Commencement Speaker

Dr. Lloyd H. Elliott

President

George Washington University

Husson College is honored to present Dr. Lloyd H. Elliott, President of the George Washington University in Washington, D. C.

The former University of Maine President received his A.B. degree from Glenville State College in West Virginia, his A.M. degree from West Virginia University in West Virginia, and his Doctor of Education degree from the University of Colorado. He was also the recipient of honorary Doctor of Law degrees from the University of New Hampshire, Colby College, Concord College, West Virginia University and the University of Maine.

Prior to his assignment at the University of Maine as President, Dr. Elliott was Executive Assistant to the President at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York, and Professor of Educational Administration. During his career at Cornell, Dr. Elliott was also acting Director of the School of Education, Assistant to the Provost, and Director of Summer Sessions.

Dr. Elliott's education career, which began in 1937, includes assignments as teacher, principal, university instructor, and assistant to the superintendent of schools. In addition, he was a Lt. Commander in the United States Naval Reserve.

Dr. Elliott holds directorships, chairmanships, and trusteeships in 19 organizations. He is Vice President of the Association of Urban Universities, Secretary of the American Council on Education, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Consortium of Universities, Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Greater Washington Education Television Association, a member of the Higher Education Advisory Committee of the Education Commission of the States, and a member of the Board of Directors of the Washington Institute of Foreign Affairs.

A native of Clay County in West Virginia, Dr. Elliott has authored some 35 articles and papers in the field of Education.

Dr. Elliott is married to the former Evelyn Elder, and the couple has two sons.
