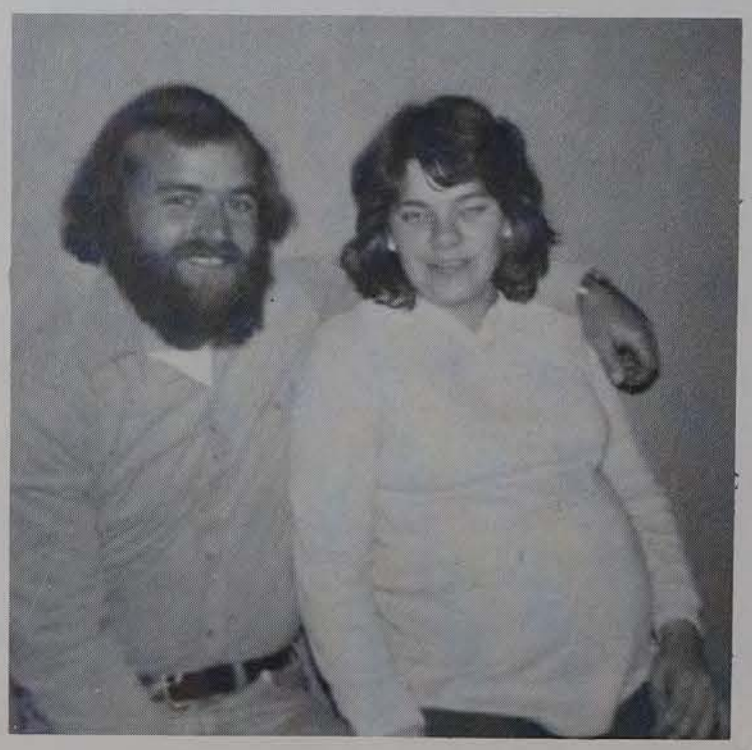

SANDRA L. SEARLES

I would like to thank my friends and family, especially Dad, Mum, and Gary, who gave me their love, support, and encouragement throughout these past three years. I've always dreamed of becoming a nurse and all of you have helped this dream become reality. "I Love You."

ELIZABETH A. SHERMAN

If I can stop one heart from breaking,
I shall not live in vain;
If I can ease one life the aching,
or cool one pain,
or help one fainting robin unto his nest again
I shall not live in vain.
Emily Dickinson

LISA B. SMITH

Thanks to my family and friends for their love and support.

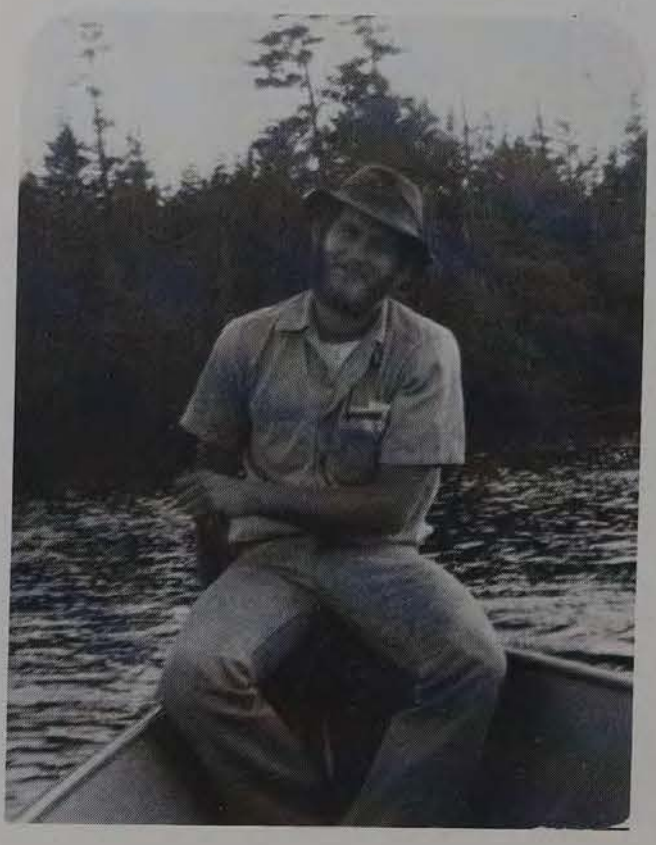

True Enough, we all have obligations and duties toward our fellow men. But it does seem curious enough that in modern, neurotic society, men's energies are consumed in making a living and rarely in Living itself. It takes a lot of courage for a man to declare, with clarity and simplicity, that the purpose of life is to enjoy it.

—Lin Yutang

With special thanks to my Gram and Dan.

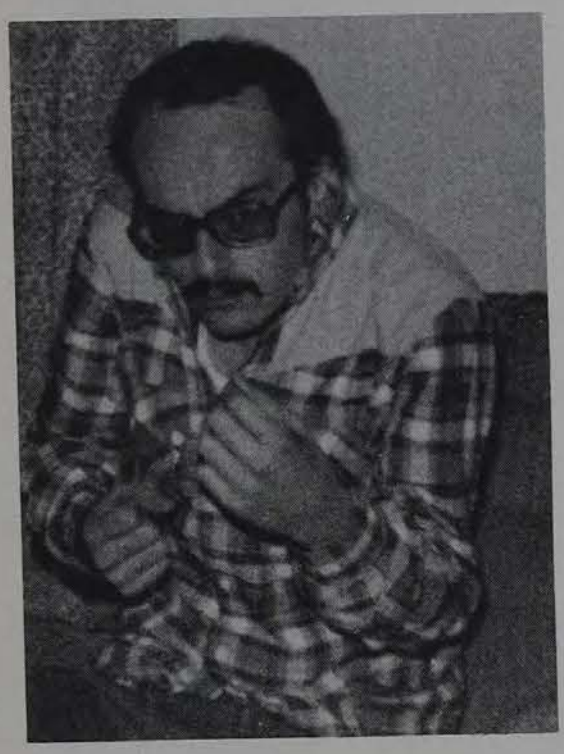

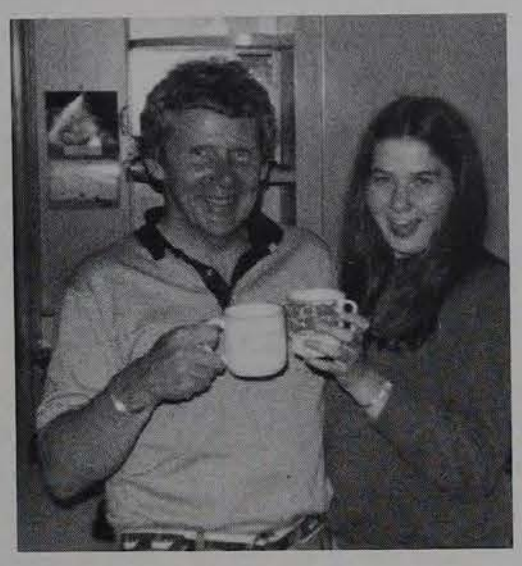

ERIN M. WALSH

Thanks to all,
I love you very much.

TIMOTHY G. WARD

Thanks for three great years!
I'll remember those who made this all possible.
